Keep This Year Book Handy

FORWARD!

A Challenge from The Editors

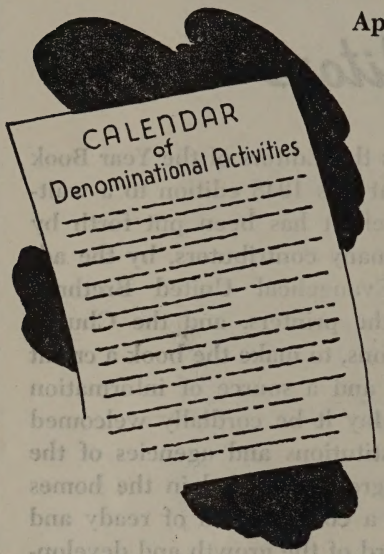

WITH cordial greetings the Editors of the Year Book are pleased to present this 1948 edition to a waiting Church. Every effort has been put forth by the editors and the many contributors, by the advertisers and the Evangelical United Brethren Publishing Houses, the printers, and the Church agencies and institutions, to make the book a credit to the denomination and a source of information to all who use it. May it be cordially welcomed and well received by the offices, institutions and agencies of the Church, in the more than 4,500 congregations, and in the homes of our almost 750,000 members! As a compendium of ready and worthwhile information and as a record of the growth and development of the Church during the year 1947, the Year Book is one of the indispensables to all who have the welfare of the Kingdom at heart.

This church annual presents a challenge to the Church to "Go Forward." There is now one year of history behind the new denomination which came into being on that momentous Saturday, November 16, 1946. It has been a year of satisfaction as boards have consolidated, new programs have gotten under way, and a sense of "one-ness" has animated every activity of the Church. This unity is the result, not of the victory of one over the other, but of the giving of the best of the former denominations, to each other. Now as one united denomination we have a broader outlook and a greater vision than either possessed separately. This united front as revealed in the Kingdom Advance Program and the timely evangelistic campaign with its "Ten Win One" goal, the themes of this Year Book, provides new impetus to "Go Forward."

Our prayers are that 1948 may be a year of victory for the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

Summer camps and assemblies usually focus the attention of young people on their life work. Nothing is more pertinent for Evangelical United Brethren young people today than an emphasis on Christian Vocation which covers an approach to all of life. As the Church helps make that central commitment, there will be a number who will interpret it through one of the church vocations–the ministry, mission work, and leadership in Christian education. Let us put these young people in touch with our denominational institutions of higher education.

CHURCH PROPERTY

Church property speaks, and very eloquently too at times–for or against the church. When the property is kept attractive and speaks of order, beauty, devoted care, it makes a real appeal to those who are sensitive to spiritual influence. But what it says about carelessness, ill repair, neglect, is very hard to discount! What does your church property tell to those who pass by?

The First Year of Church Union

U. B. Building, Dayton, Ohio

THE first year of the new quadrennium following the uniting of the General Conference is now a matter of history. The success of this union has surpassed the most sanguine expectations of our most optimistic leaders. To date I have not learned of a single church in either of the former denominations that has dissented or refused to go along with the merger. That there are some features in the new organization that are not satisfactory to some individuals is to be expected. Some changes will evidently be made at the next General Conference, but the fundamental structure of the Evangelical United Brethren Church as expressed in the Discipline will remain. It required a century for the former churches to develop their technique.

There is a remarkable spirit of unanimity and fellowship prevailing all along the line. This is destined to grow stronger with the passing of the years and the line of difference between the former denominations will become fainter and fainter until we are one in spirit and purpose as well as in organization.

Lines of difference are rapidly passing. Some local churches are asking now to become one church, so also annual conferences. All this is a good omen. There is an exchange of speakers in the annual conference, camps, conventions and other public gatherings. It will not be long until no one will be saying, "I am of Paul and another I am of Apollos," but we are all one in Christ Jesus.

With this larger denomination and a united front the future is bright with hope. "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength." To this end let us look to a higher power than organization or numbers but to the leading of the Holy Spirit.

Forward With Christ In Service

The 1948 theme of our denomination

Bishop of the Pacific Area

OUR first year of church union is now closed. What a blessed year it has been in getting more intimately acquainted, in experiencing our larger fellowship in Christ, in harmonizing our techniques and procedures, in adjusting our plans and methods for a more effective service to a desperately needy world.

The organic union of our two communions was hailed with great joy and wide acclaim in church annals throughout America and the whole world. What we did in Johnstown, Pa., November 16, 1946, was an event of major proportions in ecclesiastical history. We now stand among the ten major bodies in Protestantism and can speak with increased emphasis and power upon the moral and spiritual issues of our day.

It is a matter of profound gratitude to God that we can record no evident expressions of dissatisfaction or ill-will in this first year of our union. On the other hand there has been evident a determined attitude of going through to victory in the possible uniting of conferences and churches when such opportunity and time appear feasible. Conferences have gone beyond that of mere fraternization; some met together in camps, institutes, rallies, and sought to work out in practical ways the spirit and purpose of union.

The general departments, boards and agencies of the church have moved forward in their respective fields of service under trained and competent leadership which augurs well for progress and victory. One of the most significant meetings held during the past year was the Planning Conference on Evangelism at Linwood Park, Ohio. This conference, attended by 250 leaders of the church, representing all the general departments, evangelists, superintendents, directors of education and evangelism of nearly all the conferences, frankly faced the need, plans, methods and spiritual empowerment necessary for a dynamic program of evangelism to be promoted throughout our communion. This program is not only to affect local churches, but our colleges, institutions and the missionary work of the whole church. It appeared to many of us who were present at this significant meeting that the Holy Spirit definitely put his seal upon the new church for a more effective and thoroughgoing evangelism. Every delegate was deeply moved by the spiritual emphasis given in the addresses which were made. Delegates were heard to remark that no member in the church need be in doubt as to the attitude of the church leaders upon the great doctrines which our denominations have cherished in the past: the necessity of the new birth, the work of the Holy Spirit, the redemption of all of life, the spiritual enrichment of all the members of our churches and the rebirth of a divine passion for the salvation of the lost.

IT WOULD appear that all that has transpired during this first year of merger has vindicated the union of these two denominations. With such assurance, we should now move forward into greater spheres of service. This ought to obtain in the work of local churches. With the help and inspiration of the general officers. we have available competent and trusted leadership which can be used in aiding local churches in meeting the challenge and solving the problems of the parishes. It is to be hoped that pastors will use the plans, methods and all literature provided, and seek to follow the program and leadership of the church so that the greatest victories can be achieved. If the churches would give one hundred per cent response to this, we would surprise ourselves at the achievements registered.

A great advantage accruing from our union will be the possibility of better conservation of the membership of our churches. With a better coverage of the various sections of our country by the greater number of church units, we must see to it that a strong program is promoted by which pastors and churches are advised of removals into their sections of members from the churches of other communities.

In building a stronger home base, we will therefore be able to reach out with a stronger arm to the very ends of the earth with our missionary message and ministry. Through the specialized service of the Board of Missions, we ought to launch out with a great missionary program which will call forth all the resources of faith, prayer and lives represented in our church.

"Forward Together with Christ in Service" calls for immediate response. Never were the needs of humanity greater. Never were the fields more white unto harvest. Evil is certainly rampant, if not triumphant, in our world today. It must be effectively challenged now. The lairs of sin must be met by Christian people who fear no consequences. Our church must join in this great forward movement, lest we discover to our dismay that we had "too little and almost too late."

If we go "Forward Together with Christ," we must—

(1) Actually go to our knees and recover that indispensable leverage of prayer. More things are still wrought by prayer than this world dreams of. We need it for the cleansing of our own souls and the preparation necessary for dynamic service.

(2) Consult the Holy Spirit in all our plans and procedures. Dr. Stanley Jones says many Christians are guilty of by-passing Pentecost. Here may be the reason for our failures. Receiving the fullness of the Holy Spirit may be the answer to all our needs.

(3) Let us make Evangelism the primary matter in the activities of every congregation. Evangelism must come first if we are to achieve our goal of adding 75,000 members each year.

(4) Let us see to it that our Evangelism really evangelizes. We must actually aim at changing lives. Men are not evangelized until they begin living on a Christ-like level.

(5) Let us find Evangelists among the rank and file of our people. We believe this is the first duty of every pastor. The pastor must lead in a supreme effort to organize his workers in teams for witnessing and visitation evangelism. Let every pastor take to heart the words of Paul: "Do the work of an evangelist."

(6) Let us be expectant. Let this spirit lay hold of every preacher as he enters the pulpit on Sunday. If the preacher does not expect God to manifest his power in and through the service, how can the layman be expected to have such faith? Every service we hold is a crucial hour in the life of somebody. Let us expect God to save. Let us not hesitate to call on our people to make decisions.

These experiences must be had by all of us if we are to go forward together with Christ in a richer and fuller service. Surely it is the will of God for us in this day of need and challenge.

A Challenge That Challenges

By Dr. O. T. Deever, General Secretary of Evangelism

Except Ye Repent

"Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." Luke 13: 5.

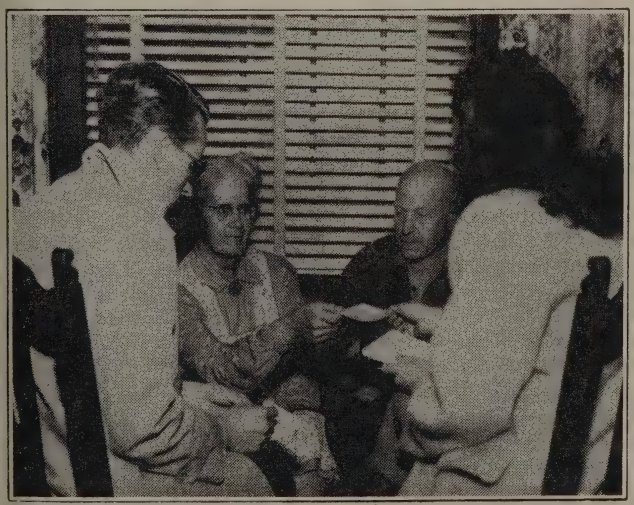

OUR world faces a serious crisis. Civilization is in danger of collapse. Sin is rampant. Devastation and spiritual destruction are everywhere. We are doomed unless some new spiritual resource is found. In the midst of the insane rampage of war, we have witnessed a terrible breakdown of morals. The Church is weak and divided. It requires approximately fifty-two Christians to win one person in a year to Christ. Home life continues to crumble. Worship is neglected. Unbelief in prayer is widespread. Hatred, greed and bitterness have warped people's judgments and created tensions which make Christian work difficult.

We need a revival. No artificial stimulation of the United Nations, or science or education or legislation will do. Only Christ and a new birth can meet the demands of the hour. A true revival is our only hope. God alone has the life and power we need. Our hope is in him and not in humanity or any human plan apart from him. We need God to reclaim us. We must offer ourselves without reserve to him and the salvation provided through Christ.

A Wide Open Door

"Behold, I have set before you an open door, and no man can shut it." Revelation 3: 8.

If ever a denomination had a wide open door before it, ours certainly has. God opened this door through his divine leadership in bringing about and blessing our Church union. In ten General Conference sessions of the United Brethren Church which I have attended, I do not hesitate to say that the presence and leadership of the Holy Spirit was most felt at the time of our vote on Church union in May, 1945, at Westerville, Ohio. Since the uniting of the churches in November, 1947, divine leadership has been constantly apparent. Surely no man can thwart God's holy purpose for this noble united Church of which we are now a part.

Personal evangelism offers a great opportunity today for winning others

The united General Conference provided a church-wide organization for evangelism including a General Commission, a Commission for each Annual Conference, and a Committee for each local church. It adopted an excellent program of evangelism. It provided full-time leadership for this major interest of the Church through a general secretary, an associate general secretary and a half-time assistant to implement the program it had outlined.

The Linwood Conference

Acting on the direction of the General Conference, the General Commission met in March, 1947, and set a goal of 75,000 new members to be won each year of the quadrennium. This ten win one objective is based on the number of members in the entire church. Plans were made to organize the church in realizing this and other supporting goals. Accordingly in July, 1947, a Planning and Training Conference on Evangelism was held at Linwood Park, Vermilion, Ohio.

At this strategic and important gathering the entire Church was tied together in a chain of projected areal, conference and district meetings to plan and train for a great church-wide evangelistic crusade. With all nine active bishops present, nearly all conference superintendents, conference secretaries of evangelism and conference directors of Christian education and with twenty-five full-time evangelists, one representative from each of our colleges and seminaries save one, and other leaders, the growing evangelistic campaign was further matured and the entire Church knit together in a covenant of prayer and dedication to accomplish the God-given evangelistic mission.

All felt that God had brought our Church to the kingdom for such an hour as this. Surely the fields are white unto the harvest. The following words of the General Conference need to be burned into all our hearts because they are desperately true.

> The primary task, and the ultimate task as well, of every local church and of every individual Christian is to make Jesus Christ known as Saviour and Lord to the whole world. In the heart of it, and at the heart of it, lie three great basic convictions: (1) that man is absolutely and hopelessly lost and needs a Saviour; (2) that Jesus Christ by the merits and mercies of his death, and the power of his resurrection, and his enthronement in heaven, is competent for every human need; and (3) that to the individual Christian, in the ministry and in the laity, is committed the responsibility and the glory of bringing human need and Divine sufficiency together.
> The Program of Evangelism in the Evangelical United Brethren Church centers definitely in the historic beliefs and convictions of the communions that have united to form this new and larger church. Our world is in desperate need today and we declare that Christ's redemptive grace alone can meet that need today and that the Christian evangel is adequate to meet that need. The Christian Church and its ministry provides the means for Christian evangelism.

The Command is "Forward"!

By George Edward Epp, D.D., LL.D.
President of the Board of Missions

The seal stamped on all relief goods sent abroad.

IN 1918 when the Allies were on the offensive in Europe, the famous Yankee Division was moving to the battle front. Captain Francis W. Leahy of Haverhill, Massachusetts, commanding an infantry company, was just signaling his men to advance when an enemy shell struck a nearby tree. A hugh limb came crashing down and tore off his legs near the hips. As his life-blood was ebbing away, the dying officer said to his second in command: "Lieutenant, the command is 'Forward!' See the boys through!" Then he died; a lone symbol of millions who in the grim battle of life have made the supreme sacrifice in an undying cause.

Reasons for the Kingdom Advance Program

The divine imperative is upon us. We must advance. The Kingdom waits. World War II has, with the exception of Africa and Switzerland, dealt most harshly with all our Overseas Mission and Church work. In China, Japan, the Philippines, Germany, France, Poland and Lativa the war has brought wanton waste to very large blocks of our mission property. Churches, schools, hospitals, Mission residences for foreign and native staff have been bombed, burned and looted. Our physical losses must be counted in terms of millions of dollars.

The war has disrupted our mission programs; seriously decimated our missionary personnel and native church membership; made impossible the proper training of native and foreign workers; blocked for long periods of years every advance and expansion venture.

The whole fabric of life—political, economic and social, has been shaken to its very foundation. We fought the war to guarantee the freedoms we possess to all peoples in the earth, everywhere—the freedom of expression; freedom of worship, freedom from want and freedom from fear. But this war has brought more destruction of property and human life; plunged more millions of human beings into galling slaveries, deadly hunger and haunting fears, than any previous war. It has left whole nations physically exhausted and in tragic ruin and has made the whole world morally and spiritually depleted and well-nigh bankrupt.

The very critical nature of the present world situation constitutes a clarion call to the Church and her missionary enterprise, "to build once more the ancient ruins and to raise the old foundations again" and become "the restorer of wrecked homes."

The mandate of the General Conference is upon the Board of Missions to move forward in relief, rehabilitation, reconstruction and advance, on every missionary front. This Board of Missions has accordingly been engaged in an heroic restudy of its total program. Committees on post-war planning have for a long time studied current trends and the implications thereof with respect to the total future program and outreach of our missionary venture.

This is big business. It is in every respect a going concern. Like Christians in every century the Board of Missions takes literally the mandate of our Lord and Saviour—"Go ye into all the world . . . preach . . . teach . . . heal."

The Kingdom Advance an Imperative

The Evangelical United Brethren Church needs this Kingdom Advance Program now to provide an adequate channel of expression for its God-given powers; needs it to save its own soul from selfishness.

The ministry of our Church needs it to vitalize its pulpit and pastoral service. It makes the pastor's heart beat warm for brotherhood, thrilled by the rewarding sense of comradeship with a mighty host.

The youth of our Church needs this Kingdom Advance Program to tie it into a great crusade; needs it to open the doors of opportunity for wider Christian service. This program of reconstruction, expansion and advance has been long overdue. It will take the united effort of all of us in terms of young trained lives and spiritual as well as material assets. Money alone is not enough, we know, but it will take lots of—millions to be exact. But beyond that we must give ourselves.

The Kingdom Advance Program must do something for the Church in the homeland. It must awaken, enlighten, clarify and develop a Church-wide Missionary passion and purpose. It must become a great medium of missionary education in every circle of our influence. It must capture the thinking of our people. It must introduce us all more fully to the wide range of our present operations in the homeland, in Africa, Asia, Europe and the Islands of the sea.

It must teach us that missions is a great partnership, a linking of human forces with the forces of the universe, the divine. The present desperate state of the world calls for the earliest possible increase in the number of missionaries in training to be sent to the respective fields around the world.

Two Million Three Hundred Thousand for What?

America put three times as many men to work at digging a ditch across the Panama, as all the Protestant Churches of America were putting into world evangelization prior to World War II. Eighty sending agencies had 14,000 missionaries at work overseas while the Government used 40,000 men at a cost of $200,000,000 to build the Panama Canal across the waiste-line of the continent.

Vest pocket contributions to missions, once a year, will no longer suffice nor accomplish this superhuman task of digging through the stubborn hard part of programism to let the redemptive grace of God flow into human hearts the world around. Nowhere in the world will your dollars stretch so far nor do so much.

Yes, two million, three hundred thousand are needed now for the threefold objective of relief, reconstruction and advance. So far the Church has given a most wonderful response to every appeal for material goods—car loads of clothing, food, shoes and soap, and medicines and mountains of CARE packages as well as an endless stream of parcel post packages have gone to the needy. This was our first responsibility. We will continue as long as there is need in Europe and in Asia.

But now the hour has struck to undertake the longer range parts of the Kingdom Advance Program. Rehabilitation of bombed out and burned out pastors, missionaries and native workers—who have lost all their earthly possessions, is a part of that program.

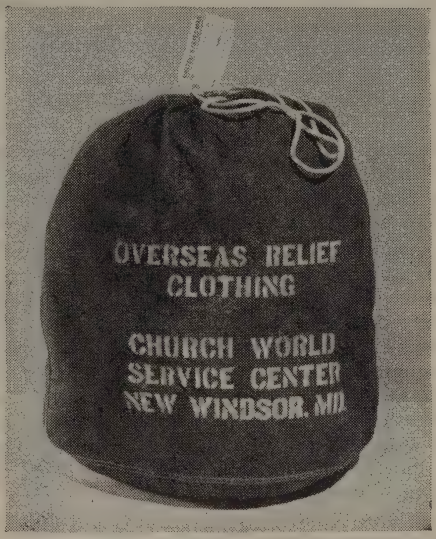

Schools, hospitals, churches and missionary residences need to be rebuilt. In Europe portable chapels, in some of the cities where the churches were completely destroyed and no building materials will be available for a long time, will filll a great need. Some have been placed in cities like Stuttgart, Essen, Berlin; others have been approved for Frankfurt, Dresden and other needy places. Partially destroyed buildings will be reconstructed as soon as possible. Here are many worthwhile projects for congregations or families to undertake. The great expansion program in the hour of greatest opportunity needs now to be launched a new stream of missionary recruits and replacements need to be sent out.

We must take the whole world into our census. We must do something quickly to link a lost race to God and save it for Kingdom purposes. God wills it (Deus Vult!) the crusaders shouted. Here is a crusade to rekindle the spirit of mutual self-help, and self sacrifice, in our people. Invincible resources are at our command.

It is our big business. Let us count the cost. The command is forward.

Our Church Answers the Call for Help

By Rev. John F. Schaefer, Director of Material Aids

THE smoke of battle had scarcely cleared away from the wreckage and rubble of war devastated Europe and Asia before the Christian people in America began to organize themselves for an effective program of relief and rehabilitation. Millions of these people who were in dire want and need were our allies. It was generally agreed that they deserved our help. Millions of others had been our enemies. Some felt they deserved to suffer, but the Christian people who were taught to "Feed our enemies" felt a sense of responsibility for the needs of defeated people in Germany and Japan. They were eager to win the peace and they were convinced that there would be no lasting peace until we provided hungry men with food and naked children with clothing. It was not long after the war that Evangelical United Brethren people began sending 11-pound packages of food and clothing to our ministers in Germany as the first harbingers of a new day of peace and as symbols of the Christian spirit of reconciliation and good will.

It is impossible to estimate how many 11-pound packages were shipped to the people in Central Europe from the Evangelical United Brethren Church people here in America. One conference sent over 3,000 such packages in a six-month period. This same conference invested over $8,000.00 in CARE packages which were sent to individuals and church institutions in Germany. Several congregations adopted a congregation in Central Europe and endeavored to supply the needs of the members and friends of the adopted congregation. The Board of Missions, through liberal grants to Church World Service, and through such relief organizations as CARE, contributed thousands of dollars to help meet the immediate needs of our brethren in Germany, Japan and China. Organized efforts on the denominational wide scale were handicapped because of the strict regulations which made large bulk shipments impossible.

Early in the year 1947 the Kingdom Advance Program of the Evangelical United Brethren Church set up the Material Aids Department as one branch of the program. The Rev. John F. Schaefer, pastor of the First Evangelical United Brethren church at Elgin, Ill., was asked to serve as director. The director, in co-operation with the Committee on Material Aid Projects of the Kingdom Advance Program, was requested to map out a comprehensive church-wide program. An office for Material Aid was established at the First church in Elgin, and early in July a program was organized which sought to mobilize every age group in the church to help in the fight against hunger and want.

The first project launched was the church-wide clothing collection. Using as a slogan, "Ship Now Before Winter Comes," the churches were asked to organize a clothing drive within the local congregation and secure as much clothing as possible for shipment overseas. Through the co-operation of Brethren Service, which placed the facilities of the processing centers at Nappanee, Indiana and New Windsor, Maryland, at the disposal of the Kingdom Advance Program, the clothing collected was sent to these two centers where it was processed and baled for overseas shipment.

The first shipment of clothing reached the center at Nappanee, Indiana, on July 12; and by the end of October some 40,000 pounds of clothing had been received from Evangelical United Brethren churches. Over 600 churches had co-operated in the drive by late October. The first shipment of baled clothing left New York early in October, and other shipments followed as soon as the baled clothing arrived seaboard. This clothing was sent to the four distributing depots set up by the German conferences in the four zones in Germany, and from these depots it is distributed according to need among our own and other needy people.

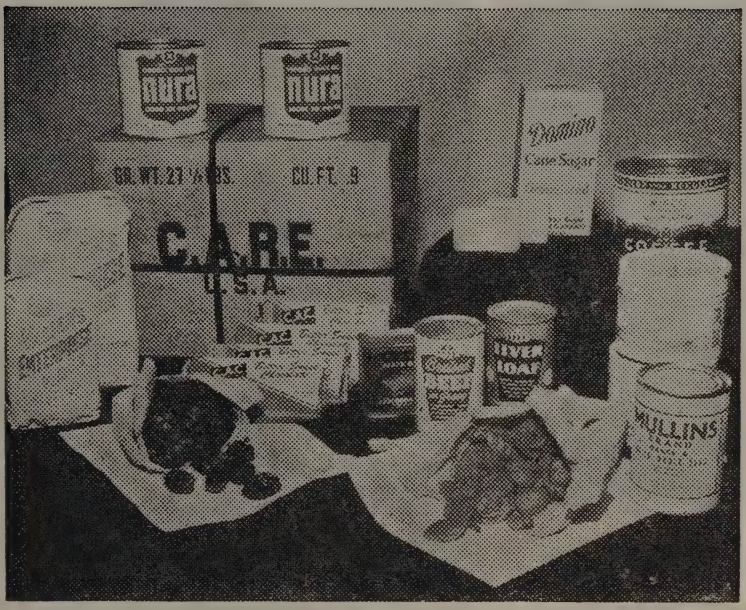

The Youth Fellowship co-operated in this clothing collection by sponsoring a drive known as "Togs for Teens." This project was promoted by the Youth Fellowships in the various conferences and resulted in the collection of a large quantity of clothing which was sent to Germany as a gift from the young people of the mother church in America. Although efforts have been made to send large bulk shipments of clothing at Japan, at present the avenues are not open. Many people are sending 22-pound boxes of clothing to the two depots in Japan.

Early in the summer of 1947 the Brethren Service Committee offered to make soap out of waste grease and fats, collected from our people, at the soap factory which the Brethren Service Committee operated at Nappanee, Ind. Announcements were made in the church periodicals of this offer, and soon many church groups were collecting grease for peace. By the middle of October over 550 churches had requested containers for waste fat and grease. From every pound of fat collected, the factory produced 1½ pounds of soap. When all of the containers requested are returned it is estimated that the Kingdom Advance Program will have over ten tons of soap to ship to Germany and Japan. One thousand pounds of soap was sent to Germany with the first shipment of baled clothing in October, and other shipments have followed since that time.

The Women's Society for World Service co-operated whole-heartedly in several of the Material Aids projects. Many of the societies filled sewing kits, which were sent directly to Germany or forwarded to Nappanee and New Windsor for shipment overseas. Other societies made blankets and quilts, now being used by some of our brethren in Central Europe who have no fuel to keep their homes warm. Early in October the women co-operated in the Christmas Package Project, asking family groups to pack and send a 22-pound Christmas box to one of the depots in Germany or Japan as a gift from an Evangelical United Brethren family in America. Although the number of boxes sent has not been tabulated, we have reasons to believe that there was a splendid response on the part of our church families to this project.

The people in Germany and Japan need food desperately. Besides facing the scarcity which resulted from the war and from the disorganization of the economic life of the country which followed in the wake of the defeat, the German people suffered one of the worse droughts in history this past summer. They were unable to harvest the quantity of food stuffs they raised normally, which makes this winter one of the most tragic in years. During the summer of 1947 the Kingdom Advance Program spent over $30,000.00 for food relief in Central Europe, and almost one-third that amount for food relief in Japan. Arrangements were worked out with CARE whereby large purchases were cabled to warehouses in Germany and the order delivered to the depots in Southern, Central and Northern Germany. Early in July 1,000 food packages were sent to Germany through CARE, and in August Bishop G. E. Epp and Bishop J. S. Stamm purchased an additional 2,000 packages for our German church people. A policy of food shipments was adapted which includes the shipment of large bulk supplies, together with CARE packages; and it is hoped that this additional food will enable our people in Central Europe to survive the long winter months. It is expected that avenues will soon be opened for sending large bulk shipments or CARE packages to Japan.

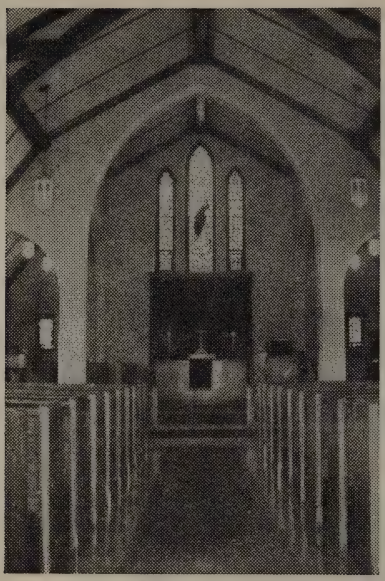

On World-Wide Communion Sunday the Brotherhood sponsored a relief offering on a denominational wide basis. Because of this offering, no other special appeal for funds for food was made during the summer and fall of 1947. The members of the church responded in a magnificent way to the call for help and contributed a large sum. This money will be used to purchase additional food supplies and to finance rehabilitation projects.

SEVERAL of our churches in the rural areas co-operated in the state-wide rural relief drives and designated contributions for the Material Aids Department of the Kingdom Advance Program. One of our churches in Reynolds, North Dakota, contributed a carload of wheat which is being shipped to Germany where it will be milled and given to one of our relief depots for distribution. Other churches in the wheat and corn belts made contributions of produce which, if designated, will be credited to the Material Aids program of our church. Two or three of our larger city congregations are planning to purchase a carload of cereal for shipment to Germany or Japan.

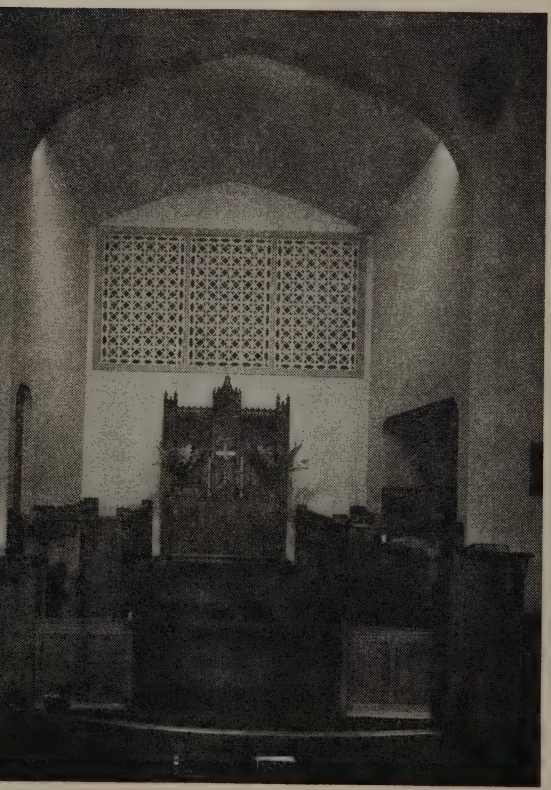

These Material Relief projects are only a part of the larger program of the Kingdom Advance. As long as the need for the bare necessities of life are so great, and it now appears as if people will need gifts of food and clothing for years ahead, the Christian people in America are under obligation to supply these needs. The world need is so tremendous that government agencies must help cope with the crisis. This program of government assistance does not relieve the Christians of their responsibility, however. We must support every effort that is being made to help the innocent victims of the war, but we must give generously through the denominational and United Church program in the name of Christ our Lord. It is impossible to forecast the dawn of the day when there will be bread for all of God's children everywhere on this earth. Relief alone will never bring a permanent solution to the problems faced by our people in Germany and Japan. Our relief efforts must be followed by a comprehensive program of rehabiltation. We must help our people rebuild; rebuild their churches, rebuild their hospitals, rebuild their schools, rebuild their institutions. We must provide funds for the purchase of necessary materials and supplies which will enable them to help themselves. We must organize a long range program of missionary expansion. The emphasis must be shifted gradually from relief to rehabilitation.

Council of Administration

SOME of the functions of the General Council of Administration, as authorized by the General Conference, are: (1) To study, coordinate, and promote the total program of the church as expressed through the various boards and agencies; (2) to give guidance and counsel to boards and agencies as need may arise; (3) to promote the principles of Christian stewardship and systematic giving and to strengthen and systematize the financial policy of the church; and (4) to promote the unified budget for missions and benevolence and encourage each annual conference and local church to raise its quota in full.

In keeping with this authorization the work of the Council, during the year 1947, has required a variety of activities. This work included such items as preparation of the Quadrennial Manual, in which is set forth the quadrennial program of the church; the annual textbook, entitled "Christian Fellowship"; report blanks for all phases of our work in local churches, annual conferences, and so forth; and stewardship materials for promoting the program of Christian stewardship emphasis and study during the period between Easter and Pentecost.

Year's Emphasis—Theme: FORWARD TOGETHER WITH CHRIST IN SERVICE.

Scripture Text: Matthew 23:11—"But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant."

Aim: The realization of greater usefulness to Christ and his Church through self-giving service.

Objectives: 1. To reappraise the service and contributions of the church to the spiritual and material needs of mankind and to enlist the total membership of the church in this ministry.

2. To cultivate throughout our church the use of material things for spiritual purposes.

3. To train our people in co-operative service, both in the denomination and in the larger fellowship.

4. To train our people in the use of the basic and historic source of the Christian religion.

5. To manifest the "Good Samaritan" spirit of service among the suffering and needy peoples of the world, and to raise an adequate amount for this purpose.

6. To continue the enlistment of missionaries and the securing of their support.

7. To complete the raising of needed money for our expansion and rehabilitation projects.

8. Preparation for future missionary service through our united fellowship.

9. To enlist at least 150 new life work recruits for the Christian ministry and missions.

Publishing Interests

Otterbein Press, Dayton, Ohio

THE first year of the Evangelical United Brethren Church is now history. It has been a good year for the publishing interests of our church. We have been learning to co-operate and work together. The spirit of good will between your two publishing houses is gratifying. We have helped each other. We are still working out co-operative arrangements so that we can and do present a united front in our publishing work.

It was no mean task to reorganize our Sunday-school literature. Every quarterly, story paper, and Sunday-school magazine was made over. We are proud of our "Bible Study Series" of Sunday-school helps. Our Uniform Lesson Materials and Cycle-graded Lessons are well received and we are happy for the favorable comment that comes from our Sunday schools and churches. Our Home, the new monthly magazine for the home, is being widely used. We believe it will be a definite aid in promoting Christian living in the home. There has been an increase in all of our Sunday-school literature, and we are grateful to our Sunday schools and churches for their loyalty.

The Otterbein Press distributed $40,000.00 to the conferences for ministerial aid. This was the largest apportionment we have ever made in the history of the House. We are happy that it is possible to give additional aid to retired ministers, ministers' widows and orphans in these times when costs of living are so very high. We do not close our year until December 31 but present indications lead us to believe that our total volume of sales will be at least $300,000.00 above last year.

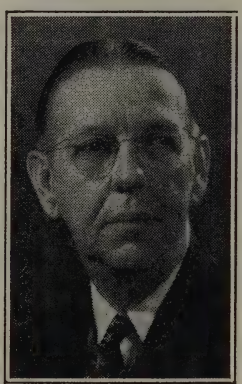

Our Religious Supplies Department has shown an excellent increase in volume, indicating that our churches and Sunday schools are buying from their publishing houses. It is always to their benefit to do this inasmuch as net proceeds flow back to the benefit of our retired ministry.

Literature and religion always have been closely united. In the minds of many, literature is the child of religion, certainly its by-product. It plays a great role in disseminating the gospel message of salvation.

It is our determined purpose to serve our great church in the most efficient manner possible that we may send out the finest and the best in Christian literature and be able to make continuous and satisfying returns to our constituency.

The Evangelical Press

THE last fiscal year of our business, which ended August 31, 1947, was the largest in volume in the history of our institution. The total volume of sales increased by $200,107.03 over the previous fiscal year. Some of this increase, of course, was due to the increase in prices.

The Bookstore Department showed an increase of $24,118.29. The church generally has supported this department of our work very well.

Evangelical Press, Harrisburg, Pa.

Following the merger at Johnstown and in accordance with the agreement contained in the "Proceedings," we started printing The Telescope-Messenger and Builders in Harrisburg on January 1, 1947. We transferred the Sunday-school periodicals to Dayton on July 1, 1947. Much was involved in the transfer from Harrisburg to Dayton and Dayton to Harrisburg, but the job was tackled in a cooperative spirit and completed without too much disturbance in either plant. We anticipated a considerable shrinkage at the time of the merger but we have been very much gratified to find it less than we anticipated. At the time of the merger, at Dayton they were printing 27,000 Telescopes and we were printing 23,000 Evangelical-Messengers, or a total of 50,000 copies. As of the end of this fiscal year we were printing 47,350 copies. They were printing, at Dayton, 59,750 copies of The Watchword and we were printing 27,000 Crusaders or a total of 86,750, and at the end of our fiscal year we were printing 82,630 Builders.

The two publishing houses have unified as rapidly as possible their procedures in an effort to better serve the entire constituency.

Board of Pensions

THE Board of Pensions is a functioning organization with four departments. Membership in the Ministerial Pension and Annuity Plan (formerly United Brethren) and the Superannuation Plan (formerly Evangelical) is closed. All who were members of these departments at the time of the union of the two Churches continue their membership in these older plans. Membership in these departments is about equal.

All ministers who have been or will be received into the itinerancy since January 1, 1947, are or will be members of the Ministers' Reserve Pension Plan. This Plan was established in 1942 and has 265 members.

The annual report of the Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Board reveals that the total assets of the various departments are now $3,501,752.30. The Ministerial Pension and Annuity Plan assets are $1,522,627.69, while the assets of the various departments of the former Evangelical Church, including the Superannuation Plan, the Ministers' Reserve Pension Plan and the Pension Plan for Lay Employees are $1,979,124.61.

The M. P. A. Plan (UB) has a pension obligation of more than $100,000.00 per year while the Superannuation Plan (Ev) pays out more than $200,000.00 each year in pension benefits. The amounts will increase each year for a number of years. Therefore the need of the Board of Pensions for additional resources is constant.

This Christian enterprise needs the support of the entire Evangelical United Brethren Church. Every congregation is expected to contribute an amount equal to three per cent of the salary which it pays the pastor. Former Evangelical churches are asked to pay four per cent. All pastors pay two per cent of their salaries. Every congregation and pastor is asked by the General Conference to observe Pioneer Day the third Sunday of each January. The work of the Board of Pensions should be outlined to the people on this special day. An offering for the support of retired ministers and ministers' widows is to be taken to apply on the three per cent apportionment. If the offering does not reach the goal, the balance due should be paid out of the local church treasury. In any event the total received should be forwarded to the office of the Board of Pensions, 1800 U. B. Building, Dayton 2, Ohio.

Many members of the Church sent special gifts to the Board. These gifts are credited to the department in which the donor is especially interested. Our people should remember this cause in their wills. Many make gifts on the annuity plan and thus derive an income during their lifetime. Information on the making of gifts on the annuity plan can be secured by writing to the Executive Secretary-Treasurer.

This work receives some aid each year in the form of substantial gifts from the Publishing Houses. These gifts are greatly appreciated.

As we look at the future we are faced with many problems. The larger part of our task remains undone. A good beginning has been made but we must carry on with a determination to make more adequate provision for our ministry. The responsibility for the adequate support of the retired minister and minister's widow rests squarely upon every minister and layman of the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Literature on this important agency will be sent to any who request the same. Watch also the annual Pioneer Day issues of our denominational weekly publications for up-to-date information.

Missions

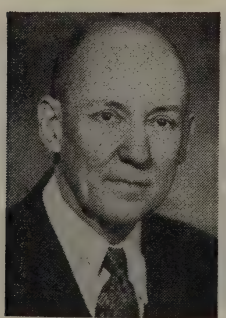

DEPARTMENT OF WORLD MISSIONS

THE past year has been an eventful one in the program of the Department of World Missions. It represents the first period of combined missionary operations of our united church, with the necessity and privilege of bringing together the purposes and plans of two former Boards of Missions in such a way as to conserve the spiritual resources of these separate agencies and to capitalize on their achievements. Church union greatly enlarged the scope of our missionary activities, as the following list of Missions indicates:

Italian Mission (Wisconsin)
Red Bird Mission (Kentucky)
European Missions
Sudan Mission (Nigeria)
West Africa Mission (Sierra Leone)
South China Mission
Central China Mission
Philippine Mission
Japan Mission
Puerto Rico Mission
Santo Domingo Mission
United Andean Indian Mission (Ecuador)

There has been also the imperative need for adjustment to the marked social changes everywhere in these post-war years. Such words as relief, reconstruction, and rehabilitation, have been commonplace in the language of missionary planning for our distressed world during these past months. The desperate situation which these words symbolize represents both a major problem and a unique opportunity for the Christian Missionary Enterprise of our day. To feed, to clothe, to gather again the dispersed peoples, and to unite them in a great forward movement for the sake of the Kingdom, this has been one of our primary tasks. There has been encouraging progress in each of our mission fields. Much credit is due to our large family of devoted missionaries who have given themselves unstintingly to this ministry of healing and reconciliation as ambassadors of Christ. They are the practical expression of the evangelistic passion of our church, and number 160 persons at present.

The program of this department during the coming year will be concerned directly with the important task of rebuilding some of our destroyed churches and parsonages, and in the rehabilitation of our congregations in war devastated countries in Asia and on the European continent. There is also the equally important and more difficult task of rebuilding the spirit of fellowship which the hatreds and bitterness of war disturbed but could not destroy. This involves the delicate ministry of reconciliation and calls for a spiritual sensitivity quite beyond our human resources. It also demands extreme care and discernment in order that our plans may help rather than hinder the redemptive processes of God.

W. O. Clark,
Treasurer

In those areas which have not experienced the physical destruction of war, there are nevertheless important changes which must be recognized as we build for tomorrow. In Africa, Puerto Rico, Santo Domingo, Ecuador, and in our Italian and Red Bird Missions at home, we face new conditions and new opportunities for the Gospel. In these areas of service our plans are being made for advance to such an extent as the resources and prayers of our church permit, and in such a way as the Spirit of God may lead in the days ahead.

Such a program of advance will require an increased number of qualified missionaries. In this day of liberated and awakened nations, the representatives of Jesus Christ must be deeply devoted to the fellowship of the Master, exceptionally well trained for their specific work, and confident beyond all doubt that they are engaged in the greatest business of all time. Rising tides of race, color, and nations proclaim a new day for Missions and in every area where we have a responsibility these influences are evident. Our response to the call for missionary personnel under the challenge of the New Day must be undertaken prayerfully.

We plan to keep our needs projected five years ahead so as to have available an adequate supply of trained candidates. We propose to accomplish this goal by maintaining a program of constant recruiting, selecting and training. A brief outline of such a plan is as follows:

Recruiting shall be accomplished by:

1. Prospective candidates whose names are suggested by ministers and friends.
2. Prospective candidates who take the initiative themselves in establishing a relationship with the Board of Missions.
3. Prospective candidates who are now attending our Church Colleges and Seminaries.

We now have an active file of 153 young people with whom we have had correspondence this year.

For those who are able to read between the lines of this brief statement of missionary happenings across our world, it is quite clear that the Christian Mission in our present day is confronted with many hindrances and uncertainties which make the task of Missionary administration a very difficult one. The continuing burden of war, the suffering, the poverty, the fear, the despair, the political turmoil, the economic uncertainty, these and many other man-made evils put a drag upon the Christian advance. They must be met with a confident, constructive program of Christian action quickened by the living spirit of the Living God, a program so sensitive to the changing life of our generation that we will be able to anticipate its needs. This seems to be the essence of Missionary statesmanship, not to be pushed along by circumstances, but to anticipate and lead. Recognizing our inadequacy and His abundant wisdom, we hope and pray with confidence for divine help for ourselves and all of our missionaries in this stupendous and challenging task of turning the hearts of men to the Saviour of the world.

DEPARTMENT OF CHURCH EXTENSION

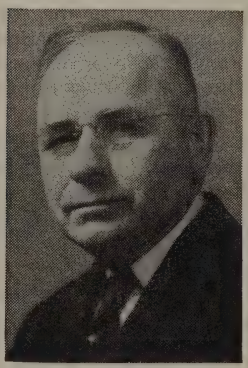

EARLY in 1947, all missionary relationships in which the Board of Missions shares with the annual conferences in projects within the annual conference borders were centered in the Department of Church Extension. This included assistance in the payment of salaries, securing of leadership, opening of new missions, co-operation in the planning of new buildings and remodeling of old ones, making of grants and extension of loans on building projects. The loan funds alone amount to nearly one million dollars.

At the same time, the Department administered the Spanish-American Mission in New Mexico with a large building program under way, together with the Latin Mission in Tampa, Florida, and the Kentucky Mission (UB).

The Kingdom Advance Program was promoted jointly with the Department of World Missions, seeking to raise two million dollars within a two-year period for Relief, Reconstruction, and Advance.

The Commission on Rural Life was organized and a director chosen, in the person of Rev. B. H. Cain, who assumed his new duties September 1. The addition of this department recognizes the distinctive contribution which is made by the rural church to the total denominational life.

Looking ahead, the normal work of the department will be promoted with the following special emphases: (1) Promotion of conference missionary projects in this strategic time wherever opportunity exists and we are able to finance and man them. (2) A program of careful counseling of churches planning to build, to secure sound financing and good architectural plans. (3) Development of a program of assistance to town and country churches under the Commission on Rural Life.

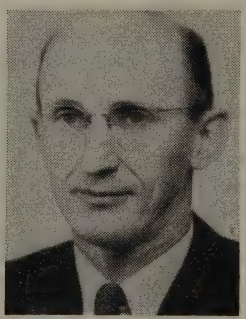

B. H. Cain, D.D.,
Director of Rural Life

The vitality and power of our church in its world-wide influence and program is directly related to our alertness to missionary opportunities and responsibilities here at home. Only as we build strong congregations here in America and meet the challenge of the new and practically unchurched areas, for which we are directly responsible, will we have either the permanent resources or motive for carrying the Good News abroad. We must "strengthen the stakes" if we would "lengthen the cords." To this purpose the Department of Church Extension is dedicated.

TO THE question so frequently on everyone's lips that it has become almost bromidic, "How's Merger?" the women are answering "Splendid." Not that it has been a bed of roses; rather that it has been an unbroken trail through the wilderness where even the spots which have been cleared provide only a corduroy road of the roughest kind. The point is that the women have taken it as a great adventure and even the hardships have challenged to enthusiastic straining of every muscle — muscles both mental and spiritual!

Marion Baker, Associate Secretary and Secretary of Young People's Work

At Headquarters the twelve Council members, the five Staff members, and the loyal office force have definitely learned to work and think and accomplish together in a Christian fellowship which brings inner joy and concrete progress. On the Conference level many of the Branches are seeing little of each other except in the comradely interchange of visits among the Executive Committee members; some have had their Branch Conventions together, meeting separately for business sessions; more are having joint Institutes where new methods (and not legal business) are the significant purpose. Since nothing can be done about uniting Branches until General Conference has acted upon Conference boundaries the one state which had hoped to unite Branches has had to postpone action. On the local level, again, nothing can be done unless churches merge. In the relatively few places where this has happened the results have been, in the main, highly satisfactory. Human personalities here enter the picture in concrete form and "old loves" are reluctantly sacrificed. However, with but one known exception, even this transition has been hurdled and the old loyalties have yielded cheerfully to the new.

Actual facts are hard to discover since the method of reporting is one of the significant changes and there is, at the moment, no basis of comparison. Using figures for the former Evangelical group which closed its year in December of 1946 and for the former United Brethren group whose year closed in April, 1947, the 93,983 women with the help of the 15,155 Otterbein Guild girls gave approximately $683,800; the 20,060 members of Mission Bands gave $58,534, and the Little Heralds, numbering 16,592, gave $16,836; while the offering from the former United Brethren children in their Glad Chest amounted to $18,330.

Of course there are problems, but with nearly a hundred thousand women making as their covenant, "I will think and live, pray and give, in terms of a world-wide Christian fellowship, unbroken, vital, founded in Jesus Christ Himself, who through the Holy Spirit dwells in His church," and with utmost faith in the promises of that same Jesus Christ the future is assured.

Christian Education

DURING the first year of our united work in our new Church the Board of Christian Education has been busy with matters of co-ordination and readjustment even while preparing to promulgate a new united program of advance. Shortly after January 1, 1947, according to the directives of the General Conference, our offices were united at Dayton, Ohio, in close co-operation with the Commission on Evangelism. Since the purpose and program of Christian Education in both the Evangelical and the United Brethren churches had been in harmony it was no serious problem to continue the work on the united basis. There were some minor differences in administrative practice that needed harmonization, some of which had to await the official action of the General Board of Christian Education. But most of them were matters such as legal incorporation of the Board, the merger of the Sunday School and Tract Union with the Board of Christian Education; the organization of Conference Boards of Christian Education; and becoming acquainted with one another on the staff so that we could work as a united team. These things have all been accomplished and it is our belief that we are now ready to give leadership to a great program of advance through Christian Education in co-operation with other phases of the church's work so that we shall go "Forward Together with Christ."

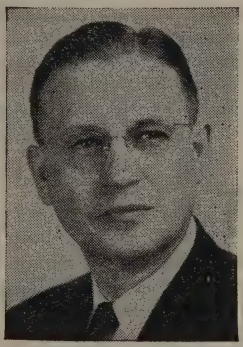

There have been some practical demonstrations of that fact during these months. A great amount of field work has been invested in Conference and local church institutes, rallies and summer camps and assemblies. Much basic organizational work was done and promotional materials were prepared and published, particularly in the realm of program guides for children's work, youth work and men's work. A quadrennial educational evangelism program, called "Strengthen the Sunday School," was developed and launched. This found enthusiastic acceptance in the Linwood Park Conference on Evangelism in which our staff participated, and in the denominational sessions of the International Sunday School Convention at Des Moines, Iowa, July 23-27. We had 369 full-time delegates registered for this Convention plus scores of additional one-day attendants and our denominational conferences held every afternoon proved to be outstanding inspirational and promotional events for our work. In addition to all these, we prepared for and conducted the first meeting of our Board of 98 members. This met in Dayton, Ohio, on October 27-28, and officially approved the elements of our policy and program for this quadrennium.

LOOKING AHEAD

AFTER this first year of co-ordination and readjustment the Christian Education offices are ready to lead out in an aggressive program of improvement and advance. Our Sunday schools should enroll at least 75,000 new scholars per year so that at the end of this quadrennium we will have at least 1,000,000 persons on our school rolls in comparison to 650,000 at present. Our Youth Fellowship should include a total of 75,000 young people in this splendid program of Christian Youth activities which would be an increase from 60,000 this last year. The Brotherhood should enlist not less than 100,000 "Men on the March" for Christ and his Church. In leadership education we ought to give training to at least 15,000 persons instead of the 11,000 who received such training last year. All along the line there should be advance. In particular, the Christian education program of the church should aid and strengthen every other phase of the church's work and should especially undergird the work of evangelism. To this aim it is all dedicated.

Christian Education Week is promoted for annual observance during the week from the last Sunday in September to the first Sunday in October. This is an opportunity to confront the whole church with the total program of Christian Education and to dwell upon its evangelistic purposes. It will be so promoted in our church.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION

THE Director of this department is Dr. O. T. Deever, Associate General Secretary of Christian Education. Within the scope of this department are such important activities as stimulating interest and participation in our colleges and seminaries, giving guidance to our students on these campuses and at schools other than our own, in Christian activities in order to conserve their loyalty and dedicated service for the Church; administering and developing Ministerial Student Aid Funds; studying and giving leadership in matters of ministerial standards and supply; and promoting and giving direction to the church-wide observance of College Day, Seminary Day and Student Recognition Day. In matters affecting student activities in the youth field this department co-operates closely with the department of young people's work.

DEPARTMENT OF CHURCH SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION

THE Director of this department is Dr. Ralph M. Holdeman, who is also Assistant Secretary of Evangelism. The work of this department encompasses Sunday-school administration, including guidance for superintendents, secretaries and other officers as well as direction in proper record-keeping; educational evangelism and its relationship to the program of evangelism of the denomination through the Commission on Evangelism; audio-visual aids to Christian education and the total educational program of the church; and the creation and administration of standards of measurement for the church school. During this quadrennium the "Strengthen the Sunday School" program of educational evangelism will be the major administrative responsibility of this department but this program will require the faithful co-operation of every other department of the Board of Christian Education.

DEPARTMENT OF ADULT AND BROTHERHOOD WORK

THE Director of this department is Dr. W. R. Montgomery. He gives leadership to our great united Brotherhood organization in co-operation with an executive committee of Christian laymen. In addition, he is responsible for the work of our Adult Christian Endeavor Leagues, of our Young Adult Fellowships, of our Adult Bible Classes and other educational activities for all of the adults of our churches. This wide range of responsibility entails a great deal of lesson and topic preparation for our periodicals, program planning and the preparation and publication of program guides and promotional materials each year. This past fall alone, it was the responsibility of this director to promote the lifting of the church-wide offering for world relief on World-Wide Communion Sunday; to give guidance in the observance of Men's Day on the third Sunday in October; and to direct the preparation for and the program of the denominational Men's Congress which was held in the Euclid Avenue Church in Dayton, Ohio, October 25-26, 1947. Over 1,000 men were in attendance from all parts of the church and everyone present realized that our Evangelical United Brethren men are indeed "On the March" for Christ and the Church.

DEPARTMENT OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK

THE Director of this department is the Rev. J. Allan Ranck. His major responsibility is to give direction to the Youth Fellowship organization and program of activities for our denomination. In this he has the assistance of a fine group of youth officers chosen by the Youth Fellowship and the co-operation of the Youth Department of the Women's Society of World Service. He is also administratively involved in Student Christian Work on college campuses, in life service recruiting throughout the Church, and in the program for summer camps and assemblies. He represents our work in the United Christian Youth Movement; in the Missionary Education Movement; in the University Commission of the National Protestant Council on Higher Education; and in the International Society of Christian Endeavor.

This first year has witnessed the launching of the Youth Fellowship in a very successful way. This has involved a great deal of careful preparation of promotional materials which have appeared in pamphlet form and in the pages of the Christian education periodicals. Approximately 60,000 young people are already enrolled in the Youth Fellowship. The World Service Fund program of missionary projects has also made a good beginning this past year. The goal for next year is $125,000.

DEPARTMENT OF CHILDREN'S WORK

THE Director of this department is Miss Rachel M. Brant. In addition to promotional responsibility for the Children's Division in the Sunday church schools of the denomination, Miss Brant is responsible for promoting vacation church schools, and week-day church schools and classes; giving guidance in junior camping; and for a great deal of promotional writing for our church periodicals. This first year she organized and chairmaned a very successful denominational Children's Workers' Conference which was held at Des Moines, Iowa, in connection with the International Sunday School Convention. A splendid Guide for Children's Work has been produced and published. Guidance is also being given for Junior Christian Endeavor Leagues. Together with the Department of Adult Work this department is responsible for the promotion of Christian Family Week throughout our Church. Beginning with 1948 it will also be responsible for the promotion of Children's Day.

DEPARTMENT OF LEADERSHIP EDUCATION

THE Director of this department is Dr. Reuben H. Mueller. It was deemed best to place the administration of this all-inclusive phase of the program of Christian education under the office of the General Executive Secretary with the thought that all members of the staff would be responsible for promoting leadership education in their various departments of work. By action of the General Board the promotion and administration of this work is to channel from this office through the Annual Conference Boards of Christian Education to Local Church Boards. A special denominational orientation course is to be developed as a basis for Christian service preparation and will be launched and promoted this year. About 12,500 standard leadership education credits were awarded last year and it is hoped that at least 15,000 will be earned in the current year.

The administration of this department is also closely related to summer assembly and camp work for standard leadership education classes are conducted in connection with about seventy-five of these gatherings in our denomination.

THE BROTHERHOOD

By Torrey A. Kaatz, President

TO GET the men of the Church behind the total program of the Church is the purpose of the Brotherhood of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. In the local church a Brotherhood organization should not be considered a side show or something that you can get along without or something extra, but it is a part of the main feature. The Brotherhood comprises the men on the job undergirding the total church endeavor.

For the first two years of this quadrennium the men have accepted the raising of relief funds as a special endeavor. The total goal for the two years is $250,000.00. In 1947 in excess of $125,000.00 was raised, and to exceed the total of $250,000.00 will be a fine accomplishment and will be of great assistance to those in need in other lands.

The Brotherhood has set up the theme of "Men on the March" to undergird the general Church theme of "Forward Together with Christ." As one of over 300,000 men in the Evangelical United Brethren Church, are you in step with Christ?

THE YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

By J. Allan Ranck

THE young people of the Evangelical United Brethren Church are united in an organization and a program which is known as the Youth Fellowship. With its motto, "For Christ and the Church," and its text taken from 1 Timothy 4: 12, the Youth Fellowship calls the Evangelical United Brethren youth to an understanding of and participation in the total church program.

The various elements of this total program and of a full Christian experience are provided in the work of its four commissions – the Commission on Worship and Devotional Life, the Commission on Evangelism and Stewardship, the Commission on Missions and Social Action, and the Commission on Recreation and Leisure.

Youth Fellowship provides the young people of the church between the ages of 12 and 24 years an opportunity to help plan and administer their own church program, under the competent and consecrated counsel of their adult leaders. It is administered by its own Executive Council under the jurisdiction of the Board of Christian Education, and is responsible for its program to the counsel of all church boards and agencies, through an Interboard Educational Program Committee.

THE GENERAL COMMISSION ON EVANGELISM

THE Evangelical United Brethren Church came into being on November 16, 1946, as a result of the uniting of the two former denominations. It started its very auspicious beginnings not only with a well outlined policy and program of evangelism, but with a fully organized autonomous Commission on Evangelism with full-time leadership to implement it. Disciplinary provision was made for Conference Commissions on Evangelism in every annual conference and for Committees on Evangelism in every local church. In the few months since this program was launched, the entire new denomination has been thus organized and is functioning quite satisfactorily.

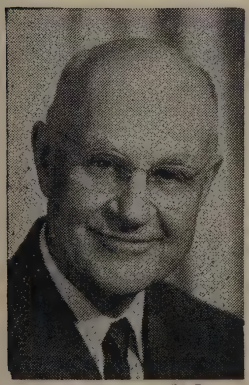

In March, 1947, the General Commission set a goal of 75,000 new members a year for the quadrennium for the denomination, which is a ten win one proportion based on the church membership. The Commission further created far-reaching plans to realize this and other supporting goals.

On July 15, 1947, there assembled at Linwood Park, Vermilion, Ohio, two hundred fifty leaders of the Church, representing every annual conference of the denomination but one, and included all nine active bishops, nearly all conference superintendents, conference directors of Christian education, and conference secretaries of evangelism. All colleges and seminaries but one were represented. Twenty-five of the thirty-five or forty full-time evangelists of the Church were present.

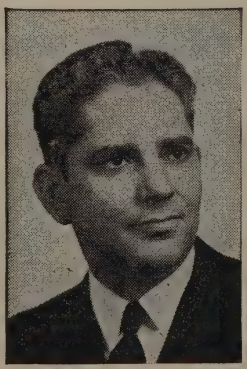

Out of this significant and spirit-filled gathering came not only a new evangelistic zeal and a new unity of evangelistic purpose but the printed Findings outlined in more detail than before a definite procedure to carry out the program which had emerged. Since then annual conferences are holding similar three-day Planning and Training Conferences. Later areal evangelistic meetings will be held in each bishop's area.

By these and other means the entire denomination is being tied into a network of meetings and activities which have already given evidence of imparting new life and enthusiasm to the cause of evangelism. It seems destined to carry us beyond our goal.

The evangelistic crusade of the Church is dependent upon what happens in the local church. The standards of achievement in evangelism given below not only measures the success of each local church, but it is the minimum activity for each church if we are to reach our desired goal. If this standard comes to life and is carried out in every church, we are sure to win in "the race that is set before us." In a spirit of prayer and full surrender to Christ, let us give ourselves to the task with unflagging zeal.

The Commission on Christian Social Action

H. W. Kaebnick,
Secretary

DURING this first year of our enlarged fellowship, the Commission on Christian Social Action has devoted itself earnestly to the task of aiding the new church to make the Christian gospel more effective in social, economic, racial, national, and world relationships. It has kept in constant touch with our chaplains and endeavored to assist them in their important and difficult ministry. The Commission has procured and validated three representatives to the Yale School of Alcohol Studies, and one representative to the Institute on Health and Human Relations at the University of Pennsylvania.

Each annual conference has been apprized of certain emphases, and the work and program of the Commission have been correlated with the Committee on Christian Social Action of each annual conference. Brochures on vital World Order problems have been distributed to our general officers and editors. It has established methods of research and education in the area of social action. Certain materials on social problems have been prepared and will be ready soon for distribution.

To explore the field of social relationships and provide guidance through accurate and authoritative information for our constituency, and to promote and direct the activities of our enlarged church in Christian social action, five major committees are working at certain definite tasks. These committees are: On World Order, on the Family Life, on the Community Life, on Economic Welfare, on Moral and Social Conduct. These committees will soon submit their findings which will be made available for the entire church.

THE CHARITABLE SOCIETY

THE Trustees of the Charitable Society of the former United Evangelical Church meet in regular Annual Session on the first Wednesday of October in Reading, Pa. The sum of $37,500.00 has been contributed to the Pension Fund since the merger of the Evangelical Association and the United Evangelical Church in 1922.

TEMPERANCE

The use of Alcoholic beverages creates increasingly serious problems as a social custom and a psychological and health hazard involving questions of legal and social control of the liquor traffic. A guide for leaders in the local church who desire to plan and promote a program of alcohol education and action entitled "The Church and the Alcohol Problem" will be issued in 1948. All churches should provide a suitable opportunity to lay this matter before the church through a sermon, in church-school assemblies or classes, or in other discussion groups.

FELLOWSHIP OF PRAYER

Many have found the observance of Lent more valuable through using the "Fellowship of Prayer" booklet for personal daily devotions. This may be obtained through the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ, 297 Fourth Ave., New York 10, N. Y.

ALBRIGHT COLLEGE

Reading, Pennsylvania

Harry V. Masters, Ph.D., President

FOUNDED in 1856, Albright College, Reading, Pa., is now in its 92nd academic year as an agency of the church preparing youth for fields of service. A fully accredited co-educational liberal arts college, Albright seeks to make possible the highest intellectual development in an atmosphere of Christian ideals so that the student will be encouraged to formulate and practice a Christian philosophy of life.

The College occupies a campus of thirty-three acres with buildings and equipment valued at $1,520,944.81. The total gross assets as of June 30, 1947, were $2,637,957.29. A competent staff of 57 Christian faculty and administrative officers provides a program of more than 200 specific courses in 23 departments of instruction. The fields of study include: teaching, home economics (general, vocational and institutional), industrial chemistry, physics, laboratory technology, pre-nursing, pre-medicine, pre-dental, pre-veterinary, pre-law, pre-ministerial, social service, business administration and psychology.

By operating an afternoon-evening session with classes from 4: 30 to 9: 00 to accommodate 50 additional freshmen, Albright has been able to provide for a 1947-48 enrollment of 742 full-time and 12 part-time students plus 55 nurses in training in the Reading Hospital. Lack of sufficient instructional and housing facilities made it necessary to deny admission to hundreds of worthy applicants.

Continually endeavoring to present to the student the claims of the Christian message, Albright gives priority to all religious activities and events in planning the extra-curricular program. Under the sponsorship of the College Christian Associations and the guidance of the Director of Religious Activities, students participate in daily worship services, the Sunday morning Bible Class and evening vespers, service programs for the needy at home and abroad, etc. Tuesday night of each week is given over entirely to the Y. M.–Y. W. C. A.'s.

Albright's current campus development program calls for an addition to the library, a chapel-auditorium, a physical educational building, a men's dormitory unit, and campus improvements which are now under way. With a major part of the money on hand, these much-needed new buildings will be erected as conditions warrant. The building allocated to Albright by the Federal Works Authority from surplus government property was opened December, 1947.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Annville, Pennsylvania

Clyde A. Lynch, Ph.D.,
President

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE, located in Annville, Pa., looks forward with keen anticipation and eager enthusiasm to the increased opportunities of service to God and man that each year brings.

Last year the College served seven hundred full-time students. This year eight hundred and twenty men and women have been received into the College sphere of Christian fellowship and influence. Fifty-five per cent of this number served as members of the armed forces.

Each man and each woman who becomes a part of our student body is placed under the direct Christian influence of our faculty and administrative officers as well as under the religious program conducted on our campus. This enlarged enrollment, we believe, is a great opportunity for service as well as a challenge to all of us who believe in the cause of Christian higher education. Never before have we had the opportunity to teach the Christian difference to so many.

To take care of these many students, the able president, Dr. Clyde A. Lynch, carefully selected twenty-one new faculty and administrative members to help carry out the enlarged program. At a time when faculty help is becoming increasingly hard to get and to hold, Lebanon Valley believes that she has been more fortunate in keeping her old and faithful professors as well as gaining an able group of new ones.

Many improvements and additions had to be made on the campus in order to keep abreast of the times. Among some of the outstanding improvements are:

1. A two-story building given to the College by the government. This building provides for ten offices, nine classrooms including two Chemistry Laboratories and a Biology Laboratory, and a large day-student recreation room. A basement has been excavated underneath the building, providing large storage space.

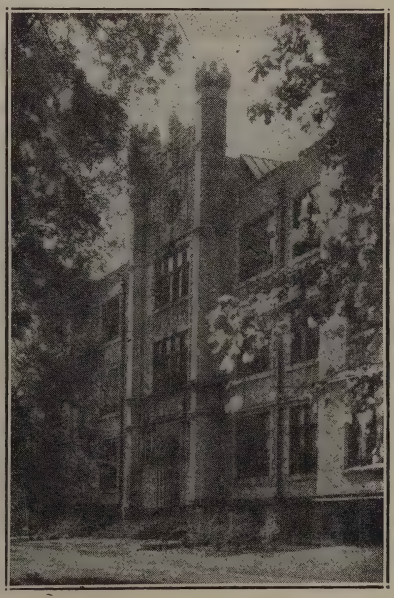

2. The basement of Engle Hall, which houses the Conservatory of Music, has been renovated to provide for six additional practice rooms plus a large day-student room.

3. Preparation has been made for the grading and resurfacing of the new athletic and games field of sixteen acres. This ground was just recently purchased.

As the Church has faithfully served the College down through the years, so the College has loyally trained the ministry and the lay leaders of the Church in order that better leadership could be had for Christ and the bringing in of his Kingdom.

We proudly look at the past history of our College but we turn our eyes eagerly to the future and to the opportunity for greater service to God and his new Evangelical United Brethren Church.

The future looks bright for the ministry of this college in a densely populated section of our new denomination. Faculty and students are co-operating to effect such.

SHENANDOAH COLLEGE

Dayton, Virginia

L. P. Hill, President

SHENANDOAH COLLEGE and Shenandoah Conservatory of Music was founded at Dayton, Virginia, as Shenandoah Seminary in 1875 by the Rev. A. P. Funkhouser. The school was re-chartered by the Virginia Conference of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ in 1887 under the name of Shenandoah Institute, and the Circuit Court of Virginia re-incorporated the school in 1907 under the name of Shenandoah Collegiate Institute and School of Music. From this series of developments there emerged in 1939 two distinct and separately incorporated institutions when Shenandoah Conservatory of Music was approved by the Virginia State Board of Education to grant the Bachelor of Music and the Bachelor of Music Education degrees. The college department had been previously recognized by the State Board of Education as a junior college in 1923.

The girls' dormitory, purchased in 1877, was the first building on the present campus. In 1885 an annex was attached to this building. In the same year the campus was purchased and maple trees planted on it. To the old buildings the following structures have been added:

(1) Howe Memorial Building (1899).
(2) Four-story Administration Building (1909).
(3) Kieffer Memorial Gymnasium (1930-31).
(4) Three residences adjoining the campus added since 1944.
(5) Two temporary barrack type buildings to house boys erected under Federal Public Housing Authority (1947).
(6) One classroom building (1947).
(7) One student center and infirmary building (1947).

Kieffer Memorial Gymnasium

Shenandoah College and Shenandoah Conservatory has an enrollment of over 300 students with 31 members on its faculty. Four countries, twenty-two states, and twenty-three churches are represented among our student body. Sixty-one Evangelical United Brethren students are enrolled at Shenandoah. The indebtedness on the institution has been liquidated and a substantial amount has been raised for a permanent endowment.

Shenandoah is fully aware of the fact that the very heart of the Christian philosophy of life is to be found in human personalities and is endeavoring to build Christian personalities.

INDIANA CENTRAL COLLEGE

Indianapolis, Indiana

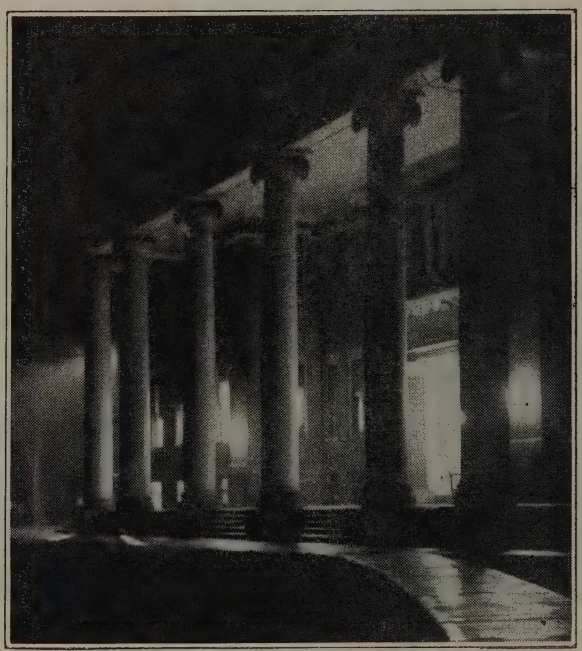

I. Lynd Esch, Ph.D.,
President

MANY improvements in the program and facilities of Indiana Central College have been made in recent years. These improvements have provided better accommodations for students and have aided the full accreditation of the college. The consistent work of the administration, trustees, and faculty brought fruitage in 1947 when on March 26 the college was admitted to membership in and fully accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Indiana Central is now able to offer to Evangelical United Brethren young people college credits and degrees which are accepted in every college and university in the land, and to offer these in an atmosphere which is positively and dynamically Christian.

With this goal attained the college continues to move forward. The fall semester in 1947 opened with 475 students, which is a gain of 15% over the previous year. Nineteen new members have been added to the faculty and staff of the school. Major improvements to the facilities include a new home economics laboratory, which has been fully equipped through a gift by Dr. C. H. and Dr. Mary Ade of Lafayette; additional equipment for the biology laboratory; and a number of offices for members of the faculty.

In the year ahead special emphasis will be placed upon the continued improvement of the academic offerings and upon securing increasing support for the institution. The Living Endowment Foundation is proving to be a fine asset in the financial program but rising costs make it necessary for us to use every means to increase our current operating revenues. A contribution to Indiana Central College is an investment in the growth and development of enlightened Christian character. The college, which began with no resources but the faith and zeal of its founders, has grown steadily through the years. The college offers a full four-year liberal arts curriculum with particular emphasis upon pre-ministerial, pre-professional and teacher training courses. The faculty consists of well-trained, capable and consecrated persons. Young in years, strong in faith and ideals, Indiana Central College faces its great future opportunities with courage and resolution.

Administration Hall at Night

NORTH CENTRAL COLLEGE

Naperville, Illinois

C. Harve Geiger, Ph.D.,
President

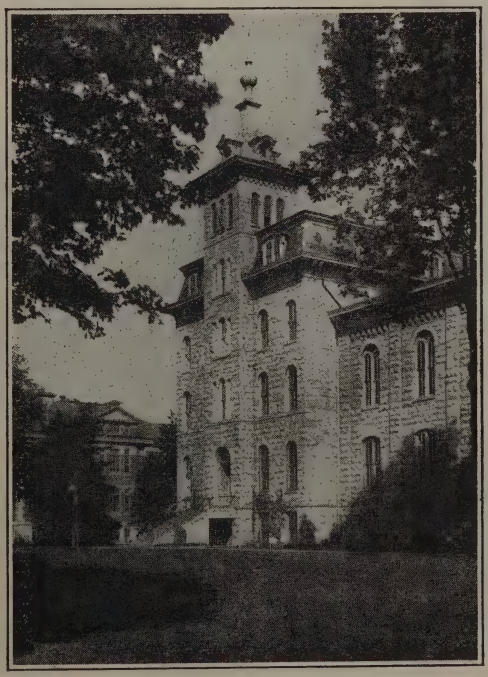

THE academic year 1946-1947 at North Central College was a most successful year. The total attendance of different students was 998, with an average full-time net enrollment of 846. Thirty states and Canada, Costa Rica, and the Hawaiian Islands were represented in the student body. To provide for this sharp increase in enrollment, nine new members were added to the instructional staff. Our greatest problems were housing, library, and laboratory space. Teaching loads were heavy, but classroom facilities were quite ample.

The percentage of Evangelical United Brethren students showed an increase among our new students. For the student body as a whole, fifty-two per cent were members of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. The largest vocational interest group in the student body was teaching, the second was made up of young people who are interested in some type of Christian or social service and were divided as follows: Ministers, 92; full-time Christian and social service, 41; missionaries, 7; and medical missionaries, 5. We are greatly pleased with this manifestation for future service to the church.

The year 1946-1947 was also a good year financially. The college received a total of $153,565 in contributions, of which $85,293 was received from the College Seminary Project. Of the balance, $50,000 was a bequest from the estate of the late Annie Merner Pfeiffer. The remainder came from many individuals, churches, and other organizations. The year was marked also by the beginning of construction of the new Peter Kroehler Memorial Dormitory for Women. This dormitory, housing 110 women and having dining facilities for 288, will be ready for use in 1948.

The religious interest of the campus received special emphasis during the year. The organization of the Religious Life Council made it possible to co-ordinate and provide overall supervision and direction of the major religious activities and groups into a united front. The Council instituted a more carefully organized program for our chapel services, and gave careful supervision to all religious organizations. A period of religious emphasis was conducted during each of the two semesters of the year. In November, Rev. Merrill Davis was our spiritual leader, and in March we were privileged to have the services of Dr. Raymond M. Veh.

The academic year 1947-1948 opened on September 15 with an enrollment of 903. Ten new members have been added to the staff.

New Science Hall

YORK COLLEGE

York, Nebraska

W. E. Bachman,
President

YORK COLLEGE is a college of liberal arts and sciences of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, with courses and influences which are cultural, educational, and vitally Christian. The College serves the Southwest and Pacific areas of the United States including York and its vicinity. This year there are eighteen states and one foreign country represented in the student body. Two-thirds of the students are from Evangelical United Brethren homes and churches. It is worthy of note that the students as a whole are serious in matters of scholarship and deeply interested in religion.

In fulfilling the unique functions of a Christian college the usual core departments of a liberal arts curriculum are maintained. Stress is placed upon keeping religion at the heart of the curriculum, and the campus is regarded as a laboratory in human relations and Christian living. There are opportunities for pre-professional training in various fields, including a pre-seminary course for prospective ministers.

The faculty and administrative offices of York College believe that service to the church must be included among the major objectives of a Christian college program. In harmony with this purpose, there is the "service minor in religion" for the training of Christian lay workers. Accordingly, students who choose a major in one of the usual fields of a college curriculum in line with their desires of a life career, may select as one of their two minors, the "service minor in religion." "Service major in religion" is for those who desire Christian leadership as a life career.

York College is an organic part of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. It is truly a church-related college. The support of the College by the co-operating churches and conferences, and by the local and general church officers makes it possible for the College to promote its work of the development of intelligent Christian character. It also makes it possible for the College to serve the church and the nations of the world through the lives and activities of its graduates.

THE EVANGELICAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Naperville, Illinois

Harold R. Heininger, Ph.D., President

THE Evangelical Theological Seminary, founded in 1873, celebrates in 1948 the 75th anniversary of the granting of its charter by the State of Illinois on March 15. Since the founding of this theological school, 947 graduates have gone from this center to serve Christ and the Church as pastors, missionaries and Christian workers.

A three-year course for college graduates leads to the Bachelor of Divinity Degree; a diploma for licensed ministers (with at least two years of college) is occasionally awarded after three years of study. Courses are available for Christian workers.

The chief purpose of this Faculty-Student-Community is to furnish a fellowship of earnest, scholarly minds and devoted spirits in the midst of which the candidate for the ministry will find stimulus to the wholesome cultivation of a growing God-consciousness and the realization of the divine significance of the Christian ministry. Through disciplined private and public worship the Seminary aims to aid in the nurture of the life of the Spirit.

The class of 1947 numbered 32 – 31 young ministers and one Christian worker. The enrollment for 1947-48 includes 70 students representing 19 conferences of the Evangelical United Brethren Church in the United States and the Dominion of Canada. Eighteen veterans benefit under the G. I. Bill of Rights. The students are graduates of 27 colleges and universities. Seven ordained elders of the church, well qualified through experience and graduate study in their respective fields of specialization, compose the faculty.

Fifty of the students enrolled are married. To provide housing, dormitory apartments have been made available through the purchase and remodeling of six houses near the campus.

Children's and Old People's Homes

Flat Rock, Ohio

Rev. J. H. Arndt,
Superintendent

THE Flat Rock Children's Home is located in the north-central part of Ohio, about twenty miles south of Lake Erie. The supporting conferences include all in the Central (EV), Northwestern and Southwestern areas. The main source of support is the Christmas offering from churches in these areas.

The capacity for the best interests for the children is 80, which is usually filled. The children are housed in four groups with separate buildings for each group. Each child has an individual bed and other house furnishings for his own private use.

The great majority of the children in the Home are here upon the recommendation of churches in the supporting areas, and come from many sections, as far west as the state of Oregon. The best efforts of all the staff members are united to serve the child in Christian character building. The purpose is to make this institution a Christian Home. During the 80 years of its history the Home has cared for nearly 2,000 children.

The physical equipment of the Home consists of a 420-acre farm with a complete set of farm buildings, a large administration building, a seven-room school building with gymnasium, three cottages, a laundry and a central heating plant. Twenty workers, besides Superintendent and Matron are needed to supervise the children and work the farm. The value of real estate, buildings and equipment is $374,195.00, with total assets amounting to $744,249.63.

PHILADELPHIA EVANGELICAL HOME FOR THE AGED

Philadelphia 15, Pennsylvania

Rev. I. James Bobst,
Superintendent

THIS institution of the Evangelical United Brethren Church occupies an imposing building on Roosevelt Boulevard in the beautiful Rawnhurst section of Philadelphia. The Home building was completed in 1930 at a cost of one-quarter million dollars. The building is constructed of stone, it is fireproof, and is heated by oil. The guests have the service of an elevator. The grounds are beautifully landscaped and the whole property is worthy of the great church that owns it.

The total assets of the institution are now more than six hundred thousand dollars. The yearly cost of operation is about forty-five thousand dollars at the present time. We are grateful for every assistance that the church has been able to give in carrying this much needed work of the Kingdom. The need is great, we depend on the consecration and prayers of the church.

The chapel lends an atmosphere for worship and is part of the Home building. Worship services are held each Sunday and at intervals during the week. The chapel is always open and many of the guests frequently go there for meditation and prayer.

The number of guests is usually around 100. A careful selection of new guests on the plan basis of life expectancy is now in operation. The Home ministers effectively as the eleemosynary institution of the church in the far eastern sector.

We humbly recognize God's blessing and directing hand all through the years in this venture of compassion and mercy. We would recall those human instrumentalities through whom he worked and those individuals who committed to his leadership their abilities and judgment, their vision and devotion. In addition to the former superintendents and their wives as matrons, all of whom consecrated their time and energy with utter abandon to the welfare of the Home, there have been many lay people who consecrated time and leadership in developing this institution.

QUINCY ORPHANAGE AND HOME

Quincy, Pennsylvania

Rev. A. C. Wertsch,
Superintendent

IN 1947 the Quincy Orphanage and home, located in Franklin County, Pennsylvania, had a very successful year in every way. The financial support was the best that we have ever received through our main channel which is the Christmas offerings that all the churches receive for our support. Eighty-six churches reached the goal of $1.00 per member or more in their offerings. The entire area which supports this Home gave an average offering of sixty-three cents per member.

During the year the Home admitted twenty-five new children into the Home family and honorably dismissed ten members who had reached their eighteenth birthday. It also gave releases to eight of the children whose living parents were again able to provide a good home for them. Thirteen new guests were admitted into the Old People's Home during the year. Nine members of this family were called out of this life to their Heavenly home. This leaves a family of one hundred and twenty-five children and fifty-six aged guests to be cared for.

The Trustee Board at its last meeting appointed a special committee to arrange for the observance of the fiftieth anniversary of the Orphanage and Home in 1953. One of the most important plans for that interesting event will be a great building program that will be undertaken. This includes enlargement of the buildings in order to accommodate more aged guests, the erection of a chapel, a physical educational building and a building for slaughtering, canning and storage purposes. This will take at least $300,000.00 to complete. This amount is to be raised during the next six years through increased Christmas offerings. All churches are urged to try prayerfully and by wise and earnest planning to reach the goal of "One Dollar per Member" for Quincy Orphanage and Home.

EVANGELICAL HOME

Lewisburg, Pennsylvania

Rev. G. C. Gabriel, Superintendent

THE Evangelical Home, Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, had its beginning with a bequest of $115.00 from Father Adolph Weidemeyer in February, 1879. This fund was held as a sacred trust by his son, Rev. P. C. Weidemeyer, for the establishing of an Orphans' Home until March, 1907, when the Central Pennsylvania Conference became custodian. Three years later it was decided to establish an Orphans' and Old Folks' Home combined. The "Slifer Farm" was purchased in July, 1915, and the Home was dedicated and formally opened August 4, 1916. Since that time 309 guests have come here for shelter and care during the evening time of life.

The Children's Home began its ministry in November, 1921, and since that time nearly 200 youth have found a haven and a place of training and spiritual culture.

During the past year the Evangelical Home has continued to give care and comfort to the aged and provide protection and opportunity for development to the children who are our guests. Our many friends have shown a continued interest and have been generous in their contributions. Good wishes and kind words have been an inspiration and the co-operation of our staff has made our work pleasant. Our farm and orchard have yielded plentiful harvests. The blessing of God has been evident.

The Department of the Aged, with a capacity of eighty, is constantly filled and we have cared for about forty-five in the Children's Home. The Permanent Fund has been increased by almost $36,000 and about $22,000 has been added to the Contingency Reserve Fund. The 42-bed hospital serving the Home and community is usually filled to capacity. The value of land, buildings, and equipment is $451,382 with total assets amounting to $766,300. There is a farm of 195 acres.

THE OTTERBEIN HOME

Lebanon, Ohio

THE response of the Church to the Saviour's call for Christian ministering has resulted in the undergirding of the program at the Otterbein Home of Lebanon, Ohio. This has given security, sustenance and comfort to 126 aged people during the year 1947. One hundred and ten of these are still with us, most of whom are happy and comfortable. The passing of a few members each year permits us to receive new members to the number of sixteen to twenty into the Home. We have been able to give home and service to 158 children during these months, which means not only an opportunity for a home but encouragement and direction in Christian growth.

This accomplishment is made possible by the loyal support of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, which gave the largest Christmas offering in 1946 that has been received during the years of our operation. The total for the year was $214,485.30. This fine support has enabled the Board to do some needed improvement, and funds are on hand to proceed further in this direction.

Alvin G. Myrice
Superintendent

The farm acreage is 1,459. Most of the land is of very good agricultural type but we have quite an acreage of grassland and woods. This permits a balance program of farming.

Three large buildings are used entirely for homing aged members and help. Our boys and girls live in four buildings of the larger home or dormitory type which are fairly well arranged and equipped for this purpose. A large modern brick structure houses the Administrative rooms, the chapel, the large dining room, the hospital unit and rooms for about 25 members and employees. The parsonage is a very good modern seven-room brick house. A modern brick building accommodates our school of eight grades and 109 children.

HAVEN HUBBARD MEMORIAL OLD PEOPLE'S HOME

New Carlisle, Indiana

Rev. C. B. Westfall, Superintendent

THIS benevolent institution of the Church, built and dedicated to Christian service in 1922, is located on the Old Chicago Trail two miles north of New Carlisle, Indiana. Its surrounding farm of 704 acres was the gift to the Church of Mrs. Armina Hubbard as a Home site and to be known as a memorial to her husband, Haven Hubbard.

The capacity of the Home is 70 persons, whose needs are cared for by a staff of 15. As with similar Homes, waiting lists of those who need the shelter and care of such a Home, and the constantly increasing numbers of those applying, challenge us to an even larger capacity for service.

Sound financially, meriting and enjoying the confidence of the Church across the land, and in particular the Conferences of the supporting area, this Home has a permanent place in the ever enlarging program of Christian service through the Evangelical United Brethren Church. During the past year new forms and procedures for entrance have been adopted and this literature is available to all desiring copies.

The religious program of the Home includes regular Sunday services of church school, worship, Wednesday evening prayer services, and a daily family worship period around the breakfast table.

Sources of support for Haven Hubbard Home are: 1. Entrance fees paid by those becoming members and which cover less than one-half the average cost of their care; 2. Farm products usable in the Home and the net profit accruing from the operation of the farm; 3. The annual Mother's Day Offerings from the supporting area; and 4. Special gifts and bequests.

WESTERN OLD PEOPLE'S HOME

Cedar Falls, Iowa

THE Western Old People's Home is located in the beautiful city of Cedar Falls, Iowa, on the banks of one of Iowa's most picturesque rivers. The city is noted for its churches, schools, homes and Iowa State Teachers' College. The Home stands on an elevation overlooking the valley of the Cedar River. There are ample grounds for pleasing landscaping, shaded lawns, flower and vegetable gardens and adequate orchard. The building is modern throughout. Its architectural design is one of beauty as well as durability, convenience and comfort. Valuation of buildings and equipment is $268,626, with total assets of $711,701.

Rev. G. A. Stauffacher, Superintendent

The Home family now numbers 116 members consisting of 10 married couples, 76 women and 22 men, the majority of whom are members of our denomination. Each individual has his own personalized room. The employed staff is made up of two men and ten women in addition to the superintendent and the matron.

The purpose of the Board of Trustees and the staff is to serve, conscientiously, our older people in their declining years. The Western Old People's Home serves a great constituency in the middle west. Over half of the guests are members of our denomination. The Home rates very high in this community of which it is a part. Regular services of worship are held in the beautiful chapel of the Home.

COLONEL R. M. BAKER HOME

Puente, California

E. E. Hostetter
Superintendent

THE Colonel R. M. Baker Home for Retired Ministers is located in Southern California, twenty-five miles east of Los Angeles. The Home was founded and endowed by Colonel and Mrs. R. M. Baker to furnish homes for retired ministers. The Institution was organized as a California Corporation managed by a Board of nine trustees elected three each year by the California Conference (UB). The title to the property is vested in this Board with full power to manage and regulate the Institution. They make an annual report to the California Conference and have their books audited by the Conference.

All the cottages are now occupied. Extensive improvements have been carried out this year. Under the supervision of a landscape architect a large storm drain was installed, filling and grading was done on a nine-acre tract for building sites. Streets were laid out, rolled and sealed with the most modern method of road building. Driveways to homes and garages were paved, sidewalks built where needed, cement curbs put in along Otterbein Avenue, street lights installed, and a clinic has been established.

This work was done at big expense in preparation for launching a building program in the immediate future. More cottages are urgently needed to care for the retired ministers waiting to be admitted into the Home. Contracts will be let to start the building program in the near future. Encouragement is given to anyone who desires to build a home on this property and enjoy Christian fellowship, fine facilities and wonderful climatic conditions during his remaining years. The property will then revert to the Home, as a permanent endowment. The Ladies' Auxiliary has done a great work in promoting improvements made this year. Their aid with enlarged Christmas offerings must meet the increased costs of services for the care and comfort of the guests.

PACIFIC EVANGELICAL HOME FOR AGED PEOPLE

Burbank, California

Lyman M. Light,
Superintendent

THE delightful climate of salubrious, sunny Southern California; spacious physical facilities; a happy, congenial atmosphere; a staff of loyal and efficient employees (all of whom are members of the Evangelical United Brethren Church) whose only purpose is to be of service; are among some of the factors which make it possible for a capacity group of persons in the upper age brackets to call Pacific Evangelical United Brethren Home their home. The church is, in a very real sense and in a very marked manner, thus extending its ministry. The aim and purpose of the Home as expressed in the constitution is ". . . to provide a home, and to care for aged people who are of Christian character, and especially for such as are members of the Evangelical United Brethren Church." To make this a Christian home, with all the deep meaning and connotation of those words, and to give a sense of security in these troubled days, is the object of the staff.

The Home is located on spacious grounds which will permit the expansion of the facilities as soon as building conditions permit. Fifty guests are now enjoying the present facilities. Pacific Evangelical United Brethren Home, in its first quarter century of existence, has amply justified its originally stated purpose. It is on a sound financial basis, having total assets of nearly $135,000.00.

The minister of the local Evangelical United Brethren Church, Rev. F. L. Fanthorpe, is the chaplain of the Home. In addition to the pastoral service he renders in the Home, the services and facilities of the church, located just a block from the Home, are available to the guests of the Home.

This is one of the most recently established institutions of the Church. Yet in the little more than two decades of its existence it has proven its worth and established a real reputation for itself. Much more will be heard from this enterprising institution as it's work becomes known to the Church.

The Home has a typical California atmosphere

Our 75,000 Goal

Our ten win one goal means that we must almost double our recent efforts. In 1946 our two former denominations received only 41,365 new members. We must lift this figure to a total of not less than 75,000. This will take not only united evangelistic endeavor but a united program and full surrender to Christ and his will. If we can fulfill the promise of 2 Chronicles 7: 14, we are sure to win: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Our Opportunity

Our opportunity is in the fact that there seems to be a widespread turning back to Christ. Other things have failed. Materialism does not bring peace nor happiness. War has saddened the world and its futility is more and more apparent. Our way out is through Christ. Brotherhood, good will and Christian love alone can solve our problems of human relations.

Many feel that American life is more fluid than in other days. Twenty-seven million people moved during war times. Many are still uprooted and in new surroundings away from their childhood churches. They are lonesome and hungry for Christian fellowship. A campaign of friendly visitation will bring great results. The time is ripe for warm hearts to approach those out of Christ and the church with the all-sufficient Christ, the Saviour; results will follow. We believe they will respond when they hear through us the good shepherd's voice.

Moreover, people are tired of half-hearted, cold and formal religion. A passionate, fervent gospel with witnesses that testify to the saving power of Christ can accomplish remarkable miracles of grace. It is being done. Several leading denominations have used visitation evangelism with marvelous results. Their conversions and accessions have been doubled and trebled. With supreme devotion we can do likewise.

The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America is the official organ of the Evangelical United Brethren Church for co-operation with twenty-four other communions in common tasks, with the following major departments: Field—developing organized co-operation among Churches; Evangelism and Worship—co-ordinated activity in strengthening spiritual life and leading men into discipleship, preaching missions in camps and cities; Social Service—application of the gospel to social and industrial life; Race Relations—uniting white and Negro churches in interracial co-operation; International Justice and Goodwill—collective leadership in making the churches more potent influences for world peace; Relations with Churches Abroad—bringing the American Churches into fellowship and co-operation with the Christian forces of other lands; Research and Education—studying problems affecting all the churches; Radio—united Protestant ministry to millions of people; and Commissions on Religion and Health, Marriage and the Home, and Prison Chaplains. Information and suggestions for local churches furnished by the Federal Council, 297 Fourth Avenue, New York 10, N. Y.

The American Bible Society is the agency of the Evangelical Church for Bible supply in many lands. The Society makes available translations (sometimes in co-operation with other Societies) in all languages and dialects required by missionaries in all fields in which we operate. Revisions in translations are constantly in progress. It publishes books in scores of forms and sizes, in scores of languages, all over the world. The Society distributes books the world over where churches are at work among the people. At times the Society blazes the trail for the missionaries to follow, and lays the foundation upon which churches are eventually built. CHURCH PAPERS

Good Christians are thinkers. Constructive thinking about the Church is stimulated by reading the periodicals of our Church. Each church should secure subscriptions for as many members as possible and place Sunday-school literature into the hands of all pupils. Each church should keep the Church papers informed about significant events in the life of the parish. Discuss the contents of the papers in meetings of the Council of Administration and in Sunday School Council sessions.

An appropriate Christmas gift for a church friend is a subscription to one or more of the Church periodicals.

Make sure those who will represent your church in summer assemblies and camps understand the seriousness of purpose in the conference experience. Perhaps a commissioning service will help.

"Carillonic Bells"

...CHOICE OF MODERN CHURCHES FOR ITS VOICE OF MATCHLESS BEAUTY

Your tower comes to vibrant life, your church acquires a new voice in the community, through the incomparably clear, rich tones of CARILLONIC BELLS. Nearly seven hundred churches have proven this instrument the finest of its kind for sending forth a message of beautiful music.

And if you are planning a church, be sure to have CARILLONIC BELLS built in. With no weight factor nor awkward size to consider, you can save money on tower construction, and the design can be as beautifully slender as your architect desires.

Whether played from the tower, or inside with the organ, CARILLONIC BELLS adds new color and greater spiritual appeal to your church music; and you will be surprised at the increasing numbers of worshippers it attracts. For particulars, address Dept. YEC.

BIBLE STORIES FOR LITTLE FOLK

By Edna B. Rowe. This charming book contains forty-four Old and New Testament stories for little folk from four to eight years of age. Each story is illustrated with a full-page picture in color—soft, clear, exquisite.

The stories are among the most beautiful to be found in the Bible. While they have been told to children many times in many ways, they are told here with such appealing simplicity that they take on new beauty and interest. Beginning with the story of the creation and ending with the story of Jesus and the family at Bethany, each narrative seems to breathe of God's love and protecting care. They sow in the child mind the seed that later will flower into a reverence for all that is true and good. Splendid book for home or Bible school.

NEW MEMBERS

After Easter why not hold a reception for new members? Give them a public welcome, the most impressive the church has ever had. Arrange repeated calls at the homes of new members. Provide literature for them and introduce The Telescope-Messenger and Builders into their homes. Have Sunday-school classes welcome them. Get them into church organizations. Enlist them in church service and financial support. Assign sponsors to them.

ADVANCE!

The Foreword from The Editor

OUT of a year filled with tremendous challenges we plunge into a new year of uncertain promise. Thinking Christians realize that the Church faces the most dangerous time modern Christianity has ever known. Although the nations are released from the tensions of war, we are again faced with the same tragic problems, intensified in form, that we knew before the war. Unless there is a spiritual rebirth, it is obvious that again we are only in a pause between conflicts. Who is responsible for this task of bringing about the spiritual rebirth of mankind?

The Church has the specific responsibility for the provision of the life-giving forces through Christ which can destroy the germs of death that have gotten into the spiritual bloodstream of our world society. The Church is to provide the spiritual foundations of a Christian world order. The Church must act now to help prevent another world tragedy and to fulfill its God-given purpose of bringing men into accord with the will of the heavenly Father.

The Church has the opportunity to act now through the causes of Christ. These causes find their source and urgency in the example and teaching of Christ. They have proven themselves indispensable in the promulgation of the Christian gospel. They are the Church's way to serve humanity in the spirit of Christ in days of reconstruction.

This Year Book depicts the way Evangelical United Brethren leaders, agencies and institutions are endeavoring to meet the challenges of this tremendous era. Careful reading of these pages will give satisfaction on the way our Church is seeking to undergird with a spiritual foundation the political, social, and economic activities of this generation. At the same time, the unparalleled needs of this age call all agencies of the church to "advance" in a more concerted fashion than in any previous year.

It is the editor's hope that the 1949 Year Book will find even a larger welcome from our ministry, church officials, lay workers, and our young people than previous issues. It is more complete and contains more information than any previous Church annual, and we are grateful to God and to the officials of the Church for making this issue possible. May these pages furnish more than mere information and statistics. May they provide inspiration and a challenge to all to do their part in helping the Church advance in its service for Christ.

"My Message to Our Evangelical United Brethren People"

SENIOR BISHOP A. R. CLIPPINGER, D.D., LL.D.

A. R. Clippinger, D.D., LL.D.

THE times are now favorable for advance work along all lines of Church work. Two years ago we were in the retrospect of Church Union. It required time for moving and adjustment, also to become acquainted. The general departments of the Church are now settled down to routine work and making plans for the future.

As I write this brief message we are engrossed with a presidential campaign. People's minds are distracted. There is much uncertainty and unrest everywhere. It has always been true that during a presidential election year church work drags heavily. Most folks are thinking politically and not religiously. In November that question is settled for another four years and we can turn our attention to things more enduring.

What are some of the conditions that make this an auspicious time for advance work? In the first place the manpower of the Church has been augmented and enlisted through the Brotherhood efforts as in no previous time. Our women are working together with a zeal unexcelled in previous years. The financial strength of our churches was never before so great as now. The organization of the Church is sufficient to meet present day needs if we only give it dynamic power. What we need most is vision and consecration. The harness without the horse is useless. The machine without the motive power is non-effective. So the Church without spiritual power can accomplish nothing. We need both the machine and the power. Too often we add another wheel or appoint another committee to do a certain piece of work only to discover that we did not have enough spiritual power to operate successfully the organization we had before.

The greatest need of the Church today is a spiritual awakening. We need a baptism of the Holy Ghost to quicken the spiritual life of our membership. Far too many people are indifferent and careless concerning their reilgious duty. They are living apart from God and his plan for mankind.

The departments of Christian Education and Evangelism are doing much to kindle anew the flame of spiritual life in our churches. Let me urge every one to join in these movements which we believe are directed of God to achieve his purpose through the Church.

This is the opportune time to meet God's demands.

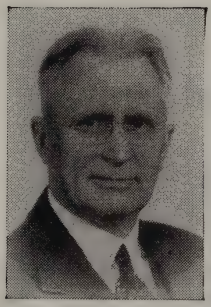

Shakespeare put these timely words in the mouth of Julius Caesar:

"There is a tide in the affairs of men
Which taken at the flood, leads on to fortune:
Omitted, all the voyage of their life
Is bound in shallows and in miseries.

"We must take the current when it serves,
Or lose our ventures."

Our Twofold Task

By Bishop John S. Stamm

John S. Stamm, D.D., LL.D.

THE task of our Church is a twofold one. It implies the building of our denominational life in terms of membership, fellowship and service. It also implies the building of an ever enlarging Christian fellowship and service. These two aspects are not mutually exclusive but mutually complementary. They are not limited to our Church but apply to every Christian denomination.

The Church must be spiritually strong and active. We must therefore be ever vitally concerned about the spiritual state of our Church. The Church must also share in the larger spiritual fellowship and service of the believers. Christians need to have a sense of belonging to a fellowship more inclusive than the fellowship of their own Church. Such a spiritual fellowship will help them to enter more meaningfully into the spiritual enrichment and to utilize the spiritual disciplines of their own denominational Fellowship. Every Church must keep this twofold task clearly in mind.

Both of our churches, now united in The Evangelical United Brethren Church, recognized this twofold responsibility. Both stressed evangelism and holy living. Both gave a large place to spiritual culture. Both shared with other Christians in cooperative fellowships. The united Church also has accepted this twofold task and is giving diligence to move forward along these two lines of advanc. In building the Plan and Basis of Union a carefully outlined procedure was worked out so that the first General Conference and the first quadrennium could largely be given to the quickening of the spirit and the enlargement of the service of the Church. There were adjustments which had to be made during the General Conference, but as one reviews the actions of this great gathering one is heartened by the many evidences of spiritual concern and purpose.

The General Conference, in unmistakable terms, placed first the spiritual renewing, empowering and enlargement of the Church. There also have been adjustments, especially in terms of organizational activities, during these first two years of the quadrennium but the major emphasis has been, and continues to be, "Forward Together with Christ." This advance is both within the Church and in the larger area of Christian fellowship and service.

There are evidences of spiritual thought, life and vitality in our Church. Our union was not a mechanical adjustment but a spiritual experience. It was the result of much prayer, thought and careful preparation. It was however more than a human achievement, it was the workings of the Holy Spirit in terms of the Kingdom of God. Our united fellowship is also an enrichment through the Spirit. The Evangelical United Brethren Church has not lost spiritual moorings. The Church is today a spiritual force in our world.

The whole membership, however, has not yet been enlisted. There are many absentee and inactive members. The full measure of spiritual resources has not yet been released. Too many still follow afar off and have not accepted the principle of Christian Stewardship. Our evangelistic endeavor is still lacking. Many professed Christians still lack a personal witness and evangelistic passion and purpose. The full spiritual impact of our united fellowship has not yet been made. Many have divided loyalties and are not seeking first the Kingdom of God. These facts give us concern. We must give more diligence to the spiritual culture of the Church. Our Church has a large place in the ongoing Christian movement but will not make full contribution unless there will be a Church-wide spiritual requickening of thought, life and commitment. For this we must earnestly pray and unceasingly work. The task is great, but the Church can be made adequate through the Spirit.

There are also evidences that our Church is assuming an ever enlarging service in the area of cooperative Christianity, on the local, state, national and world levels. Many of our ministers and lay people are rendering outstanding service in these areas of cooperative Christian activity. Through these enlarged and enlarging fellowships the opportunity for service is increased and the spiritual life of the Church is enriched. The more Christians share their witness to Christ in these larger areas of thought and life the more that witness takes on meaning and challenge. The confusion, uncertainty and disorder of our world is disturbing. There is much to give concern. There are many dangers confronting men. There are great problems to be solved. Politicians, economists, scientists and governmental leaders have no sure word to offer. They face our world with fear.

In Christ there is a sure word. In him there is hope. Through him a new order is possible. Men need Christ. They need the experience of renewal through his redemptive power. They need also to make operative the principles of his Order in all of life. It is the task of the Church to win men to Christ.

It is also the task of the Church to teach, train and direct men in the way of mutual good will and service. This requires many forms of activity. It calls for many services. It finds expression through many gifts of the spirit. No one Church can meet this challenge adequately. Only as Christians enter into cooperative service can the full impact of the Spirit be brought upon this disordered and lost world. Our Church must enlarge and strengthen this service of united action.

There are other involvements in the task of the Church which cannot be mentioned here, but these two aspects of the task seem to press to the fore at this time. All ministers and members of our Church should give earnest prayer, thought and devotion to this twofold task. Our world needs spiritual deliverance. It needs order based upon the Spirit. In seeking to give expression to the diversified ministries of the Spirit, let us give all diligence to preserve the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace and go "Forward Together with Christ."

United We Go Forward

By Bishop George Edward Epp

THESE lines are written on the eve of a recurring anniversary of our Church union. Before me rises again that sea of eager faces, in the church at Johnstown, Pennsylvania, when promptly at nine o'clock on the morning of November 16, 1946, to the majestic strains of the processional hymn, "Lead On, O King Eternal," the bishops enter the crowded sanctuary and before the assembled multitude solemnly publish and declare, "That The Church of the United Brethren in Christ and The Evangelical Church are now and shall be one Church, known as The Evangelical United Brethren Church."

George Edward Epp, D.D., LL.D.

Church Union a Glorious Fact

My travels have taken me far afield in the two years of intervening time. Multiplied opportunities have been mine to fellowship in many places with ministers and laity of both former groups in churches, homes, conferences and convocations of various kinds. I am thoroughly convinced of the benefits, blessings and Kingdom values of our union. We were made for each other; for we are alike in background, purpose, religious experience and aspiration.

Let us now address ourselves with renewed dedication to the great task of bringing ourselves into fullest structural and organizational unity. We must do all in our power to bring ourselves and our churches to best serve the Kingdom purposes. Let us count the cost; sharpen our tools and build, build, build!

United We Go Forward

Widened horizons lift before us. Multiplied opportunities in evangelism, missions, education, publication and Christian benevolence of every kind spell increased responsibility. We dare not fail them now.

Let us go forward to a greater practice of the principles of Christian stewardship. An average of $30.79 per member giving, which puts us eighth in the list of major Protestant denominations, surely does not spell the maximum of our individual or corporate ability. Nor will it suffice to fully underwrite our total educational, missionary and benevolent denominational program.

Increasingly we must help set the moral and spiritual climate for the communities in which we serve. We dare not give up the role of pioneering. We can claim no frontier position tomorrow if we neglect it today.

United we go forward to a church-wide increase of Christian Graces. We are the people who must set the spiritual pace for multitudes who look "usward" for leadership. The program of evangelism dare not lag. A time like this demands an exhibition of the needed Christian virtues of justice, charity, forgiveness, cooperation, faith, hope and trust in God. We must use the best devices to make our Christian witness known. The best is none too good.

A Strong Home Base Necessary

By the grace of God we have become a world church. North America, Europe, Africa, Asia, South America and the Islands of the Sea form the base of our operation. The price of this achievement is great in life, in money, in spiritual interest and resource. The end in this regard, is not yet. We shall go forward in a deepened, sacred, Christlike partnership with the younger Churches of the mission fields.

But to do all this, a strong home base is imperative. North America must demonstrate in all human relationships, the workability of the Christian gospel and the ethical principles of Jesus Christ. Here we must cultivate the intercessory missionaries. Here we must find the young life that will dedicate itself to the propagation of the Gospel. Here we must needs make our congregations strong so that intelligently they may fully cooperate in the World Mission of Christianity.

These things we must be and do for we believe in the reality of God; in the certainty of his promises, the honesty of his laws and the loving purpose of his designs. We believe in Jesus Christ adequate and ultimate. Here there is no place for liberalism. We believe in the presence and power of the Holy Spirit. We believe in the Bible as the Word of God, infallible guide to Christian faith and practice. We believe in the Christian church, aroused, active, militant, that girds herself to battle. We believe in the Cross of Christ, the supreme symbol of our faith. We believe in the salvability of man. We believe in Christian experience. We believe in the life eternal; founded upon the redemptive act of God, evidenced by the forgiveness of sin, the indwelling of the Holy Spirit and the life that has no ending as born in us. For us immortality is personal and conscious, the fulfillment of all our hopes in him.

In this faith let us go forward!

Many churches are experiencing a deepening of interest in the work of the Church through contacts made with missionaries, young people preparing for Christian service, or retired ministers, by allocating a portion of their benevolence gifts for a specific person or project. Relationships thus formed not only enrich the lives of the members of the supporting church, but also add encouragement to those who know that they are being upheld by the prayers, interest and contributions of a church at home.

The World Needs Christ

By Bishop Ira D. Warner

Ira D. Warner, D.D., LL.D.

MY first word is that of deep appreciation for the fine way the whole church has received and is promoting the program of Evangelism. It is heartening to witness the rising tide of interest and victories recorded throughout all the conferences and local churches. We have not achieved our goal of 75,000 won to Christ, however, during any of these years of our quadrennial program. Nor in any way have we approximated what God expects, or what the church can do if she would go to her knees in confession, seeking spiritual renewal to go out into the highways and byways to witness for and bring men to God.

It is well for our churches to set goals in this field and endeavor to reach objectives. But we must gird our loins and go forth in a mighty battle to save the world for Christ. We must save the world spiritually or the material forces will bring it to destruction.

Our only hope is that there shall be a change in the hearts and minds of men through the power of Christ. After all these centuries we cannot afford to tamper with the spiritual fundamentals; they are as eternal and unchangeable as God himself and as necessary as they were when Jesus announced to Nicodemus, "Ye must be born again."

Our tragic situation, personal, social, economic, national and international, calls for a new life made after the blueprints of the Risen Christ. It is not some social patch-work but a new creation; not a reformation, but a new birth in Christ. This is not merely my message, but a heart-yearning desire and prayer from the depths of my soul.

IN this brief message, I would appeal to the whole church to bring to a glorious climax the Kingdom Advance Campaign. To neglect to do this would make us guilty of a sin greater than that of Judas, who betrayed Christ for thirty pieces of silver.

Recently, President Truman released a very searching statement when he said, "Our national income, which was seventy billion dollars in 1920, and dropped to forty-two billion in 1932, has risen until it has reached unprecedented heights. It was one hundred and seventy-eight billion in 1946, more than four times the total income in the depths of the depression in 1932. But the percentage of giving to all church and charity institutions which I am informed was 5.3% in 1932, is reported to be 1.6% during this time of our highest prosperity.

"We cannot hope to be worthy of the continued blessings of God if our prosperity is used selfishly for our own personal gratification without a more appropriate increase in the voluntary, systematic support of the religious and benevolent institutions upon which the integrity of the nation, and the peace of the world are based."

The church must, yea, I believe she will rise up and complete this task for the glory of our Christ, the relief of a stricken world, the rehabilitation of our mission work destroyed by the war, and for a definite advance in the areas in which we should press the battle against the forces of sin and darkness.

Some time ago I looked upon a blind man sitting at a street corner trying to sell a few wares. What a pathetic figure! He was imprisoned—shut away from the beauty of this wonderful world. The tragedy of it laid hold on me with a mighty grasp. I yearned for the power of Christ who centuries ago restored sight to the blind.

But there is more tragic sightlessness than this. It is the spectacle of people who are morally and spiritually blinded. They are all about us. We must bring them to the great Physician! He alone can heal all their diseases.

Christianity is not an elective. It is light, life, liberty. We must take it to men. The world needs desperately our Christ!

Our Family Relationship

By Bishop Elmer W. Praetorius

Elmer W. Praetorius, D.D., LL.D.

IT is now more than two years since we entered into church union and solemnly declared before God and men that from henceforth we would be one in love, organization and labor.

Approval

Those who witnessed our nuptials, both church and non-church people, gave unreserved approval of our wedding and wondered why it had not taken place long before. Those most vitally concerned, who make up the two contracting parties of this matrimony, have manifested a concurrence in this union that is not merely outward, but inward, deep and abiding. Beneath, above and in it all is the blessing of Almighty God.

The only limitations that I can see that can be placed upon the possibilities of our union are those which we will place upon ourselves. Only we, ourselves, can stand between our union and its success. Like in a marriage of two properly-mated people, only we, in the last analysis, can prevent or make our union to be all that God by his grace would have it to become.

In our union, as in every successful marriage, there must be mutual trust, give and take, and the making of many adjustments until fullest harmony in daily living and practice are achieved. All these are fully possible where there are wholesome deference, mutual respect, sincerity of motive and the will to succeed. The interference and untoward influence of so-called mother-in-laws, father-in-laws, brother- and sister-in-laws, or other "third parties," are impotent in the presence of these factors. Where these abound, nothing can harm us. If we are willing to turn our eyes from the past to the future, mutually seek the largest achievements, no matter what the cost, nothing can stand in the way of our success.

Basic Elements

Just as the possession of basic elements that underlie the structure of real home-life are more vital to a successful marriage than are the acquisition of expensive house gadgets, so the possession of certain fundamental elements that are essential to church-life are more vital to our church union than are the acquisition of expensive church gadgets. As food, clothing, shelter, training and discipline are essential to home-life, so faith, the Word of God, prayer, adequate churches, Christian education and discipline are absolutely essential to our Church-life.

Our Outreach

A home is intended to be a place where not only two people live together in harmony, but where children are born and reared. Even so our church is to be not only a comfortable place in which we can live, but a place where spiritual children can be born and carefully reared.

There must be among us a deep concern born of the Holy Spirit for the lost that manifests itself in evangelistic outreach that, through intercessory prayer, personal invitation and Christian witness, leads them into a conscious experience of Christ and brings them into vital membership in the Church and the Kingdom enterprise.

There must also be among us a missionary zeal that reaches beyond our immediate church borders, that seeds the church into new beginnings within the conference territory and across the seas.

There must be a passion to build the Kingdom of God and to extend the dominion of Christ in all areas of life.

If these things be among us and abound, nothing can hinder our progress and usefulness as a united church.

Let the Church Speak with Authority

By Bishop Charles H. Stauffacher

Charles H. Stauffacher, D.D., LL.D.

IT WAS said of queen Esther that she had come into the kingdom for the critical time which threatened the lives of her people, and it was true because she had a message upon the faithful delivery of which depended the salvation of her people. The queen was aware of the danger, and at great personal risk faithfully delivered the message and saved her people.

The church today faces an equally critical time. The people of the world are restless, confused, perplexed, at their wits end. Questions are being asked and no one has the answers. Problems are unsolved and no one has the solutions. Many things are hanging in the balance and the balance is all atremble with destiny. A very little thing may tip the balance to disaster and despair, or lift it to victorious living. The church has the message which can determine the future and can swing the balance to the abundant life with mighty spiritual power.

The people of the world are longing and listening for a voice of authority to speak the word that will arouse hope, inspire confidence and give a new sense of direction for individual and group living. The church has that word. The church can speak the word that our misguided and divided world needs, and that will save it. Obedience to the message of the church will lead the world to peace and goodwill, to justice in righteousness and to unity in Christ.

Man has failed dismally in the administration of the affairs of the world. The worldly wise have laid their plans, strutted their stuff and pointed with pride to their accomplishments. But look at our world! See the ruin man has wrought. With a very little encouragement our good earth would yield abundantly to supply all our needs, and yet the cry of needy millions sounds in our ears. Economically, man has failed. Inequality, injustice, the clash of color, national and racial hatreds reaching across every border, these are everywhere. Socially man has not succeeded. Discarded systems of government are strewn on every continent. Politically man cannot point with any great pride to his achievements. The sharp moral decline mounting to a national debacle in our land and the disappearing ethical standards around our world indicate the failure of man.

Some thing is wrong in our world. No matter what you call it. The name is immaterial. The fact is certain. The church can not say anything else until it has said with such power that men pause and think that "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God." The most optimistic thing on the world's horizon is the general recognition of human failure to administer our world.

THIS is not the first dark day in human history, for God has always been in human history. He is moving in His world today. His footprints and his finger marks can be seen everywhere by any one with keenly sensitive spiritual eyes. God's kingdom does not come with great noise and showy demonstration, but slowly, silently, steadily his kingdom does come. His plans are long plans. He is not defeated by the turn of political events. He often makes the wrath of man to praise him. The church needs to tell our world that God is, that he is at work in his world and that he will accomplish his eternal purposes.

God is a loving heavenly Father who is ready to forgive, but man must repent of his personal and social sins and bring forth the fruits of repentance. It is not enough to become aware of sin. Something must be done about it or it will end disastrously. The church must continue to teach and preach that "Except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish."

Goodwill is a basic principle of our Christian religion. The angels sang about it when Jesus was born, and the church has talked about it ever since, but too frequently it has been limited in its application. Goodwill is not to be the hoarded possession of a few nations on the north Atlantic seaboard. It must be extended to all mankind which God has made of one blood. Love will go farther than goodwill. Love will make a place on the face of the earth for all the peoples of one blood. It will recognize not only "four freedoms" but all freedoms as the rights of all mankind. It will recognize the value of all personalities and that "On the seven seas all men are brothers."

My message to the Evangelical United Brethren Church is an exhortation and a challenge. It is this. Pick up the message of the Church. Tell men of human failure. Remind them of the reality and activity of God. Declare to them the redemptive purposes of God through Jesus Christ. Admonish them to repent of their sins and to bring forth the fruits of repentance. Tell them of a loving, forgiving Father. Show them the result of God's grace in human life by a personal, practical demonstration of the spirit and teaching of Jesus Christ. Believe the message profoundly. Preach it clearly and powerfully. Be sure that God will integrate our split personalities, he will unify our divided world, and he will reconcile the world unto himself through Jesus Christ.

Promise of the Future

By Bishop V. O. Weidler

V. O. Weidler, D.D., LL.D.

THE first word of greeting I am impressed to bring to our Church fellowship is one of gratification. Our achievement in the field of church union has been heralded as one of genuine spiritual triumph which sets a pattern for other Christian bodies to follow.

It is quite apparent that this happy union of our two former churches was made possible because of kindred spiritual realities existing in the hearts of the people who made up the membership of these two historic and highly esteemed religious bodies.

These affinities of spirit consummated the holy fusion long before the basis of union in detail was devised. This is as it should have been, and it gives us cause for rejoicing. It is the only truly effective way the various divisions of the Christian Church can really come together.

If the structure of union is perchance artificial, there could be little hope for permanence, but if on the other hand the union is effected by the bond of the Spirit it will have promise of constancy and enlargement.

OUR churches for more than a century and a half possessed a common, distinguishing mark. Collectively they bore in their bodies the brand of a genuine and satisfying religious experience. This was a means of achieving a cohesive power in a local group, as well as a means for disseminating a message far and wide of missionary and evangelizing influence. Its power was more than that for it had a continuing and perpetuating nature which has caused it to persist through many generations.

In any one of our local congregations this differentiating something can be found. Even though a strange formalism sometimes seems to belie the existence of the pristine and colorful common to the religious expressions of our founding fathers, yet in any one of our churches this holy exuberance can readily be fanned into flame.

Thus we can claim that the distinguishing nature of our early religious societies has possessed an ability to transmit its genius through the generations which have both cherished and preserved this strange and valued unction.

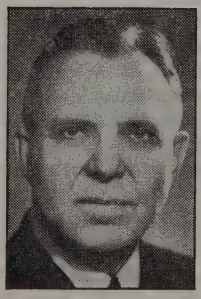

This evident continuity of spirit gives promise for the future. We have courage born of a changeless gospel while facing a rapidly changing world. Our world, which we have always called our field of conquest, is rapidly becoming a vastly different world. In size it has shrunken. A boundless ocean, expansive prairies, and forbidding mountains are no longer formidable and forbidding. In their place, however, are social, political, economic, and racial interrelationships of snarled and tangled complexity. Who is able for these things? We might well cry out, "Whither shall I flee from so many and varied calls?" Questions such as these express the all too common tendency to despair.

But the Church must not despair. Its power is not an earthly power, but a God-sent enduement which shall equip us for the duties of the present hour. We must make new appraisals of the resources at hand, and in a spirit of grave demeanor face the future with the faith that has never failed. According to this our faith it shall be unto us.

On to Victory

By Bishop Fred L. Dennis

THE horizon of my life has been lifted during the past year as a result of my visit to our mission fields in the Orient at the direction of the Board of Missions and of the Board of Bishops. The resulting sense of magnitude and solidarity of our world-wide fellowship has deepened my appreciation of the denomination of which I am a part, and of the spiritual heritage which is ours as Evangelical United Brethren people.

Fred L. Dennis, D.D., LL.D.

There is a subtle danger that many of our fellow-members may "rest upon their oars," now that the union of our former denominations has been effected legally. Let us understand, however, that the real union of our denominations is not effected by law, but by grace. The fusion of life on the spiritual level is essential to real union. We still have some "growing up" to do. We still discover provincialism in our own hearts which must give place to broader Christian statesmanship.

We achieved nation-wide acclaim through the union two years ago. Let us now unite in such an aggressive Christian service program that will reflect even greater credit upon our communion. Evangelism ever has been at the heart of our church life. No local church can survive unless there are souls born at its altars. Under the leadership of our Commission on Evangelism we shall have a worthy place in the nation-wide evangelistic mission which is scheduled for next fall.

Our Board of Christian Education feels great responsibility in the field of Christian nurture. Colleges and seminaries of our denomination, Editors of our literature, Sunday School leaders, and Christian parents are called to a crusade to indoctrinate recent converts as well as members of long standing. Church leaders who have "trained with the team" in our own colleges and seminaries will be most effective workers in this crusade.

The appeal of the Board of Missions for recruits and for funds, as listed in the Kingdom Advance Program, is finding generous response in our hearts. With only a few months remaining, let us demonstrate the vitality of our Church in the victorious conclusion of this phase of Kingdom enterprise.

Yoke-fellows in Service

By Bishop J. Balmer Showers

J. B. Showers, D.D., LL.D.

SINCE our Uniting General Conference in Johnstown, Pa., November 16, 1946, every effort possible has been made to seal that bond. Congregations have held services together, Conferences have united efforts and studied means for closer co-operation looking toward unification. On the national level a series of significant meetings has been held.

The leaders of the Women's Society of World Service in their Planning Conference not only outlined policies and basic operations for the quadrennium ahead but gave directives for an unparalleled future advance of all our women. As might have been expected the first national gathering of all our leaders at Linwood Park, Ohio, was on the subject of Evangelism. With no uncertain trumpet there was here sounded the basic and traditional note of the two uniting communions. The Brotherhoods, meeting in Dayton, Ohio, were the most representative and far-seeing gathering of the men in the history of either church. A thousand young people met in the first General Christian Education and Youth Fellowship Convention at Oakwood Park, Indiana, for worship, discussion, and program building. The joint meeting of the Council of Administration and the superintendents of the fifty-one conferences created policies and programs of great importance. The missionary forces co-operated with the Foreign Missions Conference in a series of Regional Meetings which placed missionary advance before our entire communion, down even to the grass roots. The Laymen's Rallies, with the full co-operation of conference leaders, placed the second emphasis upon Evangelism with momentous intensity. Nor is it to be ignored that our competent representatives participated in the First Assembly of the World Council of Churches which is but a projection of our own spirit of union, and put us in line with the ecumenical trend.

It was not the mere convening of these hosts that made them significant occasions. Rather it was the fundamental elements expressed and manifested. In them was demonstrated the fact that basically our traditions, judged by Biblical teaching, are sound and continuous. Our union is changing nothing vital as to our Christian convictions: the evangelistic spirit continues to be dominant; missionary ideals still challenge; our compassion toward the distressed and destitute is evident; our Christian principles are alive and operative.

The changes taking place have to do merely with the expression of our convictions, and our procedures. The adjusting of the differing traditions, the amalgamating of two group psychologies, the placating of different personalities, of course, have, created some tensions. But who could have dreamed that all could proceed as peaceably as it has! This oneness is but a notable evidence and expression of the presence of the Holy Spirit. Out of all these experiences comes the deep conviction that our union is of God and is working out the purposes of God even in the face of retarding factors. (Concluded on page 53.)

Forward With Christ In Training

The 1949 Theme of Our Denomination

By Reuben H. Mueller
Executive Secretary of Christian Education

THE Evangelical United Brethren Church is moving forward. When this united denomination was launched one of the basic reasons given for such a union was that the united forces could make more progress for the Kingdom than they could make separately. The first two years of united action have already demonstrated the validity of that reason. From the very day of church union there has been a new alertness, a renewed spiritual vigor and a keen sense of expectancy that our beloved Church will go "Forward Together with Christ."

Forward Together

During the first two years of our united action we have given major emphasis to "Fellowship" and "Service" in every department of our church life. By means of these unifying accents in program, many of us are learning that the total program and life of the Church ought to be unified in the basic purposes of Christ. In the new year our emphasis is to be: "Forward Together with Christ in Training," and we should learn that our work in missions, in evangelism, in Christian education, in stewardship, in Christian social action, and in the other functions of the Christian life can all be bound together and strengthened through a strong program of training. For training in the Christian Church is not an end in itself. It must always be the means to the end. From this point of view the different phases of the Christian education program of the church are not for the purpose of serving themselves, but instead, for the purpose of making missions, evangelism, stewardship, Christian social action, etc., effective and productive. So Christian training should be the servant of every other part of the total program of the church.

Forward Together with Christ

Anyone who makes a careful study of the Gospel must be impressed with how great an emphasis Jesus placed on this matter of Training. He is called "Teacher" more often than he is called by any other title. His disciples are "learners." When he appointed the twelve he did so that they might be with him and learn of him by observation, by imitation and by participation. They "learned by doing." This is the basis of all sound training procedures. When he appointed Seventy in order to send them out to prepare for his coming in the communities, he first trained them carefully in their responsibilities and procedures. These, and others, went to the School of Christ and in that school were so expertly trained that they were good examples of the product of the principle that Jesus himself enunciated, when he said: "The pupil is never beyond his teacher, but when he is perfectly trained, he is like his teacher." Is it any wonder that it was said about some of them later on, "They took knowledge of them that they had been with Jesus." The Church today needs to give careful heed to the basic importance of a thorough training program if it would really do the work of Christ. It is because we realize the great importance of this fact that our own Church has planned to emphasize this matter of training throughout this entire year.

The Importance of Trained Leadership

This accent on training is not new in the Christian Church. We have long had a definite, well-organized program of training for leadership. Over a period of 50 years there has been developed a series of courses, known as a curiculum, designed to train leadership for every phase of the church's program. In the first part of this half century the main concern was with training teachers for our Sunday schools, and the one-volume course outlines by such men at Huelbut, Oliver and Moninger were widely used. There was a tremendous wave of interest in this work and literally thousands of men and women and young people applied themselves diligently to these training courses and became more effective as teachers thereby. They were the leaders of the "golden age" of American Sunday-school work.

This led to the enlargement of this work and the expansion of the various sections of the first one-volume (or one-year) courses. Also, it came to be recognized that training is needed for other church work, such as trustees, stewards, class leaders, financial secretaries and treasurers, and officers and committee members of the organizations for youth, for women and for men. Today the Standard Leadership Curriculum provides courses for all phases of the church's work. Choice must be made in the local church, from among these multiplied courses, to select those that are most needed to provide the kind of trained leadership that our church requires if it is to go "Forward Together with Christ." The office of the General Board of Christian Education in Dayton, Ohio, or the various Conference Directors of Leadership Education of the Annual Conferences, are ready to help with counsel and guidance in the selection of courses and the certifying of qualified teachers, so that this program of training for leadership will be spiritually productive and will be more than a mechanical and formal pedagogical procedure.

Every local church ought to have provision for giving such training to those who are the potential leaders of tomorrow. We ought not to depend on accident or chance in the church, to send us the kind of trained personnel that we need if we are to do a really elective piece of Kingdom work for God. Nor should sincerity and willingness, important as they are, ever be taken as a substitute for adequate understanding of the task and thorough preparation for it. This is especially important in these first years of our new denomination's life, when all of us must learn new ways of carrying on the work of our church. Some of our practices came out of the former United Brethren Church; others out of the former Evangelical Church; and some are brand new developments that did not obtain in either former denomination. Therefore all of us will need careful schooling in the Evangelical United Brethren structure and program if we are to go "Forward Together." This ought to be a year of training classes throughout the denomination, using the quadrennial emphasis manual for this year as text material, and in addition, selecting such other courses as will work for better churchmanship throughout.

Training for Christian Service

There is a danger in emphasizing training for leadership unless we are always careful to give it the Christian interpretation. We need to recall the words of Jesus (Luke 22:25-26), which he spoke to his disciples when a dispute arose among them as to which of them was to be regarded as the greatest: "The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and those in authority over them are called benefactors. But not so with you; rather let the greatest among you become as the youngest, and the leader as one who serves." This is the true definition of leadership for Christ's Church, and leadership education should therefore be education for Christian service. This has its evangelistic and stewardship implications, for the trained individual is not assigned to lord it over the rest of the church, but to serve more largely and effectively than he could have served without training. "For to whom much has been given, of him much will be expected." And as stewards of our lives, we are responsible not only for what we now have, but also for what we may develop of our talents and abilities. These should be evangelistically dedicated to the service of Christ and his church.

This year of training in the Evangelical United Brethren Church could render an outstanding service in bringing many men, women, and young people to the place where they are willing to devote their time and talent, as well as money, to the service of our Master. Everywhere throughout the church there is the cry for leaders who are able. We need more and better preachers. We need more and better Sunday-school teachers, trustees, stewards, class leaders, youth counselors, and organization officers. Before these can be trained, they must be dedicated within their own hearts to this service of Christ in their churches. Here is a field for strong evangelistic effort throughout our church for this year of training. If we could succeed in this matter, then it might be true that we could raise the hymn of praise as did the ancient Israleties as recorded in Judges 5:2:

"For that the leaders took the lead in Israel,
For that the people offered themselves willingly,
Praise ye the Lord."

The Place of the Sunday School

There is more to the church's training program than the training of leaders. These leaders, in turn, are to train others. The rank and file are to be led into a knowledge of the Word of God and into an understanding and experience of what it means to be a Christian and a member of Christ's Church. Through the years the church has developed a number of effective training agencies to bring its people into such an experience and relationship.

The largest and most inclusive of all of these agencies is the Sunday school. The purpose of the Sunday school is to instruct boys and girls and men and women in the Scriptures and in the Christian life so that they may yield themselves to that truth and enter into that way of life through faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord. When Sunday schools were originally started outside the church their purpose was primarily to instruct in spiritual and moral truths. But when the churches took it over, they put evangelistic purpose into the instruction program of the Sunday school and it became the greatest evangelistic instrument of Protestantism in the latter part of the nineteenth century and in the early part of the twentieth century. But with two World Wars, and the attendant conditions of materialism and secularism, there was a terrific decline in spiritual things, reaching even into the churches.

In these post-war days, we need once more to re-study the purpose for our Sunday schools and rededicate them once more to the church's original intent—instruction in Christian truth with a view to leading persons to accept Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord, and to enter into his way of living. To that end our Board of Christian Education and our Commission on Evangelism have developed a program known as "Strengthen the Sunday School," and have prepared guidance materials to enable our churches to make our Sunday schools effective evangelistic training units. Every congregation should be actively engaged in this program.

Doctrinal Instruction

The two former branches of our denomination, from their beginnings, made provision for catechetical instruction, especially for children and young people. In our new church this concern is carried over, and our Board of Christian Education is now in process of supervising the production of a new series of graded catechetical courses for junior children, intermediates, young people and adults. The adult book, "Our Church," is now available, and the intermediate and youth books are scheduled for use during the Lenten season, 1949. Catechetical instruction is the method whereby a basic foundation for faith is imparted in a systematic way, so that the individual's belief is consistent and coherent. It works for stronger and more abiding loyalty to Christian truth and for depth in spiritual experience. We believe that all of our ministers, with the loyal co-operation of all our congregations, ought to make provision for this kind of training during 1949 so that every man, woman and child will have opportunity to be instructed in the cardinal doctrines of our faith and be able to give a reason for the faith they possess.

We have already referred to the importance of "learning by doing." Whether those who launched the age-level organizations of our church, with their programs of worship, instruction, service and fellowship, actually knew that they were thus making provision for such "learning by doing" we cannot say. But if they did not, they built far better then they knew. For that is exactly the chief training value of the youth fellowships, the brotherhoods, the Women's Societies of World Service and the children's activities that are organized. We need to see these as vital parts of the church's program of united action, and not as separate and unrelated agencies that a local church may have, or not have, as it wishes. These are the denominationally approved and adopted means whereby childhood, youth and adulthood are to be led in co-operative Christian action to "do the work of ministering." The year 1949 should be given to the introduction of these activities into churches that do not yet have them, and to the strengthening of them where they already exist. They should be more than just stated meetings. They should be Christian activities media.

Our Colleges and Seminaries

Beyond the local church training program and its promotion through Annual Conference and general church agencies, the Evangelical United Brethren Church has institutions of Christian higher education which were launched and are maintained for the avowed purpose of preparing a trained Christian leadership for church, community, nation and the world. Definite advance can be made in this important area of training also as these schools give themselves more and more to this basic purpose which is today almost their sole reason for continued existence. And the church that brought them into being must support them with prayer and money and students, so that they can train our ministers, missionaries, teachers, and other professional and vocational workers for Christian leadership. This year of training should see the strengthening of this support all along the line.

"Workmen Who Have No Need to Be Ashamed"

In the early church St. Paul knew the value of careful preparation and trained leadership. The same reasons that prompted him to write to young Timothy are basic to the training work of the Church today: "Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a workman who has no need to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth." (2 Tim. 2:15).

As I Saw the World Council of Churches Assembly in Amsterdam

By Walter N. Roberts, Ph.D.
President, Bonebrake Theological Seminary, Dayton, Ohio

"We bless God our Father, and our Saviour Jesus Christ who gathers together in one the children of God that are scattered abroad. He has brought us here together at Amsterdam. We are one in acknowledging him as God and Saviour." These are the opening words of the Message of Amsterdam, formulated by what some have called "the most widely representative church gathering in 1,900 years of church history." August 22, 1948, to September 4, 1948, the first General Assembly of the World Council of Churches was held. It is the purpose of this article to indicate some of the major impressions of Amsterdam, as I saw them.

The most important thing about Amsterdam is the fact that it has happened. Repeatedly it was said, "God has brought us together. . . . We intend to stay together." The fact that 147 denominations from 44 countries can come together and organize a World Council of Churches is a miracle. I mean exactly what I say. A miracle is a work of God. This achievement is a work of God.

The second impression is that of unity in diversity. It was not a forced unity, nor was it a uniformity. It was unity in diversity. The Church is the Body of Christ. The Body is made of many members and all these members are different. The Body of Christ, the Church, is made up of many denominations, and they are different. The Head of the Body is Christ. As he is lifted up and as we are drawn nearer to him we are brought closer to each other. The differences of race, of nation, of church history and practice, of theology at Amsterdam as found in 147 denominations were far greater than we ever imagined. Yet there was an amazing sense of oneness. "God has brought us together. We belong to each other because we belong to Christ." In two weeks time I never heard an unkind word spoken nor a disrespectful attitude shown toward any church, of any size, from any country. Here was unity in diversity.

Amsterdam Built a Bridge

The Church in each continent lives on a lonely island. We don't understand each other. Take, for instance, the field of theology. We in America don't understand the churches on the continent of Europe, nor Asia, nor Africa, but they don't understand us. Dr. Henry P. Van Dusen, the chairman of the Study Commission, reported that the churches in one country are amazingly ignorant of the religious outlook and thelogy in another country.

That same fact is true of economics. Eastern Europe is communistic. Western Europe is socialistic. In America we have restricted capitalism. The churches of Europe, Asia and Africa reject communism. They also deny unrestricted capitalism. They are trying to find a middle ground, a combination of freedom and justice. We don't understand them and they don't understand us. Amsterdam built a bridge. We are going to come together with these people and we are going to talk things over until we understand each other's points of view.

Amsterdam had a high view of Jesus Christ. The denominations came together to organize a World Council on the basis of accepting Jesus Christ as God and Saviour. There was a theological seriousness at Amsterdam. It was not a vague and nebulous spirit of good-will like that which brings a bunch of good fellows to a noon-tide club. We share a common faith about God, about Christ, about the Holy Spirit at work in the Church. Ours was not a "watered-down" theology reduced to the least common denominator. We met on the high level of sincere and great convictions, with a supreme loyalty to Jesus Christ, the Head of the Church.

The World Council is evangelistic and missionary. It is to work hand-in-hand with the International Missionary Council. Even the letterheads of these two organizations will be mutual in recognizing the other. Thus: "The World Council of Church in Conjunction with the International Missionary Council" or "The International Missionary Council in Conjunction with the World Council of Churches."

One of the secretaries of the World Council will be a secretary of evangelism. His office will be a clearing house for the exchange of methods and inspiration. It brought joy to us to know of a great evangelistic movement on in Italy, in Germany and in Hungary. The World Council is evangelistic and missionary.

The World Council is a council of churches. It is not a super-church. It is not an attempt to Romanize Protestantism. It is a council of churches. It wields no autocratic power over an individual denomination. It has such power as shall be given to it by the member denominations. It will carry on those tasks which can best be done co-operatively as requested by the member churches of the World Council.

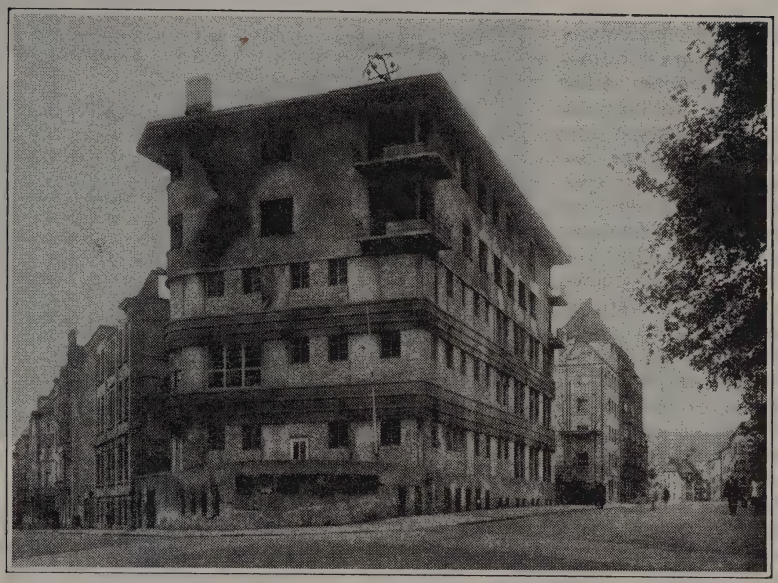

The ecumenical movement has now become the affair of all the churches. No longer is it the project of a few "ecumeniacs." It is in the hands of the churches.

The publishing house of our church in Stuttgart, Germany, was partially destroyed by bombs and completely gutted by fire. Several floors have now been restored for use.

As I Saw Our Work in Europe

By Harold R. Heininger, Ph.D.
President Evangelical Theological Seminary, Naperville, Ill.

IN the Year Book of the Evangelical United Brethren Church reference to our work in Europe appears in the roster of "Ministers in Conferences Abroad." To most readers this is merely a catalog of strange names and addresses. A visitation tour of a small portion of our work in Europe, spending only a few days in contact with persons and situations and projects, personalizes the statistics, and the names and addresses printed call to mind and bring to focus pictures of people now known personally.

The report of the statistician usually majors in reports from the conferences in the United States and Canada in such statements as "a total membership in North America, 705,102." Then there is added, "We have 30,984 members in our mission fields abroad." A visit to some of our churches and institutions in Germany and Switzerland gives opportunity to become personally acquainted with members of our fellowship in these lands. And so the Year Book comes to life.

Switzerland

Switzerland is clean, prosperous, and looks like the pictures promise it to look. No dirt, rubbish, or debris, but flower boxes at the windows, and the streets neat and electrified train travel smokeless. At the airport in Zurich the American visitors were met by Superintendent F. S. Schaer and former Publisher F. Gloor of Bern. The latter will be remembered as the delegate at the recent General Conference in Johnstown, Pa., representing his conference and the work of our church in Europe. After luncheon in the heart of the city of Zurich the group journeyed to Aarau, where a representative group of our ministers of the Switzerland Conference met for consultation and fellowship. Bishop John S. Stamm acted as interpreter. Bishop A. R. Clippinger and the other American visitors spoke briefly and a period of questions and answers was fruitful. Sunday, August 15, found the American Evangelical United Brethren delegates speaking in various churches in near-by towns and cities. In Basel it was my privilege to preach at our Tabor Church where Brother P. Jaggi is our pastor. Mrs. M. A. Blattner, a teacher of English, interpreted. The parents of Miss Hedi Schneider, who is a student at Otterbein College, attend this church.

Students in our Reutlingen Seminary

The hospitality of the Bethesda Deaconess Hospital in Basel, of which Rev. S. F. Müller is directer, was enjoyed. Here is a high grade modern hospital built shortly before the war with 271 hospital beds and the best equipment, served by 75 deaconesses, kept spotlessly clean and efficiently managed under the direction of Inspector Ernest Kuhn and Oberschwester Elsie Gerber.

A union service in Zurich Sunday night brought together at our Friedenskirche a sizeable congregation. Rev. E. Hartmann is the pastor. Superintendent Schaer was in charge and the music by the choir added much to the worship. Here Christian fellowship with Christians of our church in Switzerland became real.

Germany

Frankfurt: The flight from Zurich, Switzerland, to Frankfurt in Germany by Scandinavian plane took us over Stuttgart and Heidelberg to the famous Rhein-Main airport, publicized because from it the air-transport makes its regular trips to Berlin in "Operation Victuals," carrying vital food stuffs and supplies to the city. Superintendent E. Pieper, president of our church in Germany, whose residence is in Berlin, Rev. M. Mürle of Stuttgart, and Chaplain Carl F. Gunther, Central Pa. Conference (Ev), and his assistant on the staff of Chaplains in Frankfurt, Sergeant Vincent Butler, Michigan Conference (Ev), met us at the airport. Revs. Meinicke and H. Mistele, pastors of two of our churches in Frankfort, showed us the ruins of the church buildings and the progress made in the clean-up of the rubble since last summer when Bishops Stamm and Epp had visited Frankfurt. We also shared plans for replacement of these buildings and reconstruction. In one case a wooden chapel is to be built and in the other the church is to be rebuilt. In the midst of the devastation caused by war these leaders of the fellowship of our church in Germany minister to the needs of a disillusioned and discouraged people and plan for the future with faith.

Stuttgart: In Stuttgart we were cordially received by Inspector Karl Leonhardt and Oberschwester Karoline Haid at our Bethesda hospital. This hospital has continued its healing ministry in the midst of the war-stricken city of Stuttgart, like an island of mercy providentially spared from the waves of destruction all about. Equipped with 140 hospital beds and served by 85 deaconesses as nurses and helpers it has survived the 52 bombings of the city (although the nurses' home was destroyed by fire and has now been replaced by a new building). The thrilling story of the discovery of the cave at the rear of the hospital unit on the level of the second floor which was an abandoned stone quarry, and the use of the cavern as an emergency bomb-shelter and hospital for the patients of Bethesda constitutes one of the chapters in the story of the war which the newspapers missed.

There are 650 deaconesses in Germany in the work of the Evangelical United Brethren Church who render the distinctive type of service which consecrated womanhood renders Christ and needy humanity. They are "angels of mercy" touched by the power of Christ, the Great Physician. The evening service, which attracted 2,000 of our people, held in the established church building in Stuttgart, was addressed by Bishops Clippinger and Stamm and enriched by wonderful singing by the large choir and the Deaconess Chorus.

Reutlingen: August 18 was the date set for the opening of the academic year at the Evangelical Theological Seminary in Reutlingen, located in the French Zone. Dr. Johannes Schempp, the President of the Seminary, gave a helpful exposition of the scriptural admonition, "Redeem the Time." Dr. Reinhold Kuecklich, one of the members of the faculty, delivered the matriculation address, tracing in scholarly fashion the development in the New Testament of the ecumenical idea. Rev. K. Friederick addressed the students on behalf of the Board of Directors. Greetings were brought by the mayor of Reutlingen. Members of the group of American visitors spoke briefly. Eleven theological students were present, with five more expected who were delayed in coming. These young men, all of whom are veterans of the war, and are now in preparation to serve the Prince of Peace, show promise and should make a real contribution to the spiritual restoration of Germany through the ministry of the church.

A trip to Honau, where 30 old people reside in one of our homes for the aged, was followed by a visit to the site of our church in Reutlingen, where Conference Superintendent R. Leger and his family resided formerly. The church was utterly destroyed by bombing and fire and the Legers now live in the Seminary building. A new wooden church building is in process of construction near-by. This day of blessing was crowned by a service of worship conducted in the large Christuskirche of the established church in Germany, with 2,000 of our people crowding the building to capacity. The choir which filled the balcony brought uplift and inspiration through their music. Dr. Schempp presided with dignity at the great organ. The bishops brought greetings from America and presented a Gospel message.

Upon our return to Stuttgart we visited our Friedenskirche in Connstatt which is being rebuilt, our Publishing House, which is now in operation again, and the Relief Center in Stuttgart. The system being developed for dispensing food products, clothing and materials to our people was inspected under the direction of Mr. S. Blattert, one of our laymen who is giving time and energy to this important project in co-operation with our European Recovery Committee, composed of six German leaders and one from the Switzerland Conference, with Rev. R. Leger, Reutlingen, as chairman. This committee has projected a self-help program which includes the processing of raw-materials in German factories and by German craftsmen in order to give employment and to reduce the cost of shipping long distances overseas. This agency of relief of our church is in a position to multiply the purchasing power of American gifts of money toward this constructive recovery program. Gifts may be channeled through the Dayton, Ohio, headquarters of the Board of Missions.

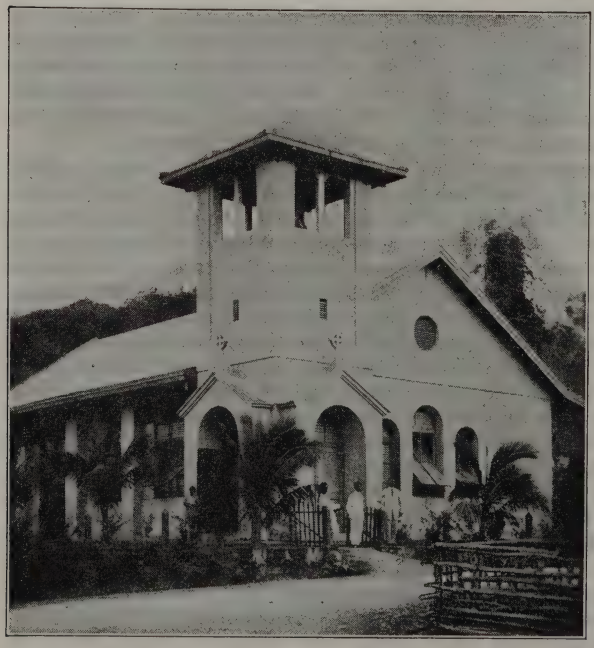

It is good to read accounts from the West Germany Conference which show a net gain of 841 members in the year, and from the South Germany Conference, which indicate a growth in membership of 815. It is good to read of the evangelistic and missionary concern which takes the Gospel to the 360 men now living in underground bunkers in Stuttgart where some of these disillusioned men have lived for two years. But contact through an actual visit to some of our work in Europe transforms a rubric in the statistical blank and a mere roster of names and addresses of ministers abroad into a living fellowship. These statistics represent persons. The Christian service motive demonstrated by these leaders of our work in Europe often under very trying circumstances constitutes their credentials.

As I Saw Our Work in the Orient

By Samuel G. Ziegler, D.D.
Associate Secretary, Department of World Missions

THERE is no denying the unity and oneness of the Church. It may not be as evident as we wish, and it may not be as forceful as it should be; nevertheless wherever Bishop Dennis and I met with Christians in the Orient, irrespective of race or nationality, we found a fellowship which transcended all racial and national differences. We were ignorant of their customs, we could not understand their language, yet, whenever we were among Christians we felt at home. One Japanese pastor said, "We feel closer to you who are Christians." Whether we recognize it or not, God's Spirit is at work in the world, redeeming and creating the witnessing body of our Lord into a community of believers which shall some day encompass the earth. It may be after a series of refining processes, the end of which is not yet, but the ultimate goal is a new heaven and a new earth wherein dwelleth righteousness. We saw this process at work in each mission field we visited and rejoice that our Church has had a part in bringing it to pass.

In China we found a spirit of hopelessness among many of the people. They had gone through eight years of war. Their physical losses were tremendous. Their government was weak and corrupt. Their money was worthless. Their country was threatened by a strong and dangerous foe. What hope was there for the future? A sort of resignation to fate prevailed in some quarters. While this attitude was evident among certain groups, we never found it among the Church. The Christians were hopeful. At times they seemed overwhelmed with the tremendous task and responsibility which they carried, but they kept their faith in God and made plans for the future. It was refreshing to sit in counsel with them and to catch their spirit and vision. The future program outlined by the Conference in Central China and by the synod in South China would do honor to any one of our conferences in the States.

Our church at San Fernando, La Union, headquarters of our work in the Philippines. This church was partially destroyed during the war, but has been re-roofed and is now being used for worship services.

The Central China Conference included all those agencies considered essential for the normal growth and expansion of the Church in its program of advance. They considered, (1) a conference-wide spiritual revival, (2) the restoration of Sunday-school and youth work, (3) the physical rehabilitation of church property, (4) a twenty-five per cent increase in Church membership, (5) the recruiting of ministerial and lay workers, (6) the production of suitable literature in all departments of church life, (7) the intensification of their evangelistic efforts, (8) an earnest effort to attain a larger share of self-support. One of the Chinese leaders of the Kwangtung Synod said, "No one can ignore the urgent need of material rehabilitation. Spiritual revival is the important fundamental principle for giving new life to weary souls. We need the spirit of the prophet Nehemiah, his courage for carrying on the great task of rebuilding the Church. Therefore, we shall arise and build our Church." With such a spirit among our fellow Chinese Christians we can be certain that as the Church survived the war so it will survive the enemies which now threaten it.

WE found a different situation in the Philippines. In spite of their war losses they were hopeful. They had received their political independence, so were like young men on a new quest. This progressive spirit was evident in the Church also. They were driven by an urge to do things. They felt that they must make haste because of the circumstances which surrounded them. The Roman Catholic Church is strong and well organized. There are evidences which indicate that it is seeking to control education and dominate the schools. In order to prevent this, the evangelical forces are adventuring in the field of evangelism and education far beyond what their present force in manpower and finances would warrant. They say the present situation calls for such action. It is possible that they may be right. There have been times in the history of the Church when men did exploits.

The Church in the Philippines is exceedingly evangelistic. The first year after the war they report the winning of more than 1,100 converts and the organizing of ten new churches. The second year the converts numbered approximately 1,500. There is also a strong spirit of unity. The first week we were in the Islands we spent four days in Manila attending conferences which resulted in the organization of a Council of Churches for the Islands and the formation of a plan for Church Union. Several months later this plan for union was brought to full fruition in the creation of the United Church of Christ in the Philippines. Having suffered together in war they learned they could live together in a United Church.

THE Church in Japan is chastened and humbled. Many of their church buildings were destroyed. Their parsonages and homes are in ruins. What church buildings remain standing are without heat. Want abounds everywhere. The very clothes which pastors and people wore came from relief packages. But in spite of their poverty there was something glorious about them. They were like gold tried in the fire. They had learned, like many others, that man is as grass, "the grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the word of our God shall stand forever." In that word they have taken refuge.

It meant a great deal to the Japanese Church to have us visit them. The fact that the home Church had sent special representatives to carry greetings and to counsel with them relative to the work warmed their hearts greatly.

Council of Administration

DUTIES of the General Council of Administration, as authorized by the General Conference, include the following:

(1) To receive from each of the several societies, boards and institutions of the church a copy of the Treasurer's and Auditor's reports, with such additional information as the General Council may request;

(2) To receive from each beneficiary institution a statement of the financial status and current needs of such institution;

(3) To determine during the quadrennium the validity of, and grant authorization for, any campaigns for special gifts by societies, boards, or agencies;

(4) To present to the General Conference a statement of the total financial needs of the denomination, and outline of the Unified Budget, with recommendations concerning appropriations, quotas and apportionments, and plans to strengthen the financial policy and total program of the denomination.

Seeking to carry out these mandates of the General Conference, the Council will be in the process of making surveys during the year of 1949 as a basis for preparing recommendations to be submitted to the General Conference in 1950. These surveys will be related to the work of our annual conferences, general departments and institutions.

In keeping with the quadrennial theme, FORWARD TOGETHER WITH CHRIST, the emphasis for the church year of 1949-1950 will be as follows:

Theme: Forward Together with Christ in Training.

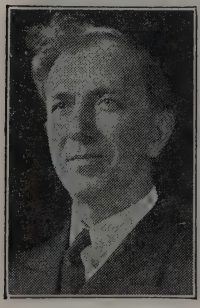

Scripture Text: 2 Timothy 2:15—"Study (be diligent) to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Aim: To inspire ministers and laymen to adequately prepare themselves in mind and spirit for the challenging tasks of the Kingdom.

Objectives:

1. To enlist an adequate number of teachers in local, community, and conference training classes in leadership education.

2. To seek the realization of a 20 per cent increased enrollment and average attendance in our Sunday schools.

D. T. Gregory, D.D.,
Executive Secretary

3. To foster and expand our youth work through an effective youth program in every local church.

4. To enroll at least one student for every local church in one of our colleges, making a net increase of at least 25 per cent in attendance at each college.

5. To increase the attendance in our seminaries to a total of 300.

6. To enlist at least 150 new life work recruits for the Christian ministry and missions.

Publishing Interests

The Otterbein Press

GOD has blessed us with another fine year at the Otterbein Press. It has been a busy year as indicated by the fact that our volume of business shows a material increase in every department.

Our two publishing houses have worked very closely together in serving our conferences, churches and church schools with papers, literature and supplies. The publishing house representative to the conferences spoke in behalf of the common interests of both publishing houses. In working together our publishing houses have supported and strengthened each other. We have not only helped each other but we have learned from each other. It has been a pleasure to work out co-operative policies and arrangements with our co-publisher, Dr. Roy H. Stetler.

Sunday School Literature. The first and foremost service of the Otterbein Press to the Church is in the field of Sunday School Literature. From a survey made this last summer we find that there are 4,481 Sunday schools in our Church. Of these, 4,429 order at least a portion of our Sunday School Literature. Other literature is ordered through our publishing house by 143 schools. This is a fine record. However, there are a few schools that need to be impressed with the value to the entire Church program in using our own literature. We find that 2,514 schools use only Uniform Lesson materials; 2,013 of our schools are using our Cycle Graded materials in the children's groups. Our Sunday school people speak very highly of our educational materials and we give full credit to our fine corps of editors. Our Sunday schools are the great recruiting and training agency of the Church. It is our duty to furnish them with the best in equipment for their great task.

Dr. L. L. Huffman, Publisher, of Otterbein Press (standing), confers with Dr. Roy H. Stetler, Publisher, of the Evangelical Press (seated)

The Book Store and Visual Aids. Our Book Store and Mail Order Department has been growing rapidly in the past few years.

We are in the process of arranging new offices to make way for an enlarged Book Store and Mail Order quarters. Our Book Stores under joint policy and management are co-operating to give the Church the best possible service in religious supplies and materials.

Our Audio Visual Aids Department is new but is growing. We have many expressions of appreciation for the service rendered by this new department. Audio Visual Aids have proven to be one of the sharp tools in the field of educational evangelism, stewardship and missions.

The Evangelical Press

THE Board of Publication of the Evangelical United Brethren Church authorized the Publishing House at Dayton, Ohio, and the one at Harrisburg, Pa., to change their fiscal year so that both coincide. It was, agreed, therefore, to have both start with October 1 and end with September 30. The few figures and facts which we are enumerating are based on our closing as of September 30, 1948. At that time we had 43,500 subscribers to The Telescope-Messenger and 85,000 subscribers to Builders.

We do not feel that the present list of subscribers to The Telescope-Messenger measures up to the possibilities of our larger denomination. More people ought to be reading our Church paper. We have endeavored to project a more strenuous campaign for subscriptions to our Church paper and the response from our ministers has been very gratifying. We know that it will take some time for some of our readers to get acclimated to the merged Church, but those who have really begun to read the papers report very favorable reactions. We are hopeful that The Telescope-Messenger will continue to increase as the days go by. The more readers we can get the better informed will be our constituency. We, therefore, sincerely solicit a greater interest in this important field.

We are quite pleased with the subscription list of Builders. It is growing and we believe it possible to reach 100,000.

For your information, both of these publications, The Telescope-Messenger and Builders, are produced at a financial loss to the house.

More and more the two publishing houses have unified their policies and we are encouraging our people to buy their Church supplies from either one of the two publishing houses. We have but one ambition and that is to efficiently serve the Church and give our very best efforts to the work of the Kingdom.

In the thirteen-month period, the fiscal year of 1948, as compared with the fiscal year 1947, our total volume of sales increased $310,000.00.

We have constructed a warehouse on a railroad siding not far from our building which will expedite our work. This will give us additional storage space of 13,500 square feet.

Our offices have been renovated. Nothing has been done to the offices since the dedication of the building thirty years ago. These have been modernized and we invite our friends to come in and see us. In fact we are always glad when friends from far and near in the Church visit our plant.

Our Bookstore Department has enjoyed a successful year. More and more the church has come to look upon our Bookstore Department as the place to buy all kinds of church supplies. Those who have never had an opportunity of visiting this department will be amazed to see that it is one of the most modern religious bookstores in the United States.

The Board of Publication at its last meeting again authorized the payment of $40,000.00 to the Pension Board and $20,000.00 to the Annual Conferences for the support of retired ministers and the widows of ministers of the church.

Board of Pensions

By Dr. A. H. Doescher

MORE than one thousand checks are mailed from the office of the Board of Pensions on the first day of each quarter. These checks total $300,000.00 each year. They bring unmeasured happiness and cheer to the beneficiaries of the various departments of the Board of Pensions. No money which the Church contributes goes farther and does more good than the pension dollar. The Board of Pensions is charged by the Evangelical United Brethren Church with the responsibility of gathering the necessary funds together for this worthwhile Christian enterprise in order that these splendid veterans of the Cross may have some means of support in the sunset years of their lives.

Where does this money come from?

1. It comes first of all from the offerings which Evangelical United Brethren churches receive on Pioneer Day. Each former Evangelical church is asked to raise an amount equal to four per cent of the salary which is paid to the pastor who serves it. All former United Brethren churches are asked by the General Conference to contribute an amount equal to three per cent of the pastoral salary. Most churches include this apportionment in their budget, thus being sure that the obligation can be paid on time. The offering received on Pioneer Day applies on this apportionment. Many congregations contribute more than the apportionment. Pioneer Day should be observed by all churches on or about the third Sunday in January as fixed by the General Conference.

2. The second source of income which helps meet the pension obligations is the dues and premiums paid by the ministers who are members of the various departments of the Board. The minister's contribution provides about one-fifth of the benefits. In the new reserve plan which all newly ordained ministers now join, the percentage of the minister's contributions is higher. Thus the pastor helps very materially in providing his own pension.

3. The third main source of income of the Board of Pensions is that which is earned on the investments of the various departments. The total assets of the Board are now in excess of three and one-half million dollars. The income on the total funds (including endowments) of the Ministerial Pension and Annuity Plan (UB) last year was about $40,000.00 Since the pension load of this department is now more than $100,000.00 per year, it is obvious that other sources of income are necessary. This total income includes that earned on the ministers' funds as well as the Church service fund. The income on the investments of the Superannuation Plan and other departments, brought into the Union by the Evangelical Church, were $78,000.00 last year. The pension load of the Superannuation Plan alone is over $200,000.00 Thus the invested funds do not provide sufficient income to pay the pension load, but they are a great help. It must be remembered that the pension payments will increase in both old plans for some years to come.

A. H. Doescher, D.D.
Executive Secretary-Treasurer

4. Another important source of income of the Board of Pensions is the allocation from the General Budget. The

J. H. Ness, D.D.
Associate Secretary

Council of Administration, which gathers the funds from the Annual Conferences, which in turn collect them from the local churches, gives the Board $74,000.00 per year. Out of this total the Ministerial Pension and Annuity Plan (UB) receives $55,000.00, while the Superannuation Plan receives $19,000.00 However, the latter plan receives an annual grant of $40,000.00 from the Evangelical Press. These contributions and grants have been a God-send to the Board. Without them the work would be greatly curtailed and benefits much lower.

5. In listing the sources of income we include other important ones. There are special gifts by interested donors. Some of these are small and others quite large. The total is impressive. Bequests are another source. Many members of the Evangelical United Brethren Church remember this cause in their will. Many more should do so. Others make a gift to the department in which they have special interest on the annuity agreement basis. Thus an interested layman will give $1,000.00 to the Board of Pensions and the Board agrees to pay the donor a fixed interest or income as long as the donor and his beneficiary live. This is an excellent way to enjoy financial security and yet make a gift to one of the important organizations of the Church.

Information concerning the work of the Board of Pensions can be secured by writing to Dr. A. H. Doescher, Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Board of Pensions, 1800 U. B. Building, Dayton 2, Ohio.

Next General Conference— Nov. 17-25, 1950 Columbus, Ohio

The Evangelical United Brethren Church was the recipient in 1948 of two large gifts:

(1) A hospital and nurses' home at Espanola, New Mexico, largely made possible through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur N. Pack;

(2) $400,000 for a new chapel-auditorium at Otterbein College, Westerville, Ohio.

Further development will rest upon our willingness to be appreciative of and tolerant toward the old traditions of each former group, never yielding to the instinctive reaction that what is different is therefore wrong. Old policies and procedures must yield to warm, brotherly attitudes and give birth to Kingdom Advance. We must not cease our striving for high ideals of personal Christian living, of social, national, and even international welfare. Through all of these phases our new communion must play its part nobly in fulfilling the great commission to teach all nations the will of God and to live together in peace and goodwill on the high moral and spiritual basis as lived and taught by Christ, the Captain of our salvation. Let us renew our dedication and highly resolve to share his sufferings for anticipated victory.

Missions

DEPARTMENT OF WORLD MISSIONS

S. G. Zeigler, D.D.,
Associate Secretary

Carl Heinmiller, D.D.,
Executive Secretary

AGAINST a background of world distress and turmoil, the Christian Missionary Enterprise continues its perennial task of bringing the cleansing power of the Gospel of Christ to bear upon the sinfulness of our world. In spite of hindrances and discouragements, this ministry of Grace seeks to bring healing to the torn hearts of men and reconciliation to a divided world. It is well to remind ourselves constantly that the Missionary Enterprise is not a "fair weather" program. It was made for times of great moral and spiritual need in the life of mankind. In this program of redemption the Department of World Missions will continue to have a large and important share during the months ahead.

Our work in the united Church has greatly enlarged our Missionary responsibilities at home and abroad, also our opportunities for service in many areas of our world. This will require the enlistment of a larger measure of regular support for the established Missionary work of our denomination, in order to ensure the continuation of our ministry in this critical period of world history. Our denominational program of Missions is large enough and challenging enough to command the full loyalty and support of all of our people. Missionary giving which is diverted to projects outside our denominational sphere of activity endangers the continuation of our own outreach to our world, and limits our operations at a time when we ought to be at our best.

The list of our Missionary fields is an impressive one and is set down here to indicate the broad concern of our Church for the peoples of earth, and our responsibility for making the Gospel message effective in all of these areas of our operations.

Africa we are in the midst of large building programs which represent the growth of our work in those areas and our response to the enlarging opportunity for service. In our Red Bird Mission area we are reaching into new communities with a full program of preaching, teaching, and healing in the name of Christ. Everywhere our missionaries are at work with zeal and devotion, depending upon us to do our share also. The number of these consecrated workers totals 150 at present, with others urgently needed to complete our staffs in the various fields.

Here are great opportunities for working together with God in saving our world, and the Missionary concern of our Church through past years gives us strong hope that we will be able to do our part in presenting Jesus Christ in persuasive love to the hearts of men everywhere.

AS I SAW OUR WORK IN THE ORIENT

The day after our arrival, which was Sunday, we worshipped with the Mejiro congregation in Tokyo, Rev. K. Shinohara, pastor. The services were held in the former Mayer residence since all the mission's buildings on the compound had been demolished. It was a cold December morning. There was no heat in the building, yet nobody left the service even though it was more than two hours long, including the study of the Sunday-school lesson. In the afternoon we fellowshipped with the Koishikawa congregation. They were dedicating a new quonset hut chapel, the rear of which served as a parsonage for the pastor and his family. Many of the leading officials of the New United Church of Christ in Japan were present. The service was dignified throughout and very worshipful. More than 200 people crowded into the chapel during the course of the service. This was possible because the ushers divided the crowd which wished to get in into relays and had groups stay for a portion of the service. While such a building may not make an ideal church, it does appear like a little city of refuge when viewed amidst the wreck and ruin which surrounds it.

If the experiences of this one Sunday in Japan is typical of the whole Japanese Church then one need have no fear about the future of the Christian movement in Japan except the fear that the Church at home will not do what ought to be done now to encourage and help these struggling younger churches to reach their full stature in Christ.

DEPARTMENT OF CHURCH EXTENSION

U. P. Hovermale, D.D.,
Executive Secretary

Rev. Marlo N. Berger,
Associate Secretary

CORRELATION—During the past two years the Department of Church Extension has been fulfilling the commitments of our former Boards and working out new policies for unifying and correlating our program for the most efficient promotion of the services committed to the Department. Much progress also has been made in the organization of Annual Conference Boards of Missions and relating them to the General Department for aiding in meeting the extension needs in our fifty-one annual conferences.

Missionary Objective—One of the major concerns of the Department in its co-operative relationship with Annual Conference Boards of Missions is that of not losing sight of the missionary objectives of our program. Back of all church building projects is the missionary purpose—the establishing of the church in new and unchurched areas, the exploring of new frontiers and the relating of the church's program in its wider relationships both in the conference and its world outreach.

Church Extension Day—As provided by the General Conference, Church Extension Day is to be observed the last Sunday in November, as a means of informing our membership and leaders of the important place the Department holds in the life of the annual conferences and in our denomination. An eight-page illustrated folder, setting forth in outline the purpose, program, and service of the Department has been prepared for distribution throughout our church membership.

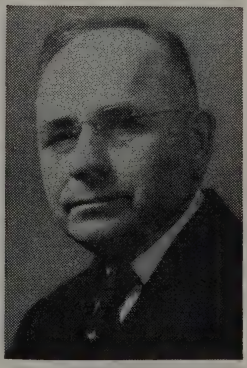

Financial Assistance—To the extent that our resources have allowed, and where mission projects could not have been completed without outside help, the Department has co-operated. Approximately one-fifth of the pastors of our denomination were given missionary support during the year, totaling $325,000, of which $130,000 was appropriated by the General Department of Church Extension. Grants were made to twenty-seven church and parsonage building projects totaling $115,000; loans were issued to forty building and financing projects totaling $357,000.

Bureau of Architecture—During the year the services of the Bureau have reached eighty-three congregations of our church. This included counsels with local and conference committees on matters of sites, types of architecture, financing, campaigns, surveys and other related items regarding new building and remodeling projects. We have not always been careful in the past in planning our church buildings. Most of our churches were built with meager resources, with little regard for beauty and churchliness, and many times without carefully considering the worship, educational and social needs of the congregation and community.

S. B. Williams, D.D.,
Assistant Secretary

Rural Life—The Commission on Rural Life has now functioned one year with a full time director. Each of our forty-one annual conferences now has an organized Commission on Rural Life. Fourteen conferences conducted Rural Life Institutes. Our three seminaries held a Rural Conference during the year. Financial aid was given to twenty pastors to attend in-service training schools. Thirty-seven men attended the National Convocation. The quarterly news sheet, "Our Church in Town and Country," has gone to all pastors.

B. H. Cain, D.D.,

Opportunities Ahead—As we view the present situation and face the future needs for missionary expansion within the bounds of our annual conferences, many new fields are open to us. Unless aid is given from outside sources, many of these opportunities will be closed to our church. Most of the denominations have provided a large share in their post-war program budgets for Church Extension, recognizing the urgency of a new advance to strengthen the areas of their own denominational life. Such a program must be expanded in our own communion if we are to justify our place and purpose among the various denominations.

Special Mission Fields—The Department administered the work of our mission fields in New Mexico, the South District of our Kentucky Mission and our Latin Mission, Ybor City, Tampa, Florida. Our program of ministering, teaching and healing in these fields is being carried on with a missionary staff totaling seventy-one workers. The expansion program to provide more adequate building facilities continues to make progress as funds are made available. The new hospital at Espanola, New Mexico, gift of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur N. Pack, was dedicated at a cost of $385,000. In all these fields many areas have not yet been reached and opportunities await our response.

Interdenominational Co-operation—Affiliation of the Department with the Home Missions Council and other interdenominational agencies gives the Department membership in the Church Building Committee of the Council, representing some twenty Church Extension Boards, the Town and County Committee and others. The Department shared in some twenty different missionary projects. This interdenomination co-operation gives opportunity to relate our own denominational program to the co-operative task of making our own nation Christian and in strengthening the Church for its world-wide mission.

Women's Society of World Service

By Janet Gilbert

Janet Gilbert, D. Hum.

Marion Baker, Associate Secretary and Secretary of Young People's Work

CHALLENGED by our theme, "We Press On in a Fellowship of Love and Service," the Women's Society of World Service has been going forward. In membership we have reached the 100,000 mark. Even so, we are not content and are pressing on for there are many women in our Church who as yet have not been enlisted. The total of local units is 3,007, an increasing number of which are following the unified plan of organization.

On July 7, 1948, at Luccock Park, Montana, the two Montana Branches—Evangelical and United Brethren—became one branch, to be known as the Montana Conference Branch of the Women's Society of World Service. This was the first merger of branches and therefore the occasion was very significant. Other branches, looking forward to merger, are holding joint conventions and institutes, thus creating a fine spirit of fellowship.

Our financial response for the first full year of working together as a Women's Society of World Service is gratifying, the total amount received for all purposes being $763,154.65.

The largest amount came from the Thank Offering, which was $174,420.22, the next largest being the World Service Day offering of $111,678.08. We are hoping and working toward the end that the results of the second year's giving will exceed these figures. The work warrants our best gifts.

Great emphasis has been placed upon prayer as the best missionary method. More than 35,000 women are enrolled in the Fellowship of Prayer and approximately 200 are enrolled as intercessory missionaries. Approximately 64,000 are subscribers to the World Evangel, which we consider our best means of promotion and of furnishing up-to-date information. Study classes, the reading course and the monthly meeting in which the program packet is used always receive their due emphasis and help to lay a good foundation for all activity.

Mrs. Leora Nagel,
Secretary of Missionary Education

Miss Esther Clinton,
Secretary of Missionary Education for Children

Through our Christian Social Relations emphasis, many opportunities have been presented and accepted for putting "our love not into words or into talk, but into deeds." The hundreds of pounds of clothing and food sent to Japan, the Philippines and Europe, and the hundreds of sewing kits sent to Germany are symbolic of the interest of the women in this phase of loving service.

In our co-operation in Young People's Work, we have had as our purpose helping the Youth Fellowship fulfill its purpose and provide a well-rounded program with missions as a very definite part of that program. Reports of an increasing emphasis on missions as promoted by active Commissions on Missions on the local and conference levels are encouraging.

As always, the children of the Church have responded in a wonderful way to the program of missions. Emphasis has been placed on missionary education through special study projects. The financial response to these projects and other missionary instruction was amazing this first year —$99,304.28.

Miss Mary McLanachan, Editor, The World Evangel

Our hope is that out of our youth and children's groups will come young men and young women who will give themselves to full-time service on the mission field or to a wholehearted support of the world-wide program of the Church at home.

We rejoice in the opportunity which is ours to share in a program which helps to meet the world need. The task is tremendous but our Christ matches the hour. In his strength "We Press On."

Christian Education

THE work of Christian Education is making definite progress through the co-operation of the local church, Annual Conference and General Boards of Christian Education. During the first two years of our existence as a new denomination these boards have been thoroughly organized on the Annual Conference and General Church levels and the next step during 1949 will be to organize their work on the local church level. There is definite need for a clearer understanding of the relation of the Board of Christian Education to the Council of Administration and to the Sunday School Executive Council. The new Discipline provides for some regulations that differ from the practices in either the former United Brethren or Evangelical churches. The year 1949 should be a year of training in these matters.

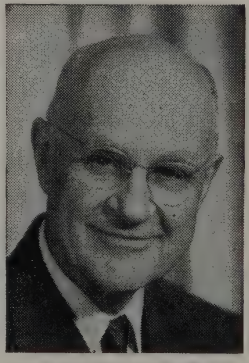

The program of Christian Education in our Church received a great impetus through the First General Youth Fellowship and Christian Education Convention which was held at Oakwood Park, Syracuse, Indiana, July 14-18, 1948. There were 870 registered delegates, one-half of whom were young people, and many additional visitors. The theme of this convention was: "Christ Leads—We Follow," and the spirit of this theme could be sensed throughout the entire program. This program was made up of guided personal devotions, planned worship services, Bible messages, inspirational addresses, Youth Fellowship Convention sessions, Administrative Conferences in Christian education, and 20 Planning-Training Conferences. These last dealt with every important phase of the total program of Christian Education and found expression in definite recommendations to the General Board of Christian Education. Many of these were approved and incorporated in our total Christian education program for the future. Perhaps the outstanding and most immediate value of this great convention was that it served to acquaint us with one another and to hasten the unifying process that is now going forward in many ways.

Immediately following the General Convention the Biennial Meeting of the General Board was held and the entire program of Christian Education received thorough review, revision and enlargement to make it more effective in co-operating in the denomination-wide advances which purposes to go "Forward Together with Christ."

There are many important phases of the program of Christian Education and all are equally important, but some receive major attention at specific times in order to make them more effective. This year the work of Doctrinal or Catechetical Instruction is receiving such attention. Under the authorization of the General Conference the General Board of Christian Education is supervising the preparation of a new series of doctrinal manuals (catechisms) for use in the Evangelical United Brethren Church. As these books are ready, they are first approved by the Board of Bishops for doctrinal content, and then published by our Publishing Houses and sold through their book stores. The Adult Manual, "Our Church," is already available and is for use in church membership preparation. The plan is that

Reuben H. Mueller, D.D.,
Executive Secretary

O. T. Deever, D.D.,
Associate Secretary

the books for intermediates and for young people shall be ready for use during Lent, while the book for Juniors will not be ready until the fall of 1949.

Another outstanding fact about our Christian Education program is the splendid way in which the close co-operation with the Commission on Evangelism is working out on the general church level. More than 22,000 of the new members received into our denomination this past year came as the direct result of the work of our Sunday schools. Closer co-operation should be established in more Annual Conferences, and local churches should be led specifically to face their outreach task as a co-operative work of Christian education and evangelism.

Other significant developments have come in the Christian Education program, and they will be referred to in the following paragraphs dealing with departmental work.

A Year of Training

THE denominational emphasis for this new year is: "Forward Together with Christ in Training." Here is an emphasis in which the agencies of Christian Education can render unique service, not for the sake of these agencies, but as servants of all other departments of church life, and for the purpose of furthering our spiritual advance. Through leadership education for training lay leaders for the various agencies and departments of church life; through doctrinal classes to lay foundations in Christian truth for a living faith; through the Sunday schools, reaching over 675,000 individuals with Christian teaching, to prepare the soil for evangelism; through Youth Fellowships, Brotherhoods and other organized activities program to provide channels for united Christian action and service; and through our colleges and seminaries to prepare Christian leadership for church and community, national and world-wide; the forces of Christian Education can perform a basic service for the whole church during this year of training.

In this year two unusually important weeks offer opportunity for bringing our Christian Education program to the attention of all our people and for asking them for their united support. The first is Christian Family Week and will come May 1-8, 1949. The promotion for the observance of this week is in charge of our Departments of Adult and Children's Work and the General Commission on Christian Social Action is co-operating in this promotion. The other week is Christian Education Week and will come September 25 to October 2, 1949. It is for the purpose of stressing the importance of Christian training for everyone and receives general support throughout our countries. In fact, both of these weeks are promoted co-operatively by the interdenominational forces in the United States and Canada.

Christian Service Training

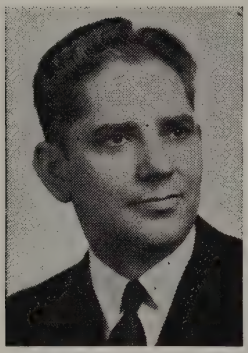

THE Department of Leadership Education administers the program of training for Christian Service through standard accredited classes, workers' conferences, directed reading courses, local church school libraries and summer camps, assemblies and institutes. The General Executive Secertary, Dr. Reuben H. Mueller, is responsible for the executive administration of this program, but the entire general staff is responsible also for the over-all promotion and for specific guidance within departments. This work channels down to Annual Conferences and local churches through their respective Directors of Leadership Education. The aim of this program is not to develop leaders who are so specialized that they fail to take the people along, but rather to train Christians for service in the name of Christ, through the church and in the community. During the past year almost 15,000 persons received such training under our auspices.

Christian Higher Education

THE Department of Christian Higher Education is under the direction of the Associate General Secretary, Dr. O. T. Deever. Under his capable leadership we transfererd approximately $100,000.00 in Ministerial Student Aid Funds to Bonebrake Seminary and the colleges of the former United Brethren Church, as authorized by action of the General Board. This move will enable our Board to actively promote Ministerial Student Aid for the entire united church and will tie it closer to the responsible institutions. We have also promoted the church-wide observance of College Day in February, Seminary Day in September, and Student Recognition Day in December, in order to stir up our churches to a recognition of their Christian responsibility for the young people who are training for leadership. This concern is not confined to our own church-related colleges but reaches out to tax-supported institutions where there are thousands of EUB young people in attendance, and is gradually being developed into a definite program of guidance through the General Board and the Annual Conferences.

CHURCH SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION

Ralph M. Holdeman, D.D.
Director of Church School Administration

THE Department of Church School Administration is directed by Dr. Ralph M. Holdeman. It comprises the work of Sunday-school administration, including guidance for officers; the educational direction of the use of audio-visual aids in the church's program; and the entire field of educational evangelism. Definite progress is being made in the first two areas, but chief attention is now being given to the last-named because of our denomination's quadrennial emphasis in evangelism. It finds expression in the work of this department in the "Strengthen the Sunday School" program. Excellent printed guidance materials have been developed and distributed, and where this program has been honestly tried it has always produced remarkable results. It is the aim of our Board that every congregation in the denomination shall be made active in this program of evangelistic outreach through our Sunday schools.

ADULT AND BROTHERHOOD WORK

THE Department of Adult and Brotherhood Work is directed by Dr. W. R. Montgomery. During this year an excellently prepared "Adult Program Guide" has been issued, giving instruction in all phases of the adult program. These include Young Adult Fellowships, Adult Christian Endeavor Leagues, Bible Classes, Brotherhoods, and co-operation with the agencies of organized women's work for our church. The Brotherhood is making exceptional progress in launching new local brotherhoods, in strengthening the Conference organizations, and in building up the general structure and program. It has rendered outstanding service in promoting the church-wide offering for relief and the Kingdom Advance Program on World Communion Sunday.

W. R. Montgomery, D.D., Director

THE LORD'S ACRE PLAN

Reasons for using this Plan in the rural church:

1. Where supplemental financial support is needed, crop, stock and handiwork projects, dedicated by young and old for the church, can be a great help in providing this support.

2. Supplemental food is needed to feed a hungry world. Added crop and stock projects, raised in the name of the Lord, will feed the hungry, blessing both those who are fed and those who produce this food.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK

J. Allan Ranck,
Director

THE Department of Young People's Work is directed by Rev. J. Allan Ranck. It includes the executive administration of the Youth Fellowship organization and program, the direction of summer service projects for young people, and co-operative responsibility with other departments for student Christian work, life work recruiting and summer camp and assembly planning. This year has seen the Youth Fellowship thoroughly organized and finally under way in all Conferences. The Convention at Oakwood Park was probably the high point of the year. This was followed by participation in the Christian Youth Conference of North America at Grand Rapids, Michigan, where we were represented with a strong delegation. The summer service projects sent 36 young people out to render Christian service under adult leadership in New Mexico, in Kentucky at Red Bird Mission, and at Flat Rock, Ohio, at the Children's Home. This program is destined to grow tremendously if ways and means can be found to carry it on. This year the Youth Fellowship raised a World Service Fund for missions amounting to more than $71,000.00.

CHILDREN'S WORK

Rachel Brant

THE Department of Children's Work is directed by Miss Rachel M. Brant. It comprises guidance for Vacation Church Schools, the Children's Departments of the Sunday Church School, the Junior League, junior camping and weekday classes in religion for children. This Department promotes the church-wide observance of Children's Day the second Sunday in June, and co-operates in the promotion of Christian Family Week. Unusually fine Children's Day materials were prepared and made available for use this past year. A splendid "Program Guide for Children's Work" was prepared and issued this year and gives direction for all phases of Children's Work in the local church.

THE BROTHERHOOD

By Torrey A. Kaatz, President

"MEN on the March" is the rallying call for the men of our Church for this quadrennium. Across our Church men have been answering the call and have done much to undergird and advance the total program of the Church. We are thankful for what has been done, but more and more of the over 300,000 men on our Church rolls are needed for active Christian service.

Torrey A. Kaatz

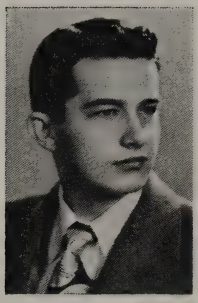

The special endeavor of raising $250,000 for Relief during the first two years of the quadrennium has gone over the top. Final reports are still coming in so the amount by which the goal has been exceeded is not yet available. Other projects will be announced soon.

The Brotherhoods are co-operating in the program of Evangelism. Many helpful materials on men's work are available at the Dayton office.

Pastors and laymen, if you have a local Brotherhood, keep it alive and growing. If you do not have a local Brotherhood, get one started at once. The Brotherhood is a strong arm of the Church—use it.

THE YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

By Harold Davidson, President

Harold Davidson

THE denominational Youth Fellowship Program is well under way after the joint meeting of the Youth Fellowship and the Board of Christian Education meeting held at Oakwood Park, Syracuse, Ind., in July, 1948.

The Oakwood meeting accomplished much in the promotion of Youth Fellowship and its objectives. It gave an opportunity for youth directors of the various conferences to meet and to discuss the fundamentals of Youth Fellowship and its relationship to our denomination.

The meeting also provided an excellent opportunity for the youth of our Church to become fully acquainted with the Youth Fellowship Program and to learn its significance to the local and conference Youth Fellowships.

A number of youth seminars were held which provided a good chance for discussion and for suggestions which will be presented to the Executive Council for study in shaping the program material of Youth Fellowship.

There is much in the new Youth Fellowship to challenge the best that is in our youth and the past year has given us ample opportunity in the promotion of youth work throughout the denomination.

WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES ASSEMBLY

The World Council of Churches is a living organization. Its central office is in Geneva with an office in London, one in New York, and there will likely be one office in the far east. It has five secretaries on its staff. Its concerns cover such fields as evangelism, faith and order, a study department, reconstruction and interchurch aid, international affairs, the ecumenical institute, prisoners of war, women's work, youth work, promotion and publicity, and finance and business. The ecumenical movement has become the affair of the churches.

A final impression I got at Amsterdam was the fact that it represented an emerging doctrine of the church. This is not a new doctrine. More wisely it should be called a revival of an old doctrine. This doctrine is found in the 12th chapter of 1 Corinthians: "For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For by one spirit we were all baptized into one body. . . . Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it" (1 Cor. 12:12, 13a, 27).

THE Church is the Body of Christ. A denomination is a member of that Body. The members of the body are not all alike but they are all important. There are not many churches in the world. There is one Church. The Church is one in Christ. Christian unity is not something which we create, but something which we discover. God creates unity in his Church as we give ourselves in complete allegiance to the Head of the Church. The Church is one, because we in the Church share a common faith. If we are in Christ, then all who are in Christ belong to each other and to him who is the Head of the Church. All who are in Christ are a community of Christian life and thought. This is the "koinonia"; this is the Christian fellowship; this is the Church.

As we express the unity which God has given us, that unity is increased. Like those who became aware of their Lord in the breaking of bread so we become aware of the "Una Sancta," the one Holy Universal Church, as we in Christian fellowship and service express the unity God has given.

This final word, I thank God for what he has done in leading his Church to Amsterdam and at Amsterdam. Here is my most solemn conclusion: this is the work of God. I rejoice and thank him for it! We were on holy ground.

THE GENERAL COMMISSION ON EVANGELISM

By Dr. O. T. Deever, Executive Secretary of Evangelism

THIS second yearly resume of the work of evangelism in the Evangelical United Brethren Church is presented amidst encouraging signs of an evangelistic awakening. In the two years that have elapsed since church union, definite trends have developed in the life of our beloved church. It is now clear that our church is committed positively and aggressively to evangelism as its major task. We are not letting down in the evangelistic emphasis which we have inherited, but are taking advance steps.

One year ago the statistical report in the Year Book showed that in our first year the united church received 44,296 members. This is 6,495 more than both churches together received on an average during the four years preceding church union. In 1947, 37,877 persons were converted at our altars. This is 6,085 more than both denominations had at their altars on an average during the four years preceding church union. There are other indications that our first year was one of hope and progress.

At this writing, we do not have the figures to give an accurate account of the second year of church union. Unofficial reports from many sources give reason to believe that we exceeded last year's successes. We are definitely headed toward winning seventy-five thousand souls to Christ and the church in the new year that lies ahead. If we keep humble, continue in earnest prayer, and redouble our efforts, we will succeed. It is to be devoutly hoped that this will be the case.

Our Laymen and Evangelism

At this writing the Laymen's Evangelism Rallies of the denomination are on. To date, fifty-eight of a projected one hundred sixty rallies have been held, with an attendance of between thirteen and fourteen thousand. If this rate continues, we will reach at least forty thousand persons in these one-night rallies. The average attendance of the rallies so far has been close to two hundred fifty. The greatest attendance of which we have record was at Bismarck, North Dakota, with an attendance of six hundred strong. The Indiana Rallies ran between four and five hundred, with an average of over three hundred. The offerings to support these rallies have been most encouraging.

These Laymen's Rallies are in line with the plans of the denomination to place responsibility for evangelism upon the laymen of the church as well as upon the ministry, indicated in three different ways:

1. By provision for a committee of laymen on evangelism in each local church, with responsibility for setting up a year-round program.

2. Every group in the local church is to be included in the membership of this local committee.

3. The laymen of the church are being enlisted as per Discipline in "definite and fervent prayer for the undergirding of the total program of evangelism throughout the church."

4. The Discipline calls for "enlisting and training of laymen for visitation in the interest of greater church loyalty and regular attendance and to secure decisions for Christ and the church."

A Year-Round Effort

A progressive gardener seeks the ever-bearing variety of fruit. There is no Biblical support for conducting evangelism at one season of the year only, and then forgetting it the rest of the year. Evangelism is a war, not a battle. Evangelism must be the undergirding motive and ultimate objective of every activity of the local church. The program should be planned a year in advance, with an orderly sequence, and should include every type and method of evangelism. It should include the revival, Sunday-school evangelism, visitation evangelism, catechetical and training classes, youth evangelism, evangelism through the Brotherhood, and still other methods. It is an on-going and continuous program.

The Revival Meeting

It is unfortunate that many local churches have lost faith in the time-honored revival meeting. While those who are not Christians may not attend the revival meetings as they once did, the need for night after night sledge-like blows at sin and earnest presentation of the good news is just as great as ever. The revival meeting is needed to revive church members, too many of whom are worldly and indifferent. Night after night preaching of the glorious gospel brings conviction where once-a-week preaching fails. The revival challenges Christian people to holy living. It leads to new dedication and advance steps. It can be used not only for calling penitents to salvation but for dedication to tithing, to the establishment of family altars and other commitments to Christ's way of living and cross-bearing. It offers a splendid opportunity to unify the church, deepen the spiritual life, and challenge the attitudes and standards of professing Christians. The Evangelical United Brethren Church is fully committed to the revival plan and calls upon every local church to have at least one week of evangelistic meetings during each year.

Evangelism in the Sunday School

It is utterly impossible for the Evangelical United Brethren Church to win seventy-five thousand souls to Christ and the church in the coming year without doing something first to build up our Sunday schools. The Sunday school is still the largest evangelistic field and force which the church has. We still get our greatest church membership increase from this fertile and rich source. The Evangelical United Brethren Church through its "Strengthen the Sunday School" movement is seeking to reenforce the evangelistic program of the church and to lay the foundation for a rich spiritual ingathering into the church.

There are 61,541 teachers and officers in the Sunday schools of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. When everyone of them considers himself or herself an evangelist and teaches each lesson for a decision, great spiritual results will soon

The Commission on Christian Social Action

THE Commission on Christian Social Action has been constantly and earnestly engaged during the past year with the herculean task of making the entire Church conscious of the need of individual Christian character and social responsibilities. The past year has amply, and even desperately, demonstrated the need of intense Christian social action in our own nation and throughout the world.

Three brochures were published and released during the past year—each minister of the Evangelical United Brethren Church receiving a free copy of each.

The Church and the Alcohol Problem is a leader's and discussion guide which can be used in a high school and college group, or adult classes in a church school, with great effectiveness. This text has been accredited for the Course in the Standard Leadership Curriculum, Second Series, No. 142.4b.

The Church Faces Social Issues contains the latest authoritative expression of the mind of the Evangelical United Brethren Church on issues of great social importance which all Christians face today. This text can also be used as a discussion guide.

Christian Social Action In and Through the Local Church presents the work of the Committee on Christian Social Action in the local church. Every local church should organize this Committee and support it in its vital work. This brochure explains how this may be done.

The work of the Commission and the need of intensified Christian social action were presented to the Church through articles in the church press. Guidance was given to our ministers, youth counsellors, parents, and young men concerning the significance and involvements of the Selective Service Act of 1948. Certain legislative measures and proposals involving Christian social emphases were interpreted to our church constituency.

Each annual conference was informed concerning the work of the Commission, and an earnest endeavor was made to relate the work of the Commission to the annual conference Committee on Christian Social Action and, in this manner, channel these emphases down to each local church. The Commission also promoted a number of seminars in annual conference Summer Assemblies, and a number of Leadership Training Courses in Summer Camps and Community Schools in "The Church and the Alcohol Problem."

Two of our ministers were nominated and validated as representatives to the Yale School of Alcohol Studies, Yale University. These representatives reported to the Commission their findings—one report being published in the Builders.

Quarterly letters and materials were sent regularly to all our chaplains in active military service. The Commission is also responsible for sending our church periodicals to these chaplains.

Three special days on the church calendar were promoted widely—Race Relations Day, World Temperance Sunday, and World Order Sunday. The Commission unites with the Board of Christian Education in the promotion of Christian Family Week.

The Commission is working through the departments of Sociology of our church colleges and the departments of Social Ethics of our theological seminaries to enlist our students and professors in the promotion of Christian social action.

EVANGELICAL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Reading, Pennsylvania

THE Evangelical School of Theology is the theological seminary which serves the Eastern Area (Ev) of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. The institution was founded in 1905, under the inspiring leadership of the sainted Bishop S. C. Breyfogel, D.D., LL.D. The school operates under the charter of Albright College but functions independently as a graduate professional school. It is accredited by the American Association of Theological Schools.

Invested funds total nearly $300,000. Building and equipment are valued at $200,000. The library contains over 13,000 volumes. The annual operating budget approximates $38,000. Income from invested funds, from the General Administrative Council, from room rentals and fees is supplemented by contributions totaling over $10,000 a year through the "Living Endowment Fellowship."

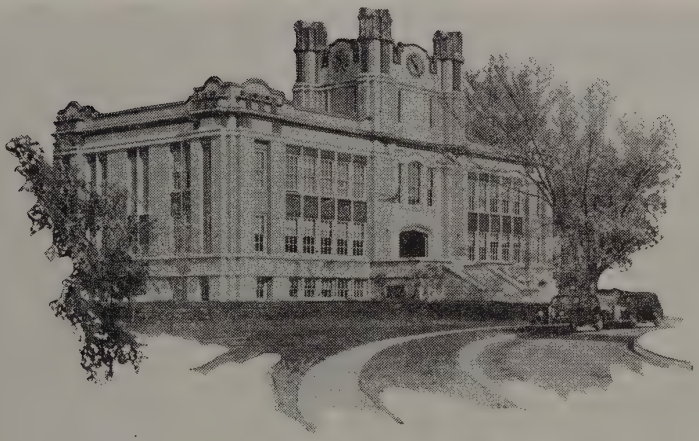

J. Arthur Heck, Th.D.
President

The full-time administrative and teaching staff numbers five persons. In addition there is a full-time librarian in charge of the library. The enrollment each year runs slightly beyond 30 students. The active student organization is known as The Divinity Students' Society, whose motto is "Good Ministers of Jesus Christ." Special lectures, conferences, seminars, and field trips enrich the program of each year.

The purpose and aim of the Evangelical School of Theology is to train "good ministers of Jesus Christ."

BONEBRAKE SEMINARY

Administration Hall

BONEBRAKE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, located in the midst of the finest residential section of the city of Dayton, Ohio, was organized in 1871 under the name "Union Biblical Seminary." On its thirty-five acre campus more than one thousand trees have been planted in the last ten years. The four buildings on the campus consist of the Administration Building, the Dormitory, the Heating Plant and the President's house.

The financial assets of the school exceed $1,370,000. It has graduated 1,131 students and approximately 800 other students have studied some time at Bonebrake Theological Seminary.

Bonebrake Seminary is a graduate professional school, accredited by the American Association of Theological Schools. It offers a total of 89 courses, 36 of which are required for graduation. It confers the degree of Bachelor of Divinity.

It is the purpose of Bonebrake Theological Seminary to help young men, called of God, to be good ministers of Jesus Christ. The product that the seminary is trying to create is a warm-hearted ministry, a Christian experience-centered ministry, an evangelistically-motivated ministry, a missionary-minded ministry, a ministry grounded in devout scholarship, fired with a big-hearted fellowship, imbued with the love of God, and empowered by the Holy Spirit. The institution seeks to inspire within the lives of students the highest ideals of the Kingdom of God.

Walter N. Roberts, Ph.D., President

There are nine members of the faculty, eight of whom, beginning next year, will give full time to their teaching program. A full-time trained librarian and a full-time library secretary besides student assistants are at the services of our faculty and students in the work of the library. The Seminary library book collection has grown from 15,753 volumes in 1938 to over 21,300 in 1948. Students are given training in practical church work as student pastors, assistant pastors, and in other types of Christian service.

Plans are under way to build a library building, a chapel and several duplex apartments. During this year a financial campaign will be conducted.

THE Evangelical Theological Seminary is one of the accredited theological schools of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, a member of and accredited by the American Association of Theological Schools.

During 1948 this institution celebrated the seventy-fifth anniversary of the granting of its charter by the state of Illinois with appropriate ceremonies and publications, and a convocation which brought to the campus representatives of the more than one thousand graduates and former students.

The student enrollment for the academic year 1948-49 totals seventy-two, all of whom are college or university graduates and represent nineteen of the conferences in the Evangelical United Brethren Church in the United States of America, Canada, and China.

A three-year course for college graduates leads to the Bachelor of Divinity degree, and courses are available for Christian workers wishing to specialize in preparation for service in missions and in Christian education.

Harold R. Heininger, Ph.D., President

The class of 1948 numbered twenty-five young ministers. Currently enrolled are twenty-seven veterans who benefit under the G. I. Bill of Rights. Fifty-three of the students enrolled are married.

During the summer of 1948, Seybert Hall, the seminary dormitory, was remodeled to provide ten two-room apartments on the first and second floors, and the third floor, which had formerly been used for storage purposes only, now accommodates twenty men.

The Board of Trustees has authorized a Seventy-fifth Anniversary Library Fund which seeks an additional $75,000 toward the erection of a library unit and provision for its equipment and technical staff.

Colleges

ALBRIGHT COLLEGE
Reading, Pennsylvania

FOUNDED in 1856, Albright College, Reading, Pa., is now in its ninety-third academic year as an agency of the Evangelical United Brethren Church preparing youth for fields of service. A fully accredited coeducational liberal arts college, Albright seeks to make possible the highest intellectual development in an atmosphere of Christian ideals so that the student will be encouraged to formulate and practice a Christian philosophy of life.

A portion of Selwyn Hall, girls' dormitory

The College occupies a campus of 33 acres with buildings and equipment valued at $1,663,662.02. The total gross assets as of June 30, 1948, were $2,922,440.23. A competent staff of 62 Christian faculty and administrative officers provides a program of more than 200 specific courses in 23 departments of instruction. The fields of study include: teaching, home economics, industrial chemistry, physics and mathematics, laboratory technology, pre-nursing, degree course in nursing, pre-medicine, pre-dental, pre-veterinary, pre-law, pre-ministerial, social service, business administration and psychology.

The total enrollment at Albright in the first semester of the 1948-49 academic year is 852. This includes 23 special students and 53 nurses in training at the Reading Hospital School of Nursing. Applications for admission should be made well in advance of the date a student wishes to matriculate.

Harry V. Masters, Ph.D., President

Continually endeavoring to present to the student the claims of the Christian message, Albright gives priority to all religious activities and events in planning the extra-curricular program. Under the sponsorship of the College Christian Associations and the guidance of the Director of Religious Activities, students participate in daily worship services, the Sunday morning Bible Class and evening vespers, service programs for the needy at home and abroad, etc. Tuesday night of each week is given over entirely to the Y. M.-Y. W. C. A.'s.

Albright's current campus development program calls for an addition to the library, a chapel-auditorium, a physical education building, a men's dormitory unit, and general campus improvements. Work on a section of the addition to the library has begun and many campus improvements have been made.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Annville, Pennsylvania

The college church

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE was founded in 1866 by the East Pennsylvania Annual Conference of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ. Though handicapped financially and in the matriculation of our own denominational students, because of her limited territory, the College has made steady progress, emerging from the depression and the war years into the more prosperous post-war period without indebtedness and with plans for future expansion.

Currently, there are 820 full-time students enrolled: 650 are registered in the arts and sciences; 170 in the School of Music. The men number 623; the women, 197. Evangelical United Brethren students total 235; there are thirty-three Life-Work Recruits. The G.I. population is 372. Sixty-five professors comprise the faculty. Washington Hall has provided additional lecture rooms and laboratories; also, a recreation room.

The outstanding feature this year is the administrative reorganization. Dr. Frederic K. Miller has become Assistant to the President; Dean A. H. M. Stonecipher is the Instructional Dean of the College. Professor Robert C. Fagan is Dean of Men, and Professor Clara C. Cooper is the new Dean of Women; they have made available exceptional counseling service. The Rev. David W. Gockley is Director of Religious and Social Activities. The new Director of Public Relations is Richard F. Seiverling.

The payment period for the Building and Endowment Campaign is drawing to a close, and the Physical Education building will be erected when favorable conditions prevail. All church and individual pledges have been paid, except $50,000.

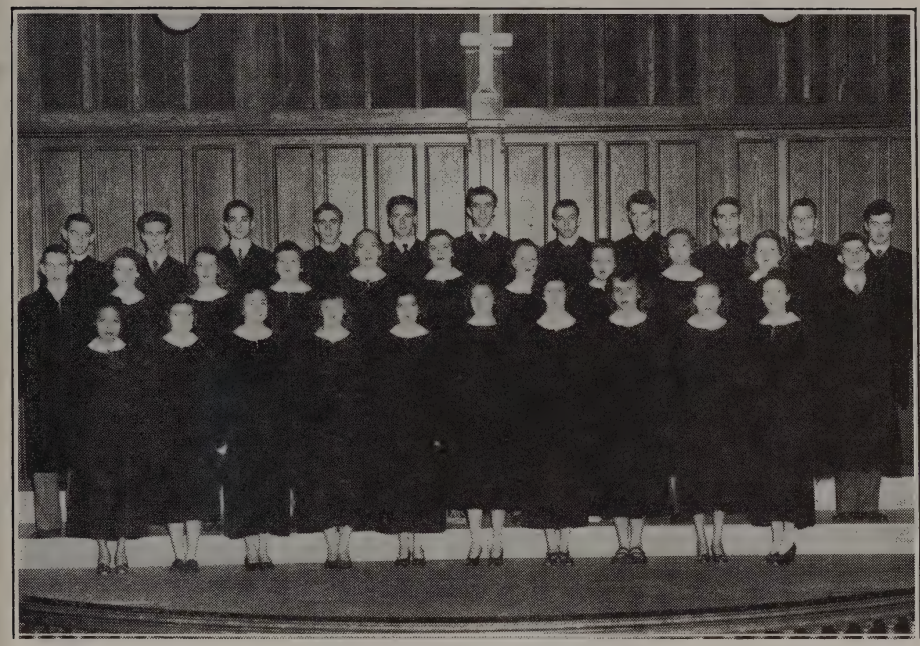

The total capital outlay for improvements and additions for the college year 1947-48 was $125,962. A new athletic field of sixteen acres adjoins the campus; track will be renewed this spring. Our surplus will be used to make further improvements and to take care of plant deterioration due to excessive use. Faculty salaries have been raised, and it is hoped that this may be done again. The faculty also enjoys the benefits of a Retirement Plan and Group Insurance. Total net assets are $2,327,338. Lebanon Valley moves forward with great confidence in the future.

An alumnus of Lebanon Valley College, Dr. Donald J. Cowling, for many years the successful president of Carlton College, is the co-author of a book entitled, "Colleges For Freedom." Every trustee of Lebanon Valley College has received a copy of this publication, which is worthy of the careful study of all exponents of the Liberal Arts tradition. The final paragraph of this book cogently expresses our goals: "Thinking based on integrity and good will is our hope for the future — liberal education based on religion and made effective through democratic society. The freedoms we have cherished — intellectual and spiritual, political and economic — are an essential unity, and the understanding of this unity and of its implications for ourselves and for the world is the concern of our American colleges — for freedom." Our recently held Religious Emphasis Week stressed these goals and suggested means of implementation. The church college ought to be Christian, democratic, scholastically sound, and adequately supported.

SHENANDOAH COLLEGE
Dayton, Virginia

Shenandoah's famous a capella choir

SHENANDOAH COLLEGE and Shenandoah Conservatory of Music, located at Dayton, Virginia, opened for the 74th regular session on September 13, 1948, with an enrollment of 204 students. Shenandoah College, accredited by the Southern Association of College and Secondary Schools, is a two-year junior college offering Liberal Arts and Pre-professional courses for students who wish to transfer to other colleges and universities. In the past three years, eighty-six per cent of the graduates in the junior college have gone on to thirty-one colleges in eighteen states.

Ministerial students and Life Work Recruits are generally enrolled in the Liberal Arts program and actively promote the religious program on the campus through the Christian Workers' League.

Shenandoah Conservatory of Music, a member of the National Association of Schools of Music is a four-year institution granting the Bachelor of Music and Bachelor of Music Education degrees. A two-year course in Church Music has been added for which graduates are awarded a diploma. For many years, Shenandoah has been one of the leading music schools of the South and is now supplying the public schools with competent, Christian, music instructors.

A very large percentage of the Conservatory graduates are active in the church music program of their local communities because of their experience in church work on the Shenandoah campus.

OTTERBEIN COLLEGE

Westerville, Ohio

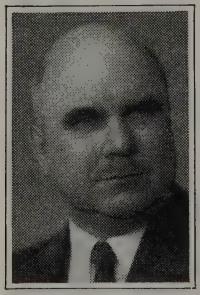

Foreign students on Otterbein's campus

THE Board of Trustees of Otterbein College decreed that 1948-49 should be the year for much needed and long overdue construction work. Consequently students and faculty during the fall months have patiently climbed over and around ditches, scaffolding, and heaps of brick, sand and lumber.

Out of all this have materialized (1) the Barlow Dining Hall, where all facilities can be centralized to accommodate 500 persons per meal; (2) the new Memorial Stadium on the athletic field to seat 2,000 persons, erected in memory of Otterbein's fourteen war dead in World War II; and (3) a new main heating line laid in a concrete tunnel reaching from the central heating plant to the most distant point on the main campus. These three building operations have cost $220,000, which was raised during the Centennial Campaign.

Still ahead is the construction of new and adequate library facilities to better accommodate the needs of an enlarged student body. The present library building with 35,000 volumes should become a building with 70,000 at the earliest possible moment, with 100,000 volumes as the goal.

J. Gordon Howard, D.D., President

Undergirding the whole college must be a larger endowment fund, the present one and one-half million dollars being by no means adequate for a college of upwards of 900 students.

This current emphasis on material assets does not obscure for a moment the main purpose of the college, namely, to prepare young people for Christian leadership in church and state. Beginning with a faculty concerned with the religious life of students, the college strives to maintain a positive Christian emphasis in the interpretation of truth in the classroom, in all faculty-student relationships, and in the campus life as a whole.

Otterbein College is fully accredited, offers courses leading to five academic degrees, and maintains a strong program of diversified co-curricular activities.

INDIANA CENTRAL COLLEGE

Indianapolis, Indiana

Senior Honors Society, Indiana Central College

THE 1947-48 school year has been a year of progress at Indiana Central College. The student body was larger than the previous year by more than 15 per cent, and the fall enrollment for 1948 showed an additional increase of three per cent. More than fifty new courses have been added to the curriculum during the past three years, and an entirely new department of Business Administration was established with the fall semester of 1948. There have been 4,300 volumes added to the library during a three-year period.

Although an increasing number of students from the city of Indianapolis are attending the college, a majority of all students come from Evangelical United Brethren homes. These students come largely from the states of Indiana, Illinois, Minnesota, and Wisconsin; but we have Evangelical United Brethren students from sixteen conferences in twelve states. Twenty-two religious denominations are represented.

The Student Christian Association and the Ministerial Association are two of the strongest campus groups. Social religious activities of the campus are directed by the S.C.A. We have sixty-six ministerial students in our student body. The members of this fine group will soon be filling pulpits in our denomination.

The Living Endowment Foundation is growing in popularity as a means of support for the current operating budget of the college, but it did not fully reach the goals which were set for it during the year. With only very meager permanent endowment funds, Indiana Central must depend almost entirely upon these current contributions to make the difference between the student tuition and fees and the total cost of instruction. This difference is approximately 40 per cent of the total budget. Increased financial support is essential to the continued growth and development of this institution.

NORTH CENTRAL COLLEGE

Naperville, Illinois

Bolton and Kauffman Halls—girls' dormitories

NORTH Central College was opened 87 years ago with three teachers and one small frame building. The fall semester of 1947-1948 opened with a net total of 914 students and an instructional and administrative staff of 70 people. The library contains 35,000 well-selected volumes. The physical equipment of the college includes a campus of 46 acres and 15 buildings used for instructional and dormitory purposes. In addition, nine barracks provide accommodations for 72 men students. Total assets of the college amount to $3,210,000.

During the year, the Kroehler Memorial Dormitory for Women was completed at a cost of $375,000 for the dormitory building, the dining hall, kitchen facilities, and complete furnishings. This building is now occupied by freshmen women; 106 women students are housed; and in addition, quarters are provided for infirmaries, dormitory hostess, and very adequate parlor facilities. The college is now housing 227 women students and, including barracks, 108 men students.

The college is affiliated with 15 conferences of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. Each of these conferences is represented on the Board of Trustees. The total membership in the fifteen conferences is 166,950. North Central College is fully accredited.

Student religious organizations are strongly encouraged on the campus. The general religious program is under the supervision of the Religious Life Council. This council includes representatives from the various religious organizations on the campus. These organizations include the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., the Campus Youth Fellowship, Student Volunteers, and the Seager Association. Each of these groups is actively engaged in stimulating and promoting various forms of religious work on the campus. Chapel is conducted on Monday and Wednesday, and on Friday a student convocation is held for promotion of campus activities.

C. Harve Geiger, Ph.D.,
President

Primary among the purposes of North Central College is service to the church. During 1947-1948, 89 young men in the college indicated their intention to enter the Christian ministry, 15 young men and women plan to enter missionary service of the church, while 50 students plan to enter other forms of Christian and social service.

The academic year 1948-1949 opened September 13 with an enrollment of 935. Twelve replacements and additions to the staff have been made for the current year.

WESTMAR COLLEGE

Le Mars, Iowa

Aerial view of the west campus

WESTMAR COLLEGE, now in its forty-ninth year, serves more than 500 students annually. The recently revised objectives of the college are:

(1) To encourage the Christian attitude toward society and enlistment in the Christian enterprise.
(2) To guide students to an appreciation and a knowledge of the arts, humanities, and sciences.
(3) To develop correct thinking on the basis of broad and accurate information.
(4) To give direction in health and physical development.
(5) To prepare the students for their chosen vocation or for entrance into a graduate or professional school.

Improvements in plant and facilities used for the first time include a Science Hall, Industrial Arts Building, Men's Dormitory, and a 33-passenger Aerocoach. The second unit of the Men's Dormitory to house 66 men is now under construction.

The college offers a four-year Liberal Arts curriculum including special emphasis upon pre-ministerial, pre-professional and teacher training courses. The Departments of Home Economics, Industrial Arts, and Music are of special interest to many students.

Westmar College gives priority to the religious activities on the campus. One chapel period each week is sponsored by the Christian Associations and Thursday night is entirely given over to the Church Program. A special week of Religious Emphasis is scheduled annually. This year Dr. H. R. Heininger, President of the Evangelical Theological Seminary, served as the guest speaker.

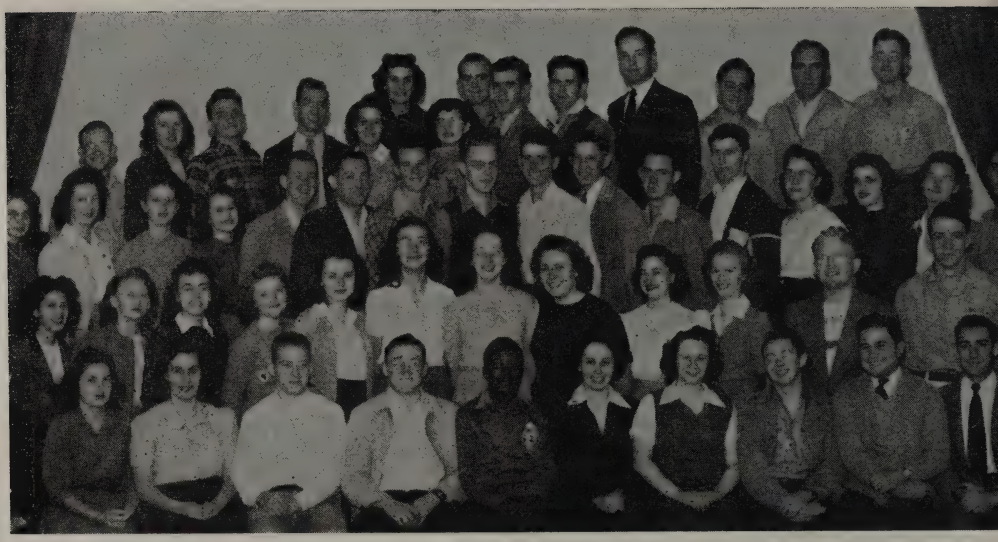

It is our hope that the current development program of the college will include a much needed library building open for use on the fiftieth anniversary in 1950-1951.

Total assets, as of June 30, 1948, were $1,422,759.36.

YORK COLLEGE
York, Nebraska

Some of the 88 students in the Life Work Recruits

YORK COLLEGE is a liberal arts college of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. This college serves the Southwestern (UB) and Pacific (UB) Areas of our church, and the city of York, and its vicinity. There are eighteen states and one foreign country represented this year in the student body. Two-thirds of the students are from Evangelical United Brethren homes and churches. The students are deeply concerned in matters of scholarship, profoundly interested in religion, and devoted to the Christian way of living. There are thirty-nine pre-seminary students in York College at the present time, and from seventy-five to eighty-five students attend the regular weekly meetings of the Life Work Recruits.

This year a new building is being completed to fill outstanding needs on the York College campus. It is a modern brick building with dormitory accommodations for ninety college women, a student lounge, and some student union facilities, a kitchen, and a dining room for three hundred fifty students. For a number of years adequate equipment along these lines has been greatly needed. At present, the need is imperative. There is a wonderful spirit of cooperation evident among the people of our churches and the city of York is backing this necessary project. The completion of this building will be a great contribution to the cause of Christian higher education and to the church.

W. E. Bachman, D.R.E., D.D.
President

York College is maintained to fulfill a twofold function, namely: first, as a college of liberal arts it offers to its students opportunities for high scholastic attainments, enriching cultural development, and pre-professional training; and second, as a Christian college it is vitally Christian in its teachings, life, and atmosphere. It is the purpose to prepare students for entrance into the seminary, to train young men and young women for missionary service, and to give such training as will prepare students for Christian lay leadership in local churches and local communities while they are engaged in their respective careers and life work. To this end we dedicate our entire resources.

Children's and Old People's Homes

Flat Rock, Ohio

Smaller children enjoy playtime

THE Flat Rock Children's Home was established in 1866 for the sole purpose of caring for orphan and needy children. It is to provide a Christian home for them and minister to their temporal needs.

The normal capacity of the Home is eighty children. A few more can be admitted in case of emergencies. These children come from many states east of Pennsylvania, as far west at Oregon and California, and south to Texas. The great majority come to the Home upon the recommendations from churches. The age is from three to eighteen years.

Our children and young people are a part of the community in which we live. They attend the public school, take part in community events and are regular participants in the worship and program of religious education in the church. They are leaders in school, church, and community projects.

The entire program of this Home is built on the family basis. Each child and youth and staff member feel that they are a member of our great family. All are interested in each other, which makes for wholesome relationship as fine fellowship. The need of one is the concern of all.

The Home is well equipped and has a very high rating as compared with other children's institutions in the state. It conforms in every particular with the strict Welfare laws in the state of Ohio. The main sources of income are: the generous Christmas offering from churches in the Home Compact; produce from the farm; special gifts; bequests and annuities. The value of real estate, buildings and equipment is $380,102.14, with total assets amounting to $777,759.98.

PHILADELPHIA EVANGELICAL HOME FOR THE AGED

Philadelphia 15, Pennsylvania

Front of Home building and some of the guests

THE Philadelphia Home for the Aged in Philadelphia, Pa., is now in its sixty-first year. It is an agency of the church caring for the aging and infirm folk of our denomination. The more recent years have been difficult for institutions of this kind. Government regulations and controls imposed problems during the war, and since then the sharp increase in the price of food, materials, and services has created an operating cost problem. But our Home in Philadelphia, fortunately, can look upon this period as one in which helpful Christian service has been rendered to the aging folk of the church and which, in face of the many difficulties, has shown a good degree of advancement and progress.

Rev. I. James Bobst,
Superintendent

The total assets of the institution now amount to $698,510. The operating expenditures last year amounted to $44,363. Seventy-one residents shared the good comforts of the Home last year. The oldest resident is ninety-nine years of age and is still actively interested in life. Operating costs were met with income from invested funds, entrance considerations, contributions from churches and individuals, plus a cash grant from the General Administrative Council. Seventeen people, on a full or part time basis, comprise the administrative and working staff.

Our aim and purpose continues to be that of maintaining here a warm Christian home-like atmosphere and to give our residents an assurance of complete well-being during this time of their life in the Home. It is to this end that we direct our efforts, and seek your prayerful co-operation.

QUINCY ORPHANAGE AND HOME

Quincy, Pennsylvania

New members added to the Orphanage and Home Family in 1948

THIS Benevolent Home is located in Quincy, Franklin County, Pennsylvania, and has been serving its Lord and Master for the past forty-six years. During that time it has provided a home for more than eight hundred needy boys and girls and shelter and Christian fellowship for more than two hundred and fifty aged folks who spend the twilight years of their lives here.

During the past year thirty-two children to the Orphanage family and fourteen aged guests to our Old People's Home were admitted. During that time twenty-two children were dismissed, and ten members of our Aged Guests' Department were called to their Heavenly Home. This leaves us with a family of fifty-six girls and seventy-eight boys and sixty aged guests in our Home. This is a family of one hundred and ninety-four persons for whom we are providing a Christian Home.

Our support is mainly derived through the Christmas offerings that all churches in our supporting area take each Christmas season. We are in the second year of our special "Six-Year Plan" begun in 1947 and which will be carried out to its final climax, which is the "Celebration of our Fiftieth Anniversary" in 1953. During these six years we are urging all of our churches to meet our goal of $1.00 per member each Christmas season. Out of this amount we are setting aside $50,000.00 each year, which is to be used as a building fund and general improvement and renovation program. We were able to set aside this amount from our 1947 offerings. This will bring us a $300,000.00 fund.

All annual conferences of the East Bishop's Area support our Home. Three of the conferences—the Erie, the Pennsylvania, and the East Pennsylvania—averaged $1.00 per member. One hundred and eighty-three churches were granted "Certificates of Recognition" for excellent work.

Rev. A. C. Wertsch,
Superintendent

EVANGELICAL HOME
Lewisburg, Pennsylvania

Administration Building, Lewisburg Home

THE ministry of the Evangelical Home which was begun in 1916 has continued successfully during another year. Our many friends have evidenced their interest in our work by the generous contributions given and the friendly, encouraging words spoken. It is our purpose to provide a comfortable haven to aged voyagers on the sea of life in order that their latter years may be free from worry and the cares of age. A place of shelter is also provided for children who have been deprived of the help and guidance normally given by parents during the formative years of their life. In addition to the care of their bodies, careful attention is given to their mental development. Every effort is made to provide that moral and spiritual guidance so much needed for fruitful living.

Rev. G. C. Gabriel, Superintendent

The capacity of the Home for the Aged is eighty, and we continually have a waiting list of persons seeking admission. Forty-five children have been given care and guidance during the year by a devoted staff of workers. We have been able to meet all of our expenses, make needed repairs, and add some to the Reserve Fund.

During the year an agreement has been consummated whereby the community will take over the management of the Hospital and a campaign is now in progress to secure funds for the erection of a new building.

THE OTTERBEIN HOME

Residents of Bethany House: Miss Cromer, Mrs. McNeely, Miss Wolfe, Miss Prugh, Mrs. Graves

OTTERBEIN HOME enters its thirty-sixth year with a reaffirmed conviction in the efficacy of Faith and Prayer. Although the task is endless and the burden great, we are thankful to Almighty God for the security, comfort and sustenance to 140 elderly folks and 150 children throughout the past year.

The Home's supporting constituency covers fifteen states, namely, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Colorado, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Tennessee and Kentucky. It numbers approximately 270,000 members of our great denomination. In the last year we have been able to finish the ten cottages, south barn, dairy barn, hog house and gymnasium. We have also built a new poultry house which houses 1,000 laying hens, a fire house in which we have a small but up-to-date fire truck, and a new granary which will hold 24,000 bushels of grain plus grinding and mixing equipment for our feed problems and some farm machinery.

The Otterbein Home is located on Ohio State Route No. 741, 24 miles due south of Dayton, Ohio. Ours is soil that from the very first settler in 1799 to the present day was dedicated to the work of the Lord. At no time has the property on which we are situated been under control of any but a religious denominational group. First, under the guidance of "The United Society of Believers" commonly known as "Shakers," and for the last thirty-six years our denomination. There is a background rich in the history of our nation and state. It is our privilege to keep alive these tenets set forth in the Holy Bible and the constitution of our nation in the heart and mind of the youth that come under the direction and care of you, the people of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, to so great an extent that we shall "not be found wanting" when weighed in the "Balances of Life."

Alvin G. Myrice
Superintendent

Our slogan for this year is, "When we are too big to do little things for the Lord, he will find us too small for the bigger things."

Three large buildings are used entirely for homing aged members and help.

HAVEN HUBBARD MEMORIAL OLD PEOPLE'S HOME
New Carlisle, Indiana

Women guests gathered in a corner of the parlor

FOR twenty-six years Haven Hubbard Home has been a real haven to a large family of Christian folk. During the past year Hubbard Hall has been added, increasing our capacity to eighty-six aged people. Applications keep coming beyond our ability to care for such, and raises a pertinent problem of just what is the measure of the Church's responsibility to minister to the aged. Nor will this problem become less disturbing as the average life span continues to be lengthened.

Haven Hubbard Home, consisting of the Main Building and Hubbard Hall, is surrounded by a beautiful 700-acre farm two miles from New Carlisle, Indiana. Hubbard Hall was formerly the Hubbard residence, and, with its beautiful interior work and library, was a "show place" in the county. In 1948 it was completely remodeled at great cost and dedicated as Hubbard Hall. Here a total of eighteen living rooms, besides a library, spacious kitchen, rest rooms and solarium have been provided; and fourteen of our room-confined and more infirm Home members will have beautiful modern quarters, with a resident staff of workers. In the main building live seventy-two guests.

Rev. C. B. Westfall,
Superintendent

During the past two years great improvements and replacements of equipment have been made in the Home buildings and on the farm; and in 1949 a new dairy barn will also be erected. During 1949 the Home chapel will also be completely remodeled with chancel, art-glass windows, furnishings, floor covering, etc. When completed it will be re-dedicated as the Armina Hubbard Memorial Chapel.

The Home "family," aged 70 to 97 years, includes many great old pioneering souls of the Church who, though feeble of body, are strong in spirit and of keen interest in the welfare and future of the Church, both militant and triumphant. The employed staff is a group of exceptionally well qualified workers and it is our prayer and aim to truly fulfill the purpose of our Home and be a credit to the Church.

WESTERN OLD PEOPLE'S HOME

Chapel Entrance—Western Old People's Home

THE Western Old People's Home, established in 1911, is located in Cedar Falls, Iowa. Its purpose is to serve the worthy constituency in this area of our church. The Home itself consists of three units combined into one building of practical and architectural unity and beauty. In addition to the large family dining room, a chapel, parlors and sun porches are provided. The building and equipment are valued at $268,626.00. The total assets of the corporation are $759,245.00. During the past year, 12 members died and 12 new members were received. At present we are housing 114 older people and nine of our employees, each in an individual room. The majority of the Home family are members of our own denomination. The staff consists of superintendent, matron, office secretary, maintenance man, gardener, three nurses, two cooks, lady in charge of dining room, housekeeper and two assistants.

The Board of Trustees has no set amount designated as an admittance fee. It deals with each case individually and on its own merits. The amount a person is asked to invest for life membership depends upon age, physical condition, family circumstances, financial assets and other contributing factors. Persons desiring information should write to the Superintendent for an application blank and a manual, which sets forth the policy and rules of the Home.

Rev. G. A. Stauffacher, Superintendent

Puente, California

Retired ministers' group in front of new station wagon

THIS Home was founded in 1911 by Col. and Mrs. R. M. Baker, members of First Church (UB), Los Angeles, California. Under a unique plan it provides a cottage with grounds for lawn, garden, flowers and fruit trees, for each retired minister and his wife to be used as their own for their remaining years. These homes are rent free, with taxes, water and general upkeep provided by the institution. Each family provides its own living expenses, uses its own furniture and equipment, cares for the house, lawn, garden and grounds as long as the members are physically able to do so. A caretaker is available to assist in time of need. A garage is provided for those who have cars. The caretaker makes trips to market or to the doctor for those who have no other means of transportation. A new station wagon has been procured for this purpose.

The Home is located in beautiful La Puente Valley, the citrus belt of southern California. The metropolitan city of Los Angeles is only twenty-five miles to the west. The valley is surrounded by high rolling hills, while twenty-five miles to the north are the lofty Sierra Mountains. Guests have plenty of sunshine and daily outdoor life the year round. The climate is invigorating, even in summer, due to sea breezes. The nights are cool.

The Home owns twenty-four acres of ground, with nine acres in orange and lemon groves. Of the remaining fifteen acres, that not occupied by cottages is used for winter hay or grain crops.

The Home was endowed as an independent corporation. The title is vested in a Board of Trustees, which has complete control of all property, with the right to buy or sell any of its holdings. The Articles of Incorporation provide that the Board of nine Trustees be elected by the California Annual Conference of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ. Three are elected each year to serve for a period of three years. They are directly responsible to the California Conference, to whom they make a report and submit to an annual audit of its financial condition. Their last annual report showed $130,530 invested in stocks and bonds, constituting its main source of income. Total assets are $217,487.

Superintendent

Up to the present time, only the three annual conferences of the Pacific District have contributed any financial aid to the Home. They make an annual Christmas offering toward the maintenance of the Institution. By wise management and investments, the Board meets all obligations of costs and maintenance and care, but funds for building additional cottages, so much needed, are quite limited. All cottages are now filled.

Since its organization, the Home has served approximately one hundred worthy servants of the Church. Supt. E. E. Hostetter and his wife have been assigned to the new house just completed and which they built and helped to finance. Thus after serving as superintendent for twenty-three years and providing their own living quarters, they join the Home membership.

PACIFIC EVANGELICAL UNITED BRETHREN HOME
Burbank, California

Guests of the Home

Some guests eating in the cheerful dining room

THROUGH the generous gifts of Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Voegelein and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Burkhart, Pacific Evangelical United Brethren Home was established in Burbank, California, in 1923. For the past 25 years the Home has been, increasingly, a haven of rest for those in the sunset years of life. It is the aim and purpose of the Home to make life comfortable and meaningful for, as well as to give a sense of security to, those to whom it ministers. Living here, in a "fellowship of kindred minds" in Christian love, is a real spiritual experience. All connected with the Home are seeking to make it a truly Christian home.

The guests, now numbering 9 men and 39 women with an average age of 80 years, are enjoying Southern California's ideal climate for those in the upper age brackets.

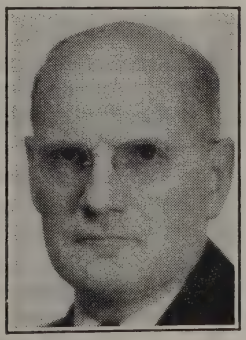

During the past year numerous improvements have been made, adding to the efficiency of the staff and the comfort of the guests.

The Home is on a sound financial basis. The Mother's Day offering from the supporting conferences as well as special gifts and bequests bolster the financial structure.

Members of the Evangelical United Brethren Church are given priority in the matter of entrance. Guests are accepted either on a monthly basis or as life members. The monthly rates are as low as present day costs permit.

Particular attention is given not only to the physical comfort of the guests but also to their spiritual welfare, and to assistance in making adjustments to the varied experiences and circumstances of life.

As the Home celebrates its silver anniversary, culminating 25 years of service to the aged, we look forward to a larger and more meaningful ministry to those who desire to spend the latter years of life amid congenial Christian surroundings in a delightful climate.

CHURCH VOCATIONS AND OUR COLLEGES

There are hundreds of candidates for church vocations under care of our local churches and annual conferences. The Church's recruiting task is not complete until these candidates are trained and placed on the field.

Our eight Church-related colleges, reporting the highest enrollment in history, and our three theological seminaries, are some of the Church's most important responsibilities and obligations. We must move into the field of higher education with a more effective service to students, to minister to their needs and to answer their questions concerning the deeper purpose of life. Colleges and universities furnish nine-tenths of WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA. It may be that the readiness, or the failure, of the Church to strengthen its colleges through increased financial support will write the future history of America for good or ill.

CHURCH PROPERTY

Church property speaks, and very eloquently too at times—for or against the church. When the property is kept attractive and speaks of order, beauty, devoted care, it makes a real appeal to those who are sensitive to spiritual influence. But what it says about carelessness, ill repair, neglect, is very hard to discount! What does your church property tell to those who pass by?

follow. The teacher's prayer life and his contact with pupils in their homes, are vital and important. The presenting of Biblical history, geography and other details alone are not sufficient. The ultimate objective of all teaching in the Sunday school should be to lead every pupil into a full surrender to Christ as Saviour and Lord.

When Christ said, "Go ye, therefore" (Matthew 28:19), he could not have referred only to the disciples. The task was too great for them. When Christ said, "As the father has sent me even so send I you" (John 20:21), he still could not have referred simply to the "twelve" because at best their work would soon be over and the work not yet done. The Evangelical United Brethren Church believes that every Christian should be a soul winner. Lay Evangelism is imperative not only to promote the gospel but for the spiritual development and growth of the one who participates in it. The church is doomed when it regards evangelism as the exclusive responsibility of the minister. That every member must become an evangelist should be constantly emphasized as the command of Christ.

Twenty-seven million people in America have moved since the war began. This moving from one place to another is still going on. There are many new localities that have grown up. Many people in new communities are out of touch with the church, are lonesome, and homesick for the friendly touch of the church. They are the lost sheep of the flock. It is often easier to win one of them than it is some person who has never taken his stand for Christ. Here is a great opportunity for laymen.

Other churches have realized these increases by the use of this Daily Lenten Offering Box. The most effective method is to put the box in the home before the beginning of Lent (March 2), and have the family put the box on the table at each meal during Lent and place an offering in the box as a part of the table devotions.

A space is provided for the marking of an (X) for each meal during the Lenten Season.

The boxes should be returned to the church on Easter Sunday. You'll be agreeably surprised at the results.

"Carillonic Bells"

...CHOICE OF MODERN CHURCHES FOR ITS VOICE OF MATCHLESS BEAUTY

Your tower comes to vibrant life, your church acquires a new voice in the community, through the incomparably clear, rich tones of CARILLONIC BELLS. Nearly seven hundred churches have proven this instrument the finest of its kind for sending forth a message of beautiful music.

And if you are planning a church, be sure to have CARILLONIC BELLS built in. With no weight factor nor awkward size to consider, you can save money on tower construction, and the design can be as beautifully slender as your architect desires.

Whether played from the tower, or inside with the organ, CARILLONIC BELLS adds new color and greater spiritual appeal to your church music; and you will be surprised at the increasing numbers of worshippers it attracts. For particulars, address Dept. YEC.

CHURCH VOCATIONS AND OUR COLLEGES

There are hundreds of candidates for church vocations under care of our local churches and annual conferences. The Church's recruiting task is not complete until these candidates are trained and placed on the field. Recommend to these candidates enrolment at one of our eight colleges and three seminaries.

The Foreword from The Editor

ONE of the memorable experiences in my life was the visit to the historic international monument of the Reformation. Erected in 1909, on the 4th centennial of John Calvin's birth, it stands along a hill in Geneva, Switzerland, which was boldly defended by those who believed in the tenets of Protestantism. To see this great monument one stands on the terrace steps of Mont Blanc granite.

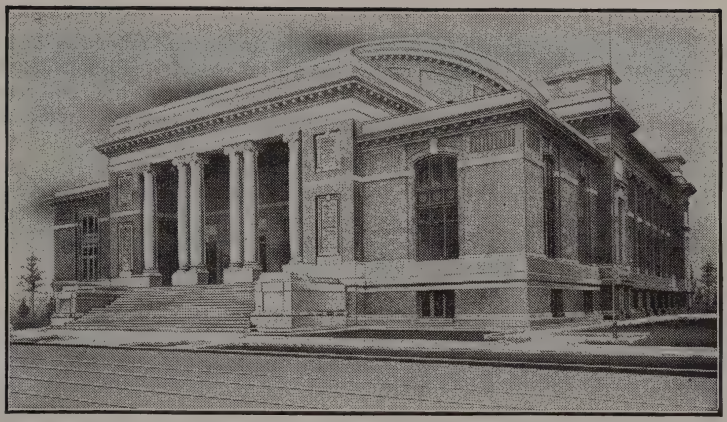

On this notable rampart, 100 meters in length, are the colossal letters summarizing the aim of the Reformation: POST TENEBRAS LUX, "After the darkness, the light." Below the letters are the life-size statues of Calvin, Farel, Beza, and Knox. These were giants of spiritual integrity, courage and consistency. To bring the light of truth and excellence into the darkness of error and mediocrity in Reformation years they preached vigorously and organized effectively. Their torches of vision are thrown even to us to bring new light and hope to this generation.

It is enheartening to feel that in our church there are giants of vision thrusting torches of light into dark paths our generation must tread. The 1950 Year Book evidences how the Evangelical United Brethren Church is moving to light the lamps of Christ in every continent on the face of the globe. It presents the agencies and institutions which minister to the needs of people by upholding the truth of Christ. It helps us sense that we are aiding in Christ's work which is far from being completed, but gives ever-widening evidences of moving forward undaunted by human foes.

It is well to recall the words of one of God's valiant giants of this generation, Dr. John R. Mott. A majestic man of 83, he preached at the opening service of the First Assembly of the World Council of Churches in Amsterdam, Holland, in 1948. Said he: "The best days are ahead of us. . . . There is no door that is closed to the constructive ministry of the Living Christ. If it seems to be closed, knock and it shall be opened."

This Year Book is presented to the Church as encouragement to mid-20th century pioneers to carry forward the light of truth. The Evangelical United Brethren Church knows the power of the Gospel of Christ to open the closed doors of disunity, ignorance and prejudice. May we find this new year bringing us nearer the goal of a world enlighted by the love and compassion of Christ.

Looking Forward to General Conference

Senior Bishop A. R. Clippinger, D.D., LL.D.

A. R. Clippinger, D.D., LL.D.

THE second Evangelical United Brethren General Conference, which will convene in Dayton, Ohio, November 10, 1950, promises to be both interesting and important. In some respects it may be more important than the First General Conference of the united Churches. After four years of fellowship and work under the new Discipline it is to be expected that there will be some necessary and desired changes. No one ever thought of our present book of Discipline as a perfect book. It is remarkable, however, that not more changes are contemplated. I know of no radical changes that are under consideration.

The commissioners across a period of ten years did a very remarkable piece of work in the preparation of the Discipline. It required long hours of study and exchange of ideas and finally the adoption of what we now have. For the first quadrennium it has been necessary to incorporate some things that can be omitted in all future Disciplines. It was the purpose of the Commissioners not to depart farther from either book of Discipline than necessary. There are places where it was necessary to create something altogether new. The Bishops have been somewhat lenient in the interpretation of the Discipline until every one becomes more familiar with the law of the Church. The first quadrennium has been more or less experimental but as we enter on a new quadrennium we will settle down to plans and programs of a more permanent character.

Habit is hard to change or overcome. A people who have been accustomed to do their church work a certain way find it exceedingly difficult to change their ideas and methods and adopt something else even to achieve the same results. Church union requires patience and kindly consideration of another's views and methods. Marked progress has been made in this first quadrennium with the hope of still greater and more tangible results in the future. We feel the need of closer coordination among the departments and a united front in all the conferences.

THE first contemplated change is a reduction in the number of Bishops. No one ever entertained the thought that a denomination of our size should require the services of nine active Bishops. It was tentatively understood from the first that as Bishops reach the retiring age the number should be reduced. Bishops Stamm and Clippinger will retire with the end of this first quadrennium and that will reduce the number to seven. There are those who believe the number should be reduced to six. But the final decision as to number rests with the General Conference.

The uniting of Conferences is, and will be a very perceptible change. Some Conferences have already united and others will be asking for an enabling act granting permission to unite following the General Conference when amicable terms can be agreed upon by the Conferences concerned. Just how many unions will be effected no one can tell but it is believed the number will be reduced from fifty-three to approximately forty-five. This will greatly reduce the work of the Bishops.

In this same connection, in all probability, there will be some consideration given to uniting institutions. This is much more difficult and requires patience. Loyalties established over a long period of years are hard to sever.

The General Council of Administration which is in a certain sense a co-ordinating Board is recommending to the General Conference this slogan for the next quadrennium: "For Such a Time as This." This slogan is meant to be a challenge for all departments.

The financial response for Kingdom Advance and relief this quadrennium has been most encouraging. The goal of two million dollars for "Advance" and three hundred thousand for relief has been surpassed. No one is the poorer but the Kingdom is richer because Christian people gave of their money. It has given our people a sense of victory. "We can if we will."

Bonebrake Seminary is now in a campaign for $450,000. Contributions are flowing in very satisfactorily. The goal is supposed to be reached by the end of this quadrennium.

The Evangelical School of Theology at Reading, Pa. and the Evangelical Theological Seminary at Naperville, Ill., have had joint campaigns with the adjacent colleges but their campaigns are about concluded so the way seems to be open for some other institutions next quadrennium. This will be one of the important issues of the General Conference.

NEXT quadrennium will witness the sesquicentennial of the founding of both former denominations. A fitting program is now under consideration looking toward an advance along all lines of church work.

The Department of Evangelism will co-operate with the National Program in Evangelistic Advance. Conferences and local churches are catching the inspiration of this united movement and we have reason to believe that many souls will be led to Christ. No one has any desire to separate them for, after all, Christian Education has as its ultimate goal the salvation of the individual.

The Curriculum Conference at Indiana Central College July 12 to 15, 1949, was indeed a most helpful gathering of Christian workers. The inspiration of that gathering and its findings are now being carried out into every Conference by what is termed Planning Conferences. This is planting seed in good soil and the results will be seen and felt in the immediate future. The Board of Education will have a forward looking program to submit to the General Conference as the result of surveys and present findings.

The program of missions calls for expansion. The numerous fields across the water are calling for men and money. The challenge is unlimited. The home base also needs strengthening. Pastors' salaries have been materially raised but still there are many ministers making a real sacrifice to preach the gospel. The Department of Pensions is asking for increased funds with which to make the retired ministers and their widows comfortable and happy in their declining years. This request involves the Publishing Houses which make sizeable contributions to retired ministers.

THE Committee on Surveys and Trends is now receiving many memorials to be submitted to the General Conference.

Some of these requests are very far-reaching while others are less revolutionary.

150 Years of Achievement

By Raymond W. Albright, Th.D., Litt.D.

THE year 1950 marks 150 years of achievement for the Evangelical United Brethren Church. Just a century and a half ago Philip William Otterbein and Martin Boehm organized the first general conference of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ. In that same year, 1800, Jacob Albright formed the first classes of the Evangelical Church. Very fittingly the Evangelical United Brethren Church, formed through the union of these two distinctly American denominations, in November, 1946, has planned a sesquicentennial celebration to be officially inaugurated at the time of the General Conference in November, 1950.

Although Otterbein was trained in the Reformed tradition in Europe, Boehm and Albright were American-born churchmen and the two denominations were born here under circumstances which could happen only in the religiously free atmosphere of this country. In their zeal to lead their neighbors and friends, mostly German-speaking citizens, to a significant religious experience these founders gave themselves without reserve to preaching and teaching a very practical type of Christianity, emphasizing the necessity of a personal experience of the saving grace of God and a high type of ethical conduct.

Several attempts were made to join the forces of these two movements in the first two decades as they worked side by side in the same general area of eastern Pennsylvania and among the same people. Although their plans and methods of work were so very similar this union was not to be accomplished until 1946. During this century and a half these denominations developed full denominational organizations with missionary and educational institutions. At the time of their union they had a combined membership of approximately three-quarters of a million souls.*

THE Evangelical United Brethren Church is organized very much like the Methodist Church, with bishops who serve as general superintendents and conference superintendents who supervise more closely the religious life and development of the local congregations in specific areas. This is the basis of a "connectional" form of government which relates the local congregations to the annual conference and, through this body, to the General Conference. This latter body meets quadrennially and is the final authority in all matters pertaining to the work of the denomination.

Lay persons have theoretically equal representation in the annual and general conferences. The Women's Society of Christian Service is a subsidiary organization of the General Board of Missions, designed particularly to facilitate the educational and financial aspects of the total missionary program of the denomination.

There is a parity among the clergy; no ecclesiastical power is granted to anyone beyond the authority of ordination. All general church officials are administrative in function and share ecclesiastical powers with ordained pastors. All general church officials are elected quadrennially by the General Conference.

The connectional form of government makes for efficiency of operation throughout the entire denomination. It brings to focus all the efficiency of the episcopal supervision without the danger of unchangeable centralization of authority. It also provides for the freedom and democratic spirit of the local congregation without

* Those who wish to learn more of the details of this fascinating story should read the official histories of the former denominations:
A. W. Drury—A History of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, and Raymond W. Albright—A History of the Evangelical Church. These books may be procured through your denominational publishing house.

leaving the local church impotent or self-centered because of lack of guidance. In this regard the Evangelical United Brethren Church stands well in the center of American church polity, providing the advantages of the free and the supervised systems without incurring the dangers of either.

IN the Book of Discipline of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, the official book of rituals, laws and doctrines of the denomination, the articles of faith of both the former Church of the United Brethren in Christ and the former Evangelical Church are printed. At the time of the merging of the denominations no attempt was made to bring these into one doctrinal statement.

Essentially these articles are in agreement and can be readily reconciled. They both stem from the articles of the Methodist Church which in turn are based on the Thirty-Nine Articles of the Church of England. There is something of the Reformed tradition also present. Actually these articles are so much in agreement with similar major doctrinal statements of the Protestant faith that it may be truly said that the doctrine of the Evangelical United Brethren Church is very close to center in the Protestant tradition.

These articles, based on Biblical authority, set forth both the sinful nature of man and the saving grace of God. They provide for salvation of the individual in the Arminian tradition, in which both the grace of God, adequate for the salvation of all men, and the faith of the individual believer, are necessary. The sacrament of baptism is obligatory for admission to the church. The sacrament of Holy Communion, to be administered only by ministers, is conceived in a Calvinistic sense to provide the spiritual, yet nevertheless real, presence of Christ for the believer. The Lord's Supper is usually celebrated quarterly although many congregations observe this sacrament more frequently.

Liturgically the Evangelical United Brethren Church belongs to the free tradition. Whatever order of worship is provided in the hymnals is optional. The sacramental and other rituals are basically derived from the Book of Common Prayer, although their phraseology has been changed from generation to generation.

In concluding these analytical sections one may truly say that nothing Christian is foreign to the polity and doctrine of this denomination and that, with its disciplined freedom, it stands as near the center of all Christian tradition as any other American church.

After 150 years there remains much to be accomplished by the Evangelical United Brethren Church. Only a brief outline may be permitted. The denomination should now provide for

1) the reconciliation of the articles of faith of both former denominations and that in a simple yet concise language;

2) union of annual conferences and other agencies where there remains any duplication of effort and expenditure;

3) a new hymnal for the denomination which will provide for the expression of the free Protestant tradition while being based on the complete Christian heritage of song and music;

4) new rituals of the Book of Discipline, fully and carefully revised in the same spirit considering particularly the deep religious needs of the people and the historic ways in which the Christian Church has provided for the necessities of true worship;

5) improvement and advance in the interpretation of the eternal truth of God in contemporary language and forms through present-day educational and missionary efforts so that men everywhere shall be really and vividly confronted with the Gospel;

6) more universal solicitation, careful selection and thorough training of the ministry of the church;

7) more religious and spiritual motivation for all forms of the programs, activities and budgets of the denomination;

8) a specific program of publication of major religious works by the denominational press;

9) a deeper understanding of the meaning and responsibilities of church membership for all members, and

10) the intensification and continuation of the ecumenical spirit which brought the Evangelical United Brethren Church into existence.

Forward With Christ In Worship

The 1950 Theme of Our Denomination

By Paul Arthur Washburn
Pastor, St. John's Church, Rockford, Illinois

Paul A. Washburn

WORSHIP is a "must" if our communion is to keep going "Forward Together with Christ." Private worship, family worship, corporate worship, and ecumenical worship help us to sense and to keep alive our togetherness with Christ and our togetherness with other Christians. Each of these forms must have expression among us if ours is to be a truly Christo-centric fellowship.

The humble grandmother praying with hands folded across her open Bible in some lowly cottage of an old New England village is bent upon the keeping of the togetherness we seek. Families, large and small, which pause in the midst of the day's occupations to read from God's Word and to pray are encouraging the unity of Christians which we desire. In sanctuaries around the world our people meet to sing and to pray, to meditate and to give. The appointments of the sanctuaries are important, but they are not of first importance. The knowledge of atonement between Christ and his people is that which keeps alive in us what is most needful.

When our people meet with the people of other Christian communions to worship God Almighty who is revealed in Christ Jesus, we are doing that which must be done if our world is to be one. Our people were not only represented at the World Council of Churches in Amsterdam, but in many a city and hamlet around the world our people join with Christians of varying persuasions to seek oneness with Christ and with all his people. This is ecumenical worship and is sorely needed.

There are two basic elements in an experience of worship. These elements are given of God. We do not create them. We cannot change them nor successfully deny them. The first of these basic elements is "the all-sufficient grace of God to usward." God's saving grace is most eloquently portrayed in the way in which Jesus Christ our Lord lived and died upon a cross. The other basic element in an experience of worship is our "total dependence upon God." Our dependence upon God is clearly indicated in our human weaknesses and needs.

Worship is the function of bringing these basic elements together. This is a decidedly intricate and fascinating exercise. It becomes increasingly interesting as we become ever more aware of its power and of its secret pathways. In worship the grace of God and our dependence upon God meet in a communion which both glorifies God and redeems us. Soren Kierkegaard has written this with eloquence and insight. He wrote,

> "Most Protestant church attenders act as if the church were a theatre, where they are the critical audience and where the minister is the actor whose art they are expected to enjoy and criticize. The situation in a church where the attenders have found their real relationship ought to be a very different one. The stage is still there, but now the attenders are upon it. They are the actors. The audience is there too. God is the audience. The preacher is there also, but he is inconspicuous in the scene. He is only the prompter. He is behind the scene whispering the text that they are the actors are speaking aloud before God. Worship has thus become an occasion for coming more consciously into the presence of God and of reviewing our lives under his loving scrutiny."

Christ our God is the major participant in all Christian experiences of worship. He is a presence. He longs for intimate communion with us. He waits for us to recognize and respond to his love. He is, in the words of Kierkegaard, an audience, and he is always expecting the drama of communion to begin and continue. He is not just waiting. He is actively engaged in a search for us. Jesus told the parables of "The Lost Coin," "The Lost Sheep," and "The Lost Son" as illustrations of this truth.

WE are the minor participants in Christian worship. God's invitation to commune with him comes and we make response. It is surely true that worship has its beginning in God's invitation to us. Thus, long before we ever think of worshipping, the invitation has already come. As participants we simply respond to God's urge to have traffic with us. The house of worship, the church bell, the steeple pointing heaven-ward, all are symbols to remind us of God's invitation to us to come. We must respond to the invitation of God.

The processional is one of the significant acts of worship which reaches back over the centuries. The choir and clergy making procession down the long aisle of the nave and into the chancel of a church are symbolic of the procession of persons back across two thousand years who have responded to the invitation of God in Christ Jesus. There is no lengthier procession in all of human experience. No procession has gathered more people. When we witness this re-enacted Sunday after Sunday we should be aware that we are part of that ceaseless response of the human soul in his need to Christ the adequate Saviour.

The penitential prayers are another significant part of worship whether it be private or public. As we envision the Holy God we become keenly aware of our personal limitations and pray earnestly for forgiveness. This form of prayer may be silent, it may be voiced by a clergyman, or it may be sung by the congregation. Is not this our intention when we sing,

Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because Thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come.

It is the intent of such prayers to clear away all the barriers to a free communion with God.

AFFIRMATION of faith is another significant portion of worship. This may be achieved through sacred music, through the reading of the Holy Scriptures, through the hearing of a sermon, or through the declaration of an ancient creed. Whatever helps us to affirm our oneness with God's will and way may be used in a vital experience of worship. Herein we gain a sense of certainty about our tomorrows. A student in a mid-western college went one Sunday to the Fourth Presbyterian Church of Chicago. She said of her experience, "I went to that service bewildered and dejected. While I was there a new sense of life's meaning came over me. My bewilderment left me. I have been happy from that moment to this. I cannot explain it. I only know that it happened."

The recessional is another significant act of worship. It is symbol of all the persons who have gone out from the sanctuaries of Christendom under the banner of service. After tarrying for a while in the presence of Christ the worshippers have gone out to serve in his name. Ours is not an ivory tower worship. It is a worship that gives power to help meet human needs.

If we see all this aright we will have a picture of ourselves responding to God's invitation, finding forgiveness and cleansing in his presence, affirming anew His faith in us which gives meaning and inspiration and destiny to life, going back into the streets to serve in his name. This is a plain pattern of worship. It ought to be plain for we Evangelical United Brethren people have always believed in the simple life of obedience to God's will. This pattern can be used by individuals. It can be used by families. It can be used by congregations. It has in it recognition of the fact that worship is the function whereby the all-sufficient grace of God meets our human needs.

The barest necessities for an experience of worship are as bare as a Quaker meeting house. All we really need are two or three gathered together in Christ's name with an urge to be his. Hymns, choirs, organs, and bells may be helpful but they are not essential. The Holy Scriptures, prayers, and sermons may be helpful voices to inspire and to guide thought but they are not fundamentals. What is needful are souls responding to God's search for souls, and this is that which is a "must" if we are to continue to go "Forward Together with Christ."

WE should encourage personal worship among all of our people during 1950. Members of the church should be encouraged to have a praying place enhanced by suggestive pictures, devotional literature and an intercessory prayer list. The value of such a spot grows with use until the sight of it draws the mind of the user to the discipline of personal communion with God.

We should encourage family worship among all our people during 1950. Families should be guided in methods of family altars. Hymns and devotional manuals along with the intimate needs of the family and its members become the stuff out of which effective family worship grows. Grace at meal time should be expected in every home of our communion. This should be the minimum standard for family worship.

Our congregations should be encouraged to perform more effectual corporate worship during 1950. Our ministers should seek for excellency at the priestly arts of guiding worship. A faithful and careful preparation for each hour of worship is the minister's assurance that he has done everything within his power to prepare an unhindered pathway upon which Christ and the people may find each other. All of the minister's assistants, ministerial, choral, and ushers can be helped to make more efficient preparation for worship. Let 1950 be a year when all of us work at the perfecting of our services of worship.

We should encourage our churches to be aware of oneness with all other Christians. This is one of the special privileges of Sunday morning. With the flights of the mind we can be aware of how all people who name Christ as Lord are gathered about Him in worship and thus how all are one in him. Thus we will be achieving the mind that can expect and encourage one world in Christ. We cannot go "Forward Together with Christ" as Evangelical United Brethren without going with all others who walk Christ's way, too. Let us use worship in 1950 to build the ecumenical mind among us.

The secret pathways of this art of worship are productive of great satisfactions. They can best be walked by those who are bent with their whole lives upon the evangelical task of affecting a continuous atonement between the all-sufficient grace of God and ever-needy human beings. Worship is one of the most cultured and wonderful expressions of the evangelistic passion for souls. Worship seeks to help persons find oneness with Christ and with Christ's followers.

The most recent temporary church building erected by our denomination in Germany is at Wueppertal-Barmen. It is in the West Germany Conference and replaces a church destroyed by bombing. Pastor and people are very happy to have the new house of worship.

Kingdom Advance Program Reaches Climax

By S. G. Ziegler, D.D.

ONE of special tasks undertaken by the United Church this quadrennium was the raising of a relief, reconstruction and advance fund for missions. Such a fund was necessary in order to replace the losses of Church and Mission property suffered in Europe and Asia during the war, and to further much needed advance projects in other fields. The responsibility for raising the money was placed in the hands of the Board of Missions. Early in the quadrennium the Board appointed a Directing Committee of which Dr. L. L. Huffman was chairman, "to outline, promote and administer this total program." Co-directors, one from each of the former communions in the United Church, were appointed to promote the campaign and supervise the field work. Two years, July 1, 1947 to June 30, 1949, were allowed to complete the campaign.

After studying our losses overseas and the need for new and advanced work in many of our Mission areas the Board fixed a goal of $2,300,000 as our objective. More than $300,000 of this amount was designated for relief. The United Church assumed this obligation in a high spirit of expectancy. Bishops, Conference Superintendents, pastors and lay leaders went to work with a willing spirit. At the annual meeting the Board of Missions in October the treasurer's report showed that we had exceeded our goal by more than $37,000. The total amount reported in the treasurer's statement as of September 30, 1949 was $2,337,279.15.

This achievement was possible because pastors and people gave loyal support to the campaign. The various agencies and organizations of the Church joined in the effort. The Women's Society of World Service contributed $488,572. The Youth Fellowship participated also and contributed a total of $81,141. The Brotherhood offered to co-operate in promoting the World Communion offerings in the fall of 1947 and 1948. While we do not have the exact figures for the money raised on these two occasions for relief and for other KAP objectives, we are certain that $300,000 is a conservative estimate of the contributions received as a result of the promotion carried on by the Brotherhood.

As soon as relief funds began to come in the Mission Board began to send them out to meet human needs in the strickened areas of the world. They were used to purchase food, clothing, and provided temporary shelter for the homeless. It soon became apparent, however, that our money gifts would have to be supplemented by material aid in the form of food packkages and bundles of used clothing. Rev. John F. Schaefer of Elgin, Illinois was asked to direct the material aids projects. There was a prompt response on the part of the churches and tons of good used clothing were collected, cleaned and shipped overseas. The Relief Committee in Germany alone reported the receipt of 563,200 pounds of material aid gifts including food, shoes, sewing articles, soap, candles, hospital supplies and other necessities for daily life. In addition to this 10,820 CARE packages of food and clothing were sent to Europe, and 7,100 parcels (22 pounds) from individuals and church organizations. These gifts do not include the many thousands of packages sent directly by friends and relatives in Canada and the United States.

Our Missions in Asia which lie within the war-stricken areas were well remembered with relief gifts also. Letters from pastors and missionaries indicate that our churches were quite generous in their help. Thousands of packages of food and clothing were received at the various centers. One Japanese pastor wrote in appreciation of what the Church in America was doing to relieve human need. "Herein is the truth of Christ's love; for the truth of Christ is manifested by American friends in letters and gifts which we have seen and heard and our hands have handled." A pastor in China wrote, "Your love for the preachers of China is manifest. You understand our difficulties and continually help us. To express our thanks we can only be more faithful in our work of preaching the gospel." Contributions for KAP relief were turned into gifts of food and clothing as soon as such exchanges were possible. In that sense money really was physical life to multitudes of starving people.

A similar effort was made to repair and reconstruct war-damaged or destroyed property. Four mission residences have been rebuilt, two new portable buildings have been constructed and four residences have been repaired and made habitable again. Four large school buildings have either been repaired or reconstructed and are serving the educational needs of children and youth. Extensive repairs have been made at five of our medical centers. Today as in former days their wards are filled with patients many of whom have no other source of medical help. More than two score churches have been reconstructed and others are in the process of being rebuilt. Out of the ashes of destruction and death new buildings are raised and with these buildings new hope for the future of mankind. One pastor in Germany expressed it in this striking fashion. "Through your gifts of love and relief you were able to drive out the ghost of frustration and to ban the soul-destroying hopelessness of the people."

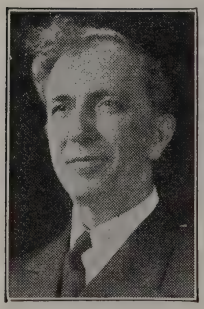

Although we have reached our goal we are not done. A great unfinished task stretches out ahead of us. That may seem strange to some who think that $2,300,000 of extra money ought to take care of special needs for years to come. The reason it looks so large is because we have no way of measuring the relief needs which had to be met and the wholesale destruction which had to be restored. The estimate losses suffered by our churches in Europe alone were more than a million dollars. If we were to undertake the restoration of our damaged and destroyed property in China and the Philippines it would require half the money available for overseas work. Measured in terms of actual need $2,300,000 is not enough to do all that ought to be done.

We must remember that today we face new issues which are powerful and world-wide in their scope. Heretofore the old pagan religions were passive. They offered little or no positive resistance. Now we are confronted by strange new forces which challenge the Church and her position in the world. Not since the Saracens swept up into Southern Europe have we faced such an aggressive power. We are not done. We simply pass from one big task to another with the assurance that ultimately right shall triumph over wrong.

D. T. Gregory, D.D.,
Executive Secretary

FORWARD TOGETHER WITH CHRIST is our quadrennial theme, adopted by the General Council. In keeping with this theme the General Conference recommended certain emphases for each of the church years during the quadrennium. For the church year of 1950-1951 the program anticipates the following:

Theme: Forward Together with Christ in Worship.

Scripture Texts: Luke 4:8—"Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve," and John 4:24—"God is a spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth."

A. F. Weaver, D.D.,
Associate Secretary

Aim: To help the entire membership of the church experience the presence of God in worship, and to consecrate their lives to his service.

Objectives:

1. To enrich the spiritual quality of worship and to promote increased attendance in the worship services.
2. To encourage private devotions as the ideal for every life, and family worship as the ideal for every home.
3. To seek observance of the Holy Communion by the entire membership of the church.
4. To cultivate and encourage a proper use of our great hymns as an enriching contribution to helpful worship.
5. To exalt the giving of tithes and offerings as a definite and regular act of worship.
6. To use the Lord's Prayer as it appears in Matthew 6:9-13, with the words debts and debtors.
7. To enlist at least 150 new life work recruits for the Christian ministry and missions.

Planning for General Conference

Perhaps the most significant event for the Evangelical United Brethren Church during 1950 will be our General Conference. The time and place of this meeting will be November 10 to 20, in Dayton, Ohio.

The duties and responsibilities of the General Council of Administration include the following:

1. To assemble the reports and memorials that are to be presented to the General Conference, and print and bind them in convenient form for presentation to the delegates of that assembly.

2. To make a comprehensive study of the total financial activities and needs of the denomination, of all general causes, annual conferences, and all other causes represented in the Missions and Benevolence Budget.

3. To recommend to the General Conference the Missions and Benevolence Budget for the quadrennium, the appropriations to the various beneficiary units, the quotas allocated to the several annual conferences for general causes and annual conference interests, and the percentage basis that shall prevail in each annual conference for the distribution of the funds raised for the Missions and Benevolence Budget.

In order that an equitable and fair consideration be accorded each conference with reference to its quota for general causes, the General Conference authorized the Council of Administration to calculate said quotas on the basis of (1) church membership; (2) average Sunday school attendance; (3) net property value; (4) total local current expense; (5) total missionary and benevolence contributions.

These mandates of the General Conference already are under way at the time of the publication of this article. Much of the work, however, will require attention and consideration, especially during the first six months of the calendar year.

The Otterbein Press

Dayton, Ohio

OUR publishing boards have just met and all reports indicate a good year for our publishing houses. At the Otterbein Press we have been very busy, and God blessed our efforts.

During the year we have completed our new offices, bringing together the offices into one large area for administrative purposes. These offices are modern in design and are proving very efficient. Our building with some 230 feet frontage on Fifth Street has undergone a complete face lifting. The old, large windows, which were in very bad condition, have been replaced with concrete block and some of our window frames with glass block completing each unit. This streamlines the building in appearance and makes it very attractive.

Our Board voted in August to purchase the four-story brick building adjacent to our present building and situated on the corner of Perry and Fifth Streets. The first floor is in the process of being remodeled for use as a ground floor book store. The book store has been on the fourth floor for many years. The demand for a first floor store has been growing, and we believe will be appreciated by many people who look to us for church supplies and books in this area.

The year 1950 will be an epochal one in our history. We expect to have a part in entertaining the first General Conference to meet in the city of Dayton in the history of our Church. We invite our people from far and near to make Dayton their mecca in November 1950 to attend General Conference; to visit the General Church offices in the U. B. Building; to worship in our churches; and to visit the Otterbein Press family at our publishing house and the new book store.

INFORMATION contained in this brief report is based on our fiscal year ending September 30, 1949. At that time we had 42,695 subscribers to The Telescope-Messenger and 86,618 subscribers to Builders. This shows a decrease of 827 in subscribers to The Telescope-Messenger and an increase of 6,769 to Builders.

We always have appreciated the co-operative relationship between our preachers and the Publishing House and time and again publishers of other denominations have admired our system and have expressed the wish that they might have similar contact with their ministers.

We are still of the opinion that some of our conferences are not measuring up to their ability in getting readers for our Church paper. We presented a report at the Annual Board Meeting in which we gave the membership of each conference and the number of subscribers in each conference. The percentages of these conferences ranged from 3% to 15%. North Dakota had the largest number of subscribers in comparison with its membership, namely, 15%.

The Evangelical Press enjoyed the largest total volume of sales in the history of our institution.

The Board of Publication at its meeting again authorized the payment out of profits of $40,000.00 for the Pension Board and $20,000.00 to the Annual Conferences for the support of retired ministers and the widows of ministers of the Church.

Publishing House

Stuttgart, Germany

THE "Christliche Verlagshaus" in Stuttgart, Germany, was partly demolished by bombs in July, 1944, and completely burned out. The damage amounted to 1,184,827 Reichsmarks.

Immediately after the armistice, reconstruction began. Rebuilding was slow,

Erected in 1928, the Publishing House was gutted by fire in World War II materials and money were lacking, production was hesitant and at first the Military Government had control of the capital.

In 1948 license was granted for the "Christliche Verlagshaus" to come under ecclesiastical leadership. Reconstruction of the premises now has proceeded to such an extent that production goes ahead unhindered. The director and editor live again in the reconstructed administration quarters at the rear of the Publishing House.

The Publishing House not only produces our own church literature but also does work for other publishers. One third of the orders are for our own church, two thirds for other publishers. The setup includes machines, a printing department with ten large and two small printing machines, a large binding department, and a bookshop.

Circulation figures for our Christian magazines are as follows: Evangelischer Botschafter, 20,000; Evangelischer Kinderfreund, 27,000; Gute Botschaft, 20,000; Jugendbote, 4,000, and Bethesdagruss, 9,000. The number of our members in Germany is 25,000. Our church literature, thus, is read by the members of other churches.

Since production was resumed our hymnbook, "Children's Harp," Christian education literature, and Christian novels by various authors, have come from the presses. Through a donation from the mother church in America it was possible to publish the hymnbook, "Children's Harp," and a "Prayer Book" by Rev. R. Leger at cheaper prices.

Delivery to the Eastern Zone is difficult on account of the difficult currency in this zone, where the exchange is 1:7. Our church members in the Eastern Zone can only be provided with our literature when the loss caused by the exchange is made good. The Eastern Conference has received a donation from the Kingdom Advance Program for this purpose.

The Publishing House is working well. Paper and material are obtainable. The year's turnover is approximately 1,000,000 D-Marks. Taxes, unfortunately, are very high. Half of the profits is swallowed by corporation taxes. Any profit goes to benefit the funds for the support of aged preachers.

The development of this undertaking has been made possible with the aid of loans. The German Conferences have granted large amounts. Other loans are still needed.

The Swiss Publishing House

Berne, Switzerland

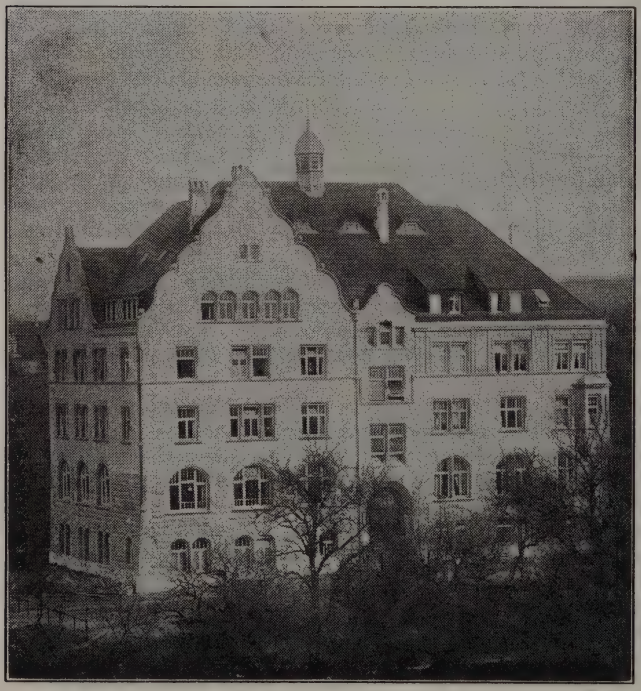

ALTHOUGH the Switzerland Conference numbers only 6,700 members in one of the small countries of Europe, it has been found expedient to set up a Publishing House within its boundaries. It's ministry reaches far beyond the sphere of our church membership. A great number of pastors and laymen of the State Church patronize particularly the book stores which have had great success. In 1945 a branch book shop was established in Thun in Bernese Oberland.

Periodicals are printed as follows: Evangelischer Botschafter, 5,900 subscriptions; Der Kinderfreund, 5,000 subscriptions; Der Kreuzfahrer (monthly periodical for our youth), Der Weg, Evangelischer Missionsfreund" (monthly periodicals and tracts), together about 6,100; Christlicher Hausfreund (illustrated family calendar), edition: 17,000; Evangelischer Familienfreund (sheet calendar with daily Biblical considerations), edition: 6,800.

Books by well-known authors and calendars are also printed.

During the past five years the profits have permitted the payment of Fr. 35,000 to the Pension Fund and an additional Fr. 20,000 to the salaries of the editors. During the past five years business has reached Fr. 1,000,000. E. GANTSCHI, Publisher.

Board of Pensions

J. H. Ness, D.D., Associate Secretary (left); A. H. Doescher, D.D., Executive Secretary-Treasurer (right)

THE year 1949 is a significant milestone in the history of pensions in the Evangelical United Brethren Church. First, because of the urgent need of our retired ministers and ministers' widows, the Board of Pensions voted a Special Grant of ten per cent to all beneficiaries. While this is far from enough to cover the sharp increase in the cost of living, it is a great help to these worthy servants of the Church. The Board of Pensions now makes payments to more than one thousand annuitants. The total pensions paid during the calendar year 1949 was $341,865 including the Special Grant. This is an average of about $400 to ministers and $200 to widows. The present maximum of regular payments is $600 for ministers and $360 for widows.

The second important advance step in the ongoing program of pensions in our Church was the completion of an exhaustive study of the possibility of equalizing pensions paid to beneficiaries of the two older pension systems, namely, the Ministerial Pension and Annuity Plan (UB) and the Superannuation Plan (Ev). This study was made in harmony with the instructions of the General Conference. Two special committees consisting of the following members of the Board and representative Conference Superintendents, the latter appointed by the Conference of Superintendents (held in Dayton in December 1948), rendered valuable service: Bishop John S. Stamm, Bishop J. Balmer Showers, Mr. Edwin Heina, Mr. Clarence O. Schlegel, Dr. John H. Ness and Dr. Arthur H. Doescher of the Board, and Conference Superintendents Dr. David E. Young, Rev. R. O. Steely, Rev. H. F. Siemsen, Dr. C. E. Kachel, Dr. L. M. Hohn and Dr. B. E. Smith. Actuary George A. Huggins and his staff of associates made the actuarial calculations.

The result of this study reveals the fact that in order to pay all beneficiaries on the same basis, one-third more money will be needed by each department. While plans are not fully outlined for presentation to the General Conference, this basic fact is reasonably well established, namely, that to pay all beneficiaries of both pension plans on the same basis, additional funds equal to one-third of the pension payments being made will be required. Thus, if the present regular pension load is $320,000, an additional sum of about $107,000 will be required to carry out the proposed program.

These findings are not to be interpreted to mean that all beneficiaries will receive one-third more than they are being paid currently. However, the Board has established the principle that no member of either Pension Plan shall receive less than the department of which he is a member provided for him at the time of the Union. Any adjustment or change in the basis of his benefits shall increase rather than decrease his annuity.

The need for larger contributions is obvious. These can come from congregations, the General Budget, Publishing House dividends, special gifts from individuals, including annuity agreements, and bequests.

The specific goals for the year 1950 include the following important elements:

1. Every congregation is urged to meet its pension apportionment in full. By action of the General Conference this obligation is an amount equal to four per cent of the pastor's salary for all former Evangelical churches and an amount equal to three per cent for all former United Brethren churches. This is a debt of honor which we owe those who have served faithfully. Our duty is to support them honorably. Let no local church fail to do its share and more if at all possible.

2. The Board of Pensions is eager to enter into annuity agreements with those who have money to invest or who wish to make a gift to this important enterprise, but who also need the income from their money. The Board offers liberal interest rates on annuity agreements. Outright gifts are also welcome.

3. All actice ministers of our Church may participate in this pension program. Those pastors who have not yet been ordained and received into the itinerancy may make contributions and thus begin a pension program for themselves which will be of inestimable value in years to come.

Further information concerning the work of the Board of Pensions can be secured by writing to Dr. Arthur H. Doescher, Executive Secretary-Treasurer, 1800 U. B. Building, Dayton 2, Ohio.

Changing of a few words in a single paragraph in the Discipline often makes a great difference. All these Memorials will go before a special committee "On Memorials" composed of delegates to the General Conference. The committee will place them in proper form or if a memorial is out of harmony with the constituted rites of the denomination they may even eliminate such a memorial.

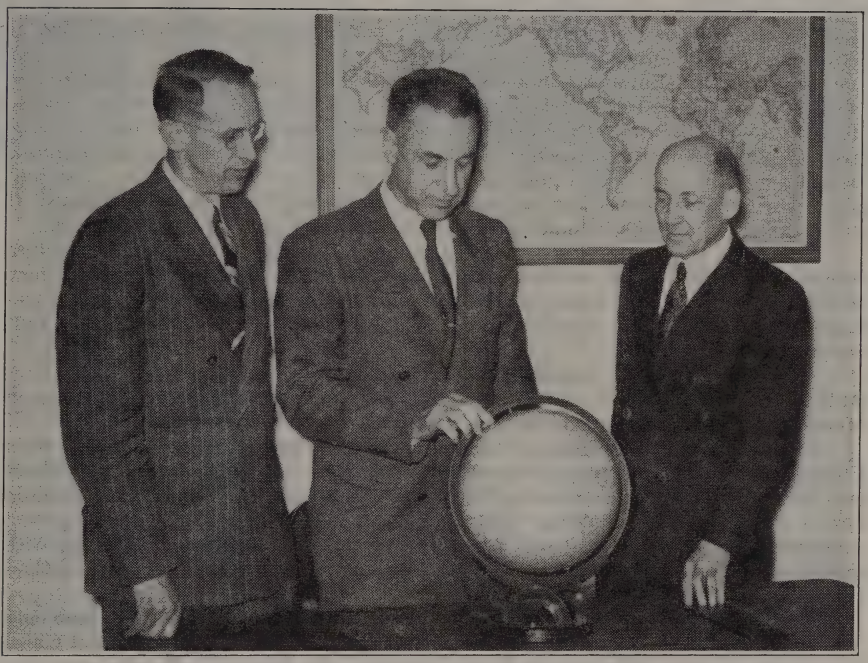

There is little doubt but what there will be much debate and argument concerning some of these proposals. At the last General Conference the delegates accepted almost en toto what the commissioners handed down or what was recommended by the Board of Bishops. That will not obtain in this General Conference. The General Conference is a purely democratic body and every one has a right to express himself or herself.

Let us pray that we may have the presence of the Holy Spirit to guide us into all truth. We will pray that out of that which seems to be chaos and confusion at times will come a better and a stronger church. No matter how sincere we may be we need wisdom and guidance from above.

NEW MEMBERS

After Easter why not hold a reception for new members? Give them a public welcome, the most impressive the church has ever had. Arrange repeated calls at the homes of new members. Provide literature for them and introduce The Telescope-Messenger, Builders, The Home, into their homes. Have Sunday-school classes welcome them. Get them into church organizations. Enlist them in church service and financial support. Assign sponsors to them.

DEPARTMENT OF WORLD MISSIONS

ANOTHER year of uncertainty in human affairs has passed into history, leaving many of the world's major problems still unsolved. It has been a year of tension in many lands, a period of constant change, requiring continual alertness on the part of Christian leaders to sense the changes and grasp the new opportunities which arise. In the face of the uncertainties we have made advances against the waste and destruction of war by the reconstruction of Mission property. There is real danger, however, that we may assume that our obligations are met when we have succeeded in furnishing and re-equipping devastated Mission areas. We must guard against such a fallacious conclusion.

W. O. Clark, Treasurer

Our missionaries at home and abroad have served with sacrificial devotion the central purpose of the Church, namely, the proclamation of the good news by word and deed to all mankind. A few glorious achievements have been attained in spite of staggering problems, which we believe will become increasingly significant in the ongoing missionary enterprise. We pause to give recognition to that group of workers, who having reached the age of retirement and well-earned rest continue to carry on during these difficult post-war years until new recruits can be sent to the field.

Our Italian Mission in Wisconsin continues its good work. Pastors and people carried on well during the year. Negotiations are now in process to integrate this Mission into the Wisconsin Conference where the congregations will have the privilege of a larger fellowship with our churches in the state than their present relation to the Board now makes possible.

The Red Bird Mission in Kentucky offers a large opportunity for service, with the school enrollment taxing our inadequate facilities at present. Our long delayed rebuilding program following the devasting flood of 1947 has hindered the progress of this work. In our evangelistic advance we added another church to our list of active organized congregations.

The church in Europe is showing remarkable recuperative powers. Out of the ashes of death and destruction she rises renewed in faith and purpose. Nearly a score of churches have been rebuilt and some new Missions established in the large concentration centers for displaced persons. These multitudes divested of home and in many instances of citizenship are in great need of the church's ministry of love. The program of reconstruction has lost its momentum temporarily through lack of funds. It will be most unfortunate if funds are not forthcoming to proceed with this work.

Two large advance projects occupy a prominent place in our program in Sierra Leone, West Africa. They are the Harford School for Girls at Moyamba and the new hospital at Rotifunk. A strong indigenous church is coming to fruitage in Sierra Leone as a result of the labors wrought through many years by consecrated missionaries.

A new hospital and Mission Center is in course of construction at Bambur, Sudan Mission. During the year the work was expanded into the newly adopted Mumuye District and the first missionaries stationed there.

Challenging opportunities confront the few missionaries remaining in our Central China Mission. All communications indicate that they are still carrying on without any particular interference from the new government leaders. This is a great time to bear witness in loving ministries to a much harassed people. The most significant event that transpired this year was the uniting of the Central China Conference with the Hunan Synod of the Church of Christ in China. Now both of our Mission Conferences are a part of this United Church.

The growth of the work in the Philippines raises some very serious problems. The staff now largely augmented by missionaries who had to evacuate Central China has started a period of expansion beyond anything the Mission has experienced before. The redeeming factor about all this is that the Philippines are ripe for such expansion.

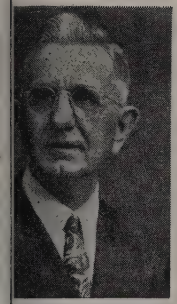

Outstanding missionary leaders say that Japan offers the biggest missionary challenge the Church has faced in 500 years. There are many signs that this observation is correct. Mission Boards are trying to take advantage of these open doors. New missionaries are being sent to the field and the Evangelical cause is being strengthened greatly by the growing unity in the Church of Christ in Japan.

Latin America was formerly represented by three small missions, Puerto Rico, Santo Domingo and Ecuador. This year another field was added to the list when the Board took action to begin mission work in Brazil. This may prove to be one of our major missions in a few years, largely because of the bigness of the country and the rapidity with which it is being developed.

The response of the home church to this far-reaching enterprise has been encouraging. Our Kingdom Advance Program made possible a large amount of reconstruction work. Our current receipts carried on the normal work and allowed for some expansion each year since church union. This is most gratifying, but as we look ahead and face a sin-weary world we are aware of the fact that the price of victory will be a more exacting service of love and sacrifice.

Conference Extension

THE work assigned to the Department this quadrennium includes Conference Missionary Extension; supervision of three of our Special Home Mission Fields: New Mexico; Ybor City, Tampa, Florida; and the South Central District in Kentucky.

Missionary Purpose—The ability of the Church to make her world mission effective rests in her resources at home. To the strengthening of these resources, the General Department of Church Extension and the Annual Conference Boards of Missions are organized.

Our final objective is that every Christian and every Church be enlisted in the support of this program with the fullest measure of devotion and sacrifice, in order that the Church at home may be a strong arm to extend its missionary program into the waiting harvest fields abroad.

Church Extension Objectives—The objective of our Conference Extension program is to help establish and maintain the Church in new and unchurched areas within the bounds of our Annual Conferences. The first step toward this goal is the strengthening and bringing to stability and self-support the more than 700 missionary and marginal churches, now receiving annually some $335,000 toward pastoral support. Of this amount $139,000 is appropriated by the General Department of Church Extension. During the past year the Department aided 45 church and parsonage building projects in grants totaling $118,000. Loans were also issued to 48 churches distributed in 30 conferences totaling $425,000.

Bureau of Architecture—The past year has been one of increasing service to our churches through the Bureau of Church Architecture. Now we are in the midst of a heavy building program that is straining our resources to the utmost. In one conference alone over one million dollars worth of building is now under construction or definitely being planned for the near future. During the past year, the secretaries have met with seventy-eight different church committees to give careful consideration to both architectural and financial plans for their new buildings. In order to help the Annual Conference Boards of Missions in this work of guidance of church building projects within their conferences, our Bureau has made available to each Conference Board a set of excellent books on Church Architecture.

A matter of equal concern to our Bureau has been to secure construction of buildings with good architectural design. There is no longer any necessity nor excuse for building without good plans. The Bureau is happy to give careful study and suggestions in connection with the building programs of even the smallest church. A good library of books on Church Architecture is available on a loaning basis. The Bureau is now presenting lectures on Church Architecture with the use of new kodachrome slides, presenting desirable types of construction. We have also provided leadership for a course on Church Architecture in the curriculum of a Conference Assembly.

Town and Country Church—All fifty-one annual conferences now have Rural Life Commissions. A Quarterly Rural Church Bulletin of 5,000 copies is published. The department has aided in the strengthening of the rural life book sections of both Bonebrake and Evangelical Seminaries' Loan-Library service up to $200. It has aided sixty rural ministers to attend in-service training schools of three days' up to five weeks' duration. Our denomination now has affiliate membership in the Interdenominational Christian Rural Fellowship with more than seventy subscribers who receive all of the literature of the Fellowship. The Commission has been granted permission by the Board of Missions to hold a National Planning Conference in 1951 for the purpose of projecting its quadrennial program to our constituency.

Special Mission Fields

Spanish-American Mission—In our Spanish-American Mission Field in New Mexico a three-fold program is promoted, namely: a preaching mission through 10 organized churches and preaching places; a healing ministry through the Espanola Hospital, Health Center at Santa Cruz, and through Health Extension Clinics; and a teaching program through our four Plaza schools and our high and boarding school located at Santa Cruz. The present staff for the administration and promotion of this total program including the pastors, teachers, medical and nursing staff, and the necessary supervision of the program on the field totals 60 missionaries. The annual budget for the support of the workers and operation of the program this year is $224,000, of which one-half is paid by the Board of Missions and the other half from income from the field through tuitions, charges and services rendered.

Market advance has been made during the past five years in the enlarging and strengthening of the program and in the erection of new buildings and additional facilities. The outstanding project is the gift by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur N. Pack of $385,000 for the erection and equipment of the new Mission Hospital and Nurses' Home at Espanola. Other new buildings completed during the past five years include the Clinic at Santa Cruz, a grade school building, a new institutional size laundry building and equipment for both the hospital and school use, and four workers' cottages, two of which are duplex structures at the cost of $100,000. This year a dormitory for boys and a central heating plant at Santa Cruz; and a chapel at Petaca will be completed. A superintendent's cottage at the hospital has just been completed. The total cost of these projects will be approximately $135,000.

Ybor City Mission—Our newest special city mission project is located in the Latin section of Tampa, Florida. A two-fold program is being promoted in this field, namely, an evangelistic program through the newly organized church, and visitation program; and an educational program through regular kindergarten and grade school classes. A staff of seven workers carry on the activities. The annual operating budget of $25,000 required to promote the work is shared about equally, with the Board of Missions paying one-half and the other half from receipts of tuitions and offerings.

Kentucky Mission—The program of our South Central Kentucky Rural District includes evangelism, religious education, health and community projects. This work is carried on through the eleven organized mission churches situated in five counties with the Community Center located in the Barnett's Creek Community. The staff includes three pastors and four other workers. The operating budget of $16,000 is paid by the Board of Missions and the balance by the churches on the field. During the past ten years seven new churches and chapel buildings have been erected and three parsonages provided. The Smith Grove Church is now under construction. The next projects to be undertaken when funds are available and the program outlined, will be the erection of churches at Union Chapel and Bear Wallow. A chapel for the Desda community will be erected next year. Studies are being made relative to establishing a new mission in Columbia, Kentucky.

Interdenominational Co-operation—Through the affiliation with the Home Missions Council of North America and other agencies, the department shared in the promotion of some thirty missionary projects, including work among minority groups, racial groups, and projects in special areas. Toward the support and administration of these projects the department gave $5,200. The Home Missions Council will hold a National Congress in Columbus, Ohio, January 24-27, 1950, to which our denomination is entitled to have thirty representatives. Its central purpose is to develop a comprehensive strategy of home missions, for the immediate years ahead, and to give impetus to a great forward movement for a fuller Christianization of America as an essential part of the world Christian mission of the Church.

Challenge to Church Extension in America

Extending the Church—It is a startling fact that there are now in America more people without active relationship to the Church of Christ than ever before in her history. This is likewise true of the whole world. The genius of the Christian Church has been its missionary zeal in pressing into the unevangelized areas of the world with the redeeming gospel of Christ.

We are now challenged by two areas of need in the field of Church Extension. First, we are living in a day of development of vast new residential areas usually as suburbs of our large cities. In hundreds of cases these areas are under-churched and in imminent danger of becoming pagan areas in our country. This is our church extension "frontier." Another sector of our present frontier is the open country. Many a rural church in the areas surrounding our cities was closed years ago because of the desire of parents to give their children the benefit of life in larger Sunday schools and churches of the city. Here is a frontier in the rural areas, also,—sheep going astray unless the church extends its ministry to reach these scattered people and leads them into active relationship to the fold of God.

Providing the Building—The second great areas of need calling for aggressive church extension activity is in the field of our physical equipment. Most of our church buildings are modest structures, very modest, with many of them very uninviting, not to say ugly. Yet they seek to call men to a beautiful Christian fellowship. Let it be said to the credit of our fathers, however, that they built, in most cases, as wisely as they knew how, and with a devotion and spirit of sacrifice to put most of our generation to shame. Now we are witnessing a church roused to the need for new and better buildings. A thousand million dollars worth of new Protestant churches are now being planned. But how shall we avoid the expensive mistakes of faulty construction and design? Here is a second area of challenge to church extension leaders of the General Church and of the Annual Conferences. Helps are now available to guide congregations in following good procedure to get buildings that will be a source of joy now and grow richer with age. No church should be erected without taking advantage of all the helps our denomination and the Interdenominational Bureau of Church Architecture have to offer.

Meeting the Need—As in many other situations, there are two great lacks, men and money. In every conference we need a growing number of men deeply devoted to the task of extending the gospel into the unreached areas for which they are responsible. The need for large sums of money is equally great. To open a mission in an attractive residential area costs far more than the local membership can afford. If an adequate structure is to be provided, the other churches of the conference, with the help in some cases of the General Board, must be prepared to make an initial investment of some considerable size. Loans must also be provided in most cases where churches are now to be built.

The simple fact is that the General Church does not possess adequate funds to meet such present needs. If we are to meet the minimum needs for Church Extension within our Annual Conferences today, a way must be found to provide larger loan funds for our churches. Likewise, in the matter of grants to building projects. At present high costs of building, mission congregations must receive help in the form of outright grants. They cannot carry the interest charge on large loans. Here is a need for Church Extension investment of missionary grants. Such is the challenge of Church Extension in the cause of Christ.

Women's Society of World Service

DURING the past year the Women's Society of World Service has endeavored through a program of education, service, prayer and giving to fulfill in greater measure its purpose which is:

a. To unite all the women of the Evangelical United Brethren Church to make Christ known throughout the world.

While we are far from that ultimate goal, we are happy to report that to date we have a membership of 101,997 organized in 3,054 societies, both of which figures represent a net gain over last year. Through a recent survey it was discovered that approximately 325 local units are organized on the unified plan. It is also worthy of note that there is an increasing interest in the enlistment of business and professional women in the Christian Service Guild. To get a more complete picture we add to the above figures the 7,742 girls in the Girls' Missionary Guild and the 64,894 children, reported as having been reached by our program of missionary education.

b. To deepen the spiritual life of each of its members.

We recognize this phase of our purpose to be basic to all of our progress, for only as we go deeper, can we go farther. We realize that it is difficult to tabulate progress in this part of our work and yet we are encouraged by figures like these: 52,138 members use the Manual of Spiritual Living, 38,515 are enrolled in the Fellowship of Prayer, 1,176 groups held a stewardship study class, 2,187 societies observed the Day of Prayer and 2,327 societies participated in the observance of the World Day of Prayer.

c. To develop a sense of personal responsibility for the whole task of the Church.

Always we seek to remember that we are an integral part of the Church and therefore should have an active interest in the total program of the Church. Indeed "Church Loyalty" is one of our Spiritual Life emphases. Our program of Missionary

Education, with its emphasis on well prepared and effectively presented monthly programs, with its promotion of study classes and the reading course, with its stress on one hundred per cent observance of World Service Day and on an increase in subscribers to and readers of The World Evangel, seeks to make each member aware of her duties and privileges as a Christian, as a member of a missionary society and as a member of the Church.

Another channel whereby a sense of personal responsibility is developed is the Christian Social Relations emphasis. We note an increasing understanding of and interest in this phase of work as evidenced by the many and varied projects sponsored by our societies. While there continues to be a good reporting of food and clothing sent to Europe and the Orient, it is interesting to note that this past year more societies emphasized Interracial Goodwill and Christian Citizenship than any of the other areas of concern.

d. To secure funds through a systematic means for the maintenance of the missionary work of the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

The increases in the finances of our Society for the maintenance of missionary work are, as has been pointed up in the foregoing paragraphs, the natural result of an enlarged membership, a deepened spiritual life and a greater sense of personal responsibility. We are indeed happy to report an increase of $40,574.99 over the preceding year, our total giving being $803,729.64. We do not think of this amount as cold cash but rather we think of it in terms of souls won, minds enlightened, leaders trained, bodies healed, churches, schools and hospitals rebuilt, all in His name and for His sake.

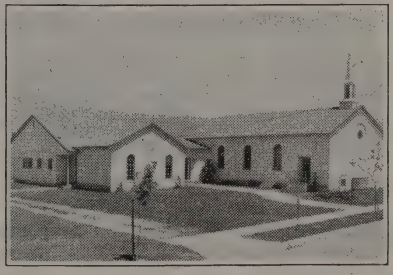

Included in the total giving is $96,388.47 given by the children. Since in connection with each offering there is a correlated program of missionary education, we believe this generous giving on the part of the children is an expression of a genuine and enthusiastic interest in the projects for which the money is designated.

While the missionary funds of the Youth Fellowship and the Girls' Missionary Guilds are not reflected in our report, we note with pleasure the steady increase in missionary giving which again is an expression of a growing missionary interest which in turn is the result of a more widespread and intensive emphasis on missionary education.

As we check our achievements in the light of our purpose there comes a certain sense of satisfaction of work well done, but we are not content, for when viewed in the light of the overwhelming need for Christ around the world and the untouched spiritual and material resources within our reach, our achievements seem small and inadequate. In the words of our quadrennial theme, "We Press On" in the year ahead to help release these resources which will make possible a greatly enlarged missionary program for our Church at home and overseas. "We Press On," confident that our God is the answer to every need and that He is counting on us to make His Son, our Savior, known and loved by people everywhere.

Our desire is that, when we meet in our first Quadrennial Convention in the Brookside Church, Indianapolis, October 12-16, 1950, we will have greater victories to record, not for any praise that may come to our organization but that He who leads us may be glorified.

"Forward Together With Christ in Training"

THE Board of Christian Education has been doing its utmost during the past year to co-operate with all the other departments of our Church in going "Forward Together with Christ in Training." We believe that real progress has been made all along the line. In this total effort the department of Christian Education has proceeded on the basis that every part of its program of work has been dedicated to the service of evangelism, missions, stewardship, Christian social action and the total purpose of the Church. For Christian education is not an end in itself. It is a means to the true ends of the Christian Church. When so conceived and so used it renders valuable service to the Christian aim of going "Forward together with Christ in Training."

The major method used the past year in rendering such service was a series of Annual Conference Planning Consultations. These consultations were carried out in close co-operation with the Commission on Evangelism. These two agencies planned a closely knit promotional program in which varied audio-visual aids were used to show how the work of the Church can be forwarded in local parishes through the guidance of Annual Conference Boards of Christian Education, Commissions on Evangelism, Brotherhood Executive Committees and Youth Fellowship Executive Councils. The members of these Annual Conference agencies were called together to consider these tools for service and to confer about their wisest use. All of the Annual Conference groups participated and the program was received almost universally with high appreciation and enthusiasm. Not only were they impressed with the effective use of audio-visual tools for teaching and promoting, but again and again expression was given to the thought that these demonstrated the basic unity of the whole work of the whole church.

The real proof of the value of these consultations will be seen in how effectively these means are used in all of our local churches to enlist lay workers, train them for service, and guide them in a great advance in which a united effort is made to lead boys and girls and men and women to Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord.

Our Evangelistic Advance

THESE Annual Conference Consultations purposed to provide the means for enabling our churches to participate in all phases of the United Evangelistic Advance in which 37 Protestant denominations are united this year. If they are properly dedicated to Christian service they will be a great help toward enabling The Evangelical United Brethren Church to do its share in this great spiritual movement. For they are designed for use in local parishes, and that is where real Christian teaching and evangelism and social action and stewardship and worship and missionary enthusiasm are engineered, developed and used for service. The Christian Education forces of the general Church, of the Annual Conferences and of our local churches must be ready and willing to lose themselves in this united service. For in thus losing itself, Christian education will begin to really find itself in the Church.

Thus far, the outstanding evidence of this united service is the close co-operation between the departments of Christian education and evangelism. Working together with combined staff leadership, under a united strategy, in a united field program, these departments have set an example of co-operative Christian service for the Church that has gained the attention of the entire denomination in a few short years. That same "united-ness" is manifesting itself increasingly on the Annual Conference and local church levels. In fact, in many cases it is being said that it is impossible to tell where evangelism leaves off and Christian education begins, or vice versa. Our prayer is that this condition may increase and advance apace throughout the Church.

Training for Christian Service

In harmony with this basic conception of the place of Christian Education in the Church, the leadership education program is being promoted as training for Christian service. For "he who would be greatest in the Kingdom must become the minister (or servant) of all." It is the aim of our training program to help our people to see that this must be the motive in our leadership in the church and its departments and agencies. Leadership education is not for the purpose of preparing a specialized group of privileged "fuehrers." It is to call the rank and file of the church to dedication to Christian service and to equip them through training for such service in all of the functions of the Christian program of action. This involves more than preparing teachers for our Sunday schools. It does include that important purpose, but it also includes the discovery and training of leaders for children's work, youth work, men's work, women's work, missions, education, social action and all other phases of the Christian program.

During 1950 much attention will be paid to the use of the Christian Service Training "Core" Program, which includes four First Series leadership courses, leading to a denominational Certificate of Achievement. Detailed information can be obtained from the office of the Board of Christian Education.

Christian Higher Education

Standing at the head of our educational list are our eight colleges and three seminaries. Every effort is being made to bring these church-related educational institutions to their highest possible efficiency in serving the Church and the Kingdom. Splendid progress has been made. But there is still much to be done. Working under the mandate of the General Conference the Board of Christian Education has appointed a Commission on the Study of Higher Education which Commission is to prepare a report and recommendations to the next General Conference. This study is now in progress and is based on the General Conference action that our colleges and seminaries shall be given every possible assistance to become accredited, strong institutions that can give Christian training to our youth to prepare them for Christian service in church and community.

During this year a new church student program has been launched in our denomination and a denominational pattern is developing. The first full-time Minister to Students has been appointed and is working under a new Board of Control for Student Work in Ohio, through which the conferences in Ohio are co-operating. A similar program is making splendid progress in Indiana. Student Centers have been purchased at Ohio State University and Purdue University. This work should develop also in other states in order to shepherd our Evangelical United Brethren youth on campuses other than our own schools.

Church School Administration

A large part of the work of Christian Education is concerned about matters of administration in the church school. This involves the organization of the work in local churches according to the provisions of the Discipline. During 1950 strong emphasis will be made on this phase of our work. The importance of the work of the local church directors of Christian Education and the Sunday school officers will be promoted. During the past year our "Strengthen the Sunday School" program has been gaining momentum. In churches where it is seriously applied, the results are being realized that the program promises. This work will be continued with renewed emphasis in the coming years as a major phase of the United Advance.

The work of administration is also related to curriculum problems. This past year a strong beginning was made in understanding our curriculum problems through an effective denominational Curriculum Conference that was held at Indiana Central College, Indianapolis, Indiana, attended by 120 invited leaders of general Church, Annual Conferences and local churches. The results of this exploratory conference will be employed by our denominational Interboard Educational Program Committee to develop as effective a balanced and total Christian curriculum for our local churches as we possibly can.

"Let the Children Come"

In this total curriculum must be everything the Church does to help children come to know Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. The objective of our Children's Work is to evangelize the child and the home, and everything in this program is tested by this principle. Our literature, our Vacation Church Schools, our Children's Departments in our Sunday church schools, our Junior societies, our Junior camps, our Junior catechetical instruction—all this together is integral and vital to our total program in the Church. The challenge to children's workers and their commitment and training is constantly a chief objective of our children's work program in institute, laboratory school, training camp or local church class. Guidance materials have been prepared for Annual Conference and local church directors of children's work and a Manual and Program Guide for Children's Work are now available. A new catechism for Juniors and a teacher's guide for it will be available this next year.

"Youth—For Christ and the Church"

The Young People's work program of our Church is also a vital part of our Christian advance. This includes our Youth Fellowship with its growing work; the church student work program in our own colleges and on other campuses; the new doctrinal textbooks for the catechetical instruction of intermediate and older youth; and our summer intermediate and youth camps and assemblies with their rapidly expanding activities and facilities; and our summer service projects for college students. Our Evangelical United Brethren youth gave over $80,000.00 to mission and benevolence projects last year, in addition to supporting their own Fellowship program. The year 1950 will witness a great advance in our youth work all along the line, making use of Youth Evangelism Month and Youth Week in January and the four major emphases of the World Service Program. In addition, our young people do our Church credit in the fine way they do their part in the United Christian Youth Movement—the interdenominational youth program of our Protestant churches.

Adults at Work in the Church

Christian Education is also serving the Church and the Kingdom through the guidance it gives to Adult Work so that men and women are trained and guided in rendering Christian service through the organized activities of their various groups. This includes Sunday school classes, young adult fellowships, Christian Endeavor Leagues, Brotherhoods and all other organized groups that involve educational training and preparation for service. As we face out to the last year of the present quadrennium the purpose of our adult program is to put the adults of our churches to work through the Church so that childhood, youth and adults will be "Workers together for God." In all of this, the most remarkable growth in size and action is being demonstrated by our men's work through the Brotherhood.

In 1950 our men will continue to support evangelism and to sponsor the "Greater Service" offering of the Church on World Communion Sunday. Young adult fellowships will be given definite guidance for a growing program. An Adult Program Guide and Manual have been prepared and are available to all local churches to help them to put their adults to work in the Church.

Inspirational Periods

There are two weeks in the Church Year where the Christian Education agencies should have right-of-way in order to further the interests of this important work in a special way. These are Christian Family Week, early in May, and Christian Education Week, which closes with the first Sunday in October. When these weeks are used properly they will inform the whole church of our mission in Christian teaching through church and home and will rally all our forces to move "Forward together with Christ in Service" in the last year of our quadrennium. We shall strive to serve to make it the best and most fruitful year of the four.

THE BROTHERHOOD

BY L. L. HUFFMAN, LL.D., Secretary

THE Brotherhood of the Evangelical United Brethren Church has carried on an aggressive program during the year with Dr. W. R. Montgomery as Adult Director, and Torrey A. Kaatz as its President. New brotherhoods have been organized and conference brotherhoods have been increasing the efficiency of their organization and their program. The men of the Church in every congregation should be organized so that the manpower of our Church may be harnessed for a great advance along the lines of Christian training, evangelism, missions, Christian social action, and Christian stewardship.

Brotherhood Project. In the first two years of our quadrennium the Brotherhood was responsible for sponsoring the World Communion Day offering for relief. The Kingdom Advance Committee reported that "as a conservative estimate a total of $300,000" was realized in these two great offerings. Of this, $240,000 was used for relief in Europe, Japan and China and other stricken areas of the world.

The Brotherhood is asking for a new project in the next quadrennium. It is now planned that the Brotherhood be given the responsibility for a great annual offering to aid and assist in the erection of new churches in our own conferences where they are so badly needed and where there is such great opportunity for our Church to serve.

The Brotherhood seeks to undergird the total church program and is especially interested in the evangelism objectives of the Church. Men should be enlisted in every church to go out two by two in winning others to Christ and the Church. Every local church is a brotherhood; let's organize that brotherhood for Christian advance.

Evangelism

Dr. Ralph Holdeman, Assistant Secretary; Dr. O. T. Deever, Executive Secretary; Dr. R. H. Mueller, Associate Secretary

CHRIST is the one hope of America and of the world. He alone can save us from our sins individually, and he alone can save our nation from its sinful ways. America is in a crisis. The spiritual depression following our tragic war is as bad as the war itself. We are constantly talking of more guns and atomic bombs to defend our democracy, but say little of the moral and spiritual regeneration needed to save our citizenship. Christ alone has the answer. It is a time when every Christian needs to be faithful and help our denomination to stand firm and strong against the terrific inroads of worldliness and evil.

In the face of the low sag in morality and spiritual life, increasing secularization of life, the easygoing complacency of Christians, evangelism stands out with heightened urgency. Since he is "the way, the truth and the life," it is imperative that we make him "known, loved, trusted, obeyed and exemplified" in every area of life. This is the primary task of the Church and our most pressing responsibility.

Our Evangelistic Advance

CONFRONTED by the above challenge, the Evangelical United Brethren Church has joined with thirty-eight other Protestant denominations in a fifteen-month Evangelistic Advance. This crusade launched on October 2, 1949, is gaining momentum and gives promise of being the greatest evangelistic effort of this century viewed at least from the fact that the largest number of denominations have joined in such a joint enterprise in this century.

We are, in the last third of our first quadrennium in the new Church, blest with many evangelistic victories. God has been with our united Church. The 1948 report shows 44,732 members received, or approximately sixty per cent of our goal of 75,000 persons won to Christ and the Church in a year. While this is 6,931 above a four-year average of the two former denominations, it is not enough. The report also shows 40,378 conversions which is 8,586 beyond the previous four-year average. This also is not enough. The 28,508 additions on confession of faith, 3,659 more than the four-year average preceding church union, is far from an adequate expression of our response to Christ's challenging "Go ye," in view of the world situation now confronting us.

It will take a strong, united church-wide effort to bring the quadrennium to a satisfactory close with evangelistic objectives more fully realized, thus preparing the way for still greater work in the years that lie ahead.

Our General Commission with its twenty-five members including our nine active Bishops, re-enforced in its leadership by our fifty-one Annual Conference Commissions on Evangelism, who are in turn followed enthusiastically by our ministers and the local committees on evangelism, under the guidance and empowering of the Holy Spirit can surely lead to the spiritual victory for which we long and pray.

Ten Minimum Essentials

THERE are at least ten minimum essential evangelistic activities that every local church can and should engage in during this fifteen-month crusade. If we are to conquer for Christ and the Church, we cannot do less than these basic things. If the Church is to have spiritual victory and if there is to be an ingathering of souls who are born again, and if our denomination is to help win the fight against sin, ungodliness and worldliness, every local church cannot do less than these important essentials:

1. Utilize your Comittee on Evangelism to help plan and carry out this continuous and on-going program of evangelism.
2. Observe World Communion Sunday.
3. Use October for a church attendance crusade.
4. Co-operate in interdenominational Preaching Missions, Visitation Campaigns, and Teaching Missions whenever and wherever practicable.
5. Conduct at least one Revival Meeting or Preaching Mission each year.
6. Have at least one Visitation Evangelistic Effort each year.
7. Make at least one special effort of the Strengthen the Sunday School movement each year.
8. Observe January as Youth Evangelism Month.
9. Co-operate in the evangelistic program of the denomination and of the Annual Conference through the observance of Evangelism Sunday, February 12, 1950, and through the distribution of literature and through other evangelistic means.
10. One or more minister's classes in Christian doctrine, catechetical instruction or church membership.

While the above Ten Minimum Essentials are presented on a yearly basis to conform to our "Standard of Achievement in Evangelism," it should be remembered that the "Advance" covers a fifteen-month period. For this reason several of the items should be carried out twice if a full schedule is followed in each calendar year involved.

Our denomination each year of the quadrennium has made substantial gains toward realizing its goal of 75,000 persons won to Christ and the Church each year. While we have not yet fully realized this goal, we are working earnestly toward fully reaching it this last year of the quadrennium.

The Strengthen the Sunday School Movement

THE General Commission on Evangelism has joined with the General Board of Christian Education in the promotion of the Strengthen the Sunday School program. This program, well publicized over the church, is proving its worth not only in making our Sunday schools bigger and better, but increasing their evangelistic results. Full particulars for this very important movement can be had by writing to the General Board of Christian Education, 1900 U. B. Building, Dayton 2, Ohio.

Christian Social Action

THE Commission on Christian Social Action earnestly endeavors to obtain the response of the Church to the Gospel of Jesus Christ as it affects human relationships in every area of life. The opportunities for the Church are increasing in this area because Christian social action is working at the growing edge of society where people live, move and have their being. If the Church would save her life, it must be vitally concerned with the hardest and most controversial problems of the social order.

During the past year, the Commission has apprized each Annual Conference of the major issues confronting the Church, the need of action in attacking these vital issues and suggestions how such attack may be made, and in making the Committee on Christian Social Action a dynamic force both in the Annual Conference and in the local church. Each Conference Superintendent and Conference Committee on Christian Social Action has received the emphases and directives from the Commission for information and guidance in this work.

The Executive Committee of the Commission seeks to keep the issues which are most pertinent and vital before the attention of the entire Church.

A number of Seminars have been promoted in Conference Summer Assemblies, Leadership Training Classes in Summer Camps and Community Schools, in training more leaders in this vital field of Christian service.

Letters containing information about our Church, encouragement in the ministry to the personnel in the armed forces, and the vitalization of the sense of our Christian fellowship, were sent to each of our Chaplains in active service each quarter.

Two of our ministers were nominated and admitted as representatives to the Seminar on The Church and the Economic Life conducted during the past summer at the University of Chicago. These representatives reported their findings to the Church press and to the Commission. Two of our ministers were also nominated and accepted to the School of Alcohol Studies, Yale University.

The observance of special days in the church year were again promoted: World Order Sunday, World Temperance Sunday, Race Relations Day, The Church and the Economic Life Week. The Commission united with the Board of Christian Education in the promotion of Christian Family Week.

During the past year, the Commission prepared and distributed to each minister in The Evangelical United Brethren Church the brochure: "How to Promote Alcohol Education in the Local Church." This pamphlet seeks to encompass in a succinct manner what local churches can do to combat this major contemporary evil.

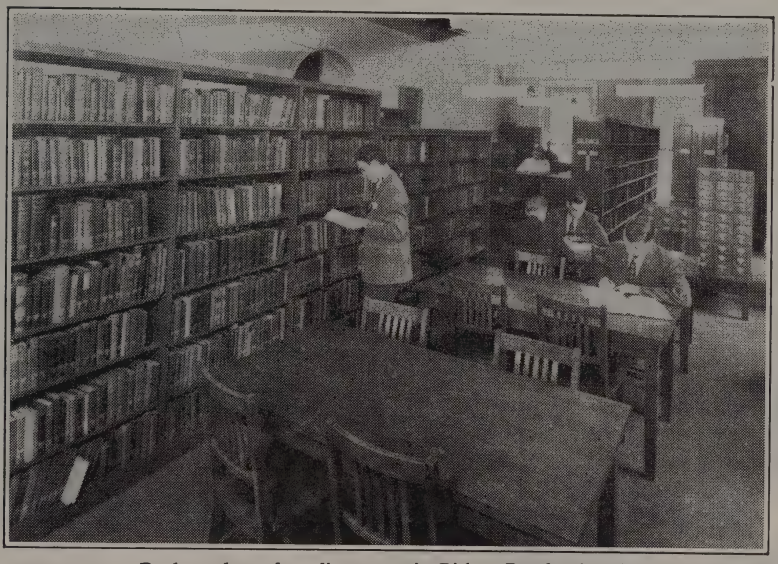

The Commission has worked in every way possible to aid in the program of Displaced Persons, seeking to amend certain legislation, to place persons and families, and to give direction and guidance wherever possible.

The Commission co-operates with the following agencies: the Departments of the Church and the Economic Life, Race Relations, and International Justice and Goodwill of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, Yale School of Alcohol Studies, various State Schools of Alcohol Studies, The Temperance League of America, The National Board for Religious Objectors, The International Council of Religious Education, National Economic organizations, our own Church Boards and Commissions, and the various Commissions on Christian Social Action of the major Protestant denominations.

EVANGELICAL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Reading, Pennsylvania

Book stacks and reading room in Bishop Breyfogel Hall

THE Evangelical School of Theology is the theological seminary which serves the Eastern Area (Ev) of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. The institution was founded in 1905, under the inspiring leadership of the sainted Bishop S. C. Breyfogel, D.D., LL.D. The school operates under the charter of Albright College but functions independently as a graduate professional school. It is accredited by the American Association of Theological Schools.

Invested funds total nearly $300,000. Building and equipment are valued at $200,000. The library contains over 15,000 volumes. The annual operating budget approximates $39,000. Income from invested funds, from the General Administrative Council, from room rentals and fees is supplemented by contributions totaling over $10,000 a year through the "Living Endwoment Fellowship."

J. Arthur Heck, Th.D.
President

The full-time administrative and teaching staff numbers five persons. In addition there is a full-time librarian in charge of the library. The enrollment last year was 33. Three major events enrich the year's normal program: the Spiritual Retreat in the early fall, the Mid-winter Convocation in February, and the Pastors' Conference in May. In addition to these are special lectures, seminars, institutes, and field trips covering various phases of the pastor's work. Indications are that there will be graduated this year the largest class in the history of the school.

BONEBRAKE SEMINARY
Dayton, Ohio

Proposed chapel to be erected soon

BONEBRAKE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, organized in 1871 under the name "Union Biblical Seminary" is located in the midst of the finest residential section of the city of Dayton, Ohio. On its thirty-five acre campus there are now four buildings consisting of the Administration Building, the Dormitory, the President's house and the Heating Plant. Plans are under way to erect a new chapel, a new library and some duplex apartments for married couples with children.

Bonebrake Seminary is in a financial campaign in the twenty-eight Annual Conferences of the former United Brethren Church to raise (between July 1, 1949 and December 31, 1950) a total of $450,000 as follows: the new chapel, $75,000; the new library building, $150,000; duplex apartments, $50,000; endowment, $175,000.

Walter N. Roberts, Ph.D., President

This "School of the Prophets" is accredited by the American Association of Theological Schools. It has nine faculty members, two full-time trained librarians, and more than 23,000 books in its library. It spends over $3,000 per year for new books and magazines. It directs its students in many phases of the practical work of the ministry. Its financial assets now exceed $1,400,000 and these assets are expected to be increased to nearly $2,000,000 by 1951.

The school offers 89 courses, 36 of which are required for graduation with the Bachelor of Divinity degree.

All of these financial, physical, intellectual and spiritual assets are directed to the one aim of the Seminary, namely, to help young men, who are called of God into the ministry, to become "good ministers of Jesus Christ."

Naperville, Illinois

Administration Hall houses offices, classrooms, library and chapel

"NINETY and nine" students enrolled in the present academic year (1949-50) representing twenty-five (25) conferences of the Evangelical United Brethren Church in the United States of America, the Dominion of Canada, and Missions in China, Africa and Central Europe, and a faculty of seven ordained elders of the Church as spiritually-minded instructors constitute the Seminary community.

College graduates who are licensed to preach are eligible for enrollment in the three-year graduate course which leads to the Bachelor of Divinity degree. Courses are available for Christian workers wishing to specialize following college training in preparation for service in missions and Christian education.

North Central, Indiana Central, Westmar, Otterbein Colleges of the Evangelical United Brethren Church are represented in the Seminary family as are a dozen other colleges and universities. Texas and New England, Oregon-Washington and Ohio and the mid-western conferences between furnish young ministers in training now in residence for the pastorate in the homeland and missionary service overseas.

A vital emphasis upon personal Christian experience touched by a healthy kingdom-minded concern for God's order in the world-wide mission of the Church is made in classroom instruction, chapel services, student body activities, and in deputation work in the churches. Supervised field work in church situations under competent advisors is a part of the curriculum.

ALBRIGHT COLLEGE

Alumni Memorial College

ALBRIGHT COLLEGE was founded in 1856 and is now in its 94th academic year as an agency of the Evangelical United Brethren Church preparing youth for fields of service. A fully accredited co-educational liberal arts college, Albright seeks to make possible the highest intellectual development in an atmosphere of Christian ideals so that the student will be encouraged to formulate and practice a Christian philosophy of life.

Albright's campus covers thirty-five acres. Buildings and equipment are valued at $1,742,335.11. The total gross assets as of June 30, 1949, were $3,108,664.62. The College's current campus development program includes plans for a new chapel, a physical education building, a men's dormitory, and additional general campus improvements. A student union building, known as Union Hall, was opened in February, 1948. An addition to the Alumni Memorial Library was completed during the summer of 1949. It is hoped that construction on the physical education building can be begun in 1950.

A competent staff of 62 Christian faculty and administrative officers provides a curriculum of more than 200 specific courses in 23 departments of instruction including—teaching, home economics (educational and consumer), industrial chemistry, physics and mathematics, laboratory technology, pre-nursing, pre-medicine, pre-dentistry, pre-veterinary, pre-law, pre-theology, social service, business administration, psychology and foreign languages. The total enrollment at Albright in the first semester of the 1949-50 academic year is 835.

Continually endeavoring to present to the students the claims of the Christian message, Albright gives priority to all religious activities and events in planning the extra-curricular program under the sponsorship of the College Christian Association and the guidance of the Director of Religious Activities. Students participate in daily worship services, Sunday morning Bible classes, and evening vespers, service programs for the needy at home and abroad, etc. Tuesday night of each week is given over entirely to the Christian Associations.

Justly proud of its past achievements, Albright eagerly looks to the future and to the opportunity for even greater service to youth and the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

INDIANA CENTRAL COLLEGE
Indianapolis, Indiana

THE location of this college in Indianapolis, capital city of Indiana and "Cross Roads of America," offers many advantages to its students. The city provides fine cultural advantages and also affords numerous work opportunities for those who, to some extent, must help themselves financially while in school. At the same time the campus is sufficiently removed from the center of the city that the school is not disturbed by its congestion.

Indiana Central, now fully accredited, is rapidly gaining a reputation for high quality work in all of its nineteen departments. Students are receiving excellent training in their chosen fields of study. But they are also receiving something more. They are receiving a well-balanced development of their entire personalities with emphasis upon Christianity as a way of life. These young people, so trained and so developed, will be safe leaders for the church, the nation and the world of tomorrow.

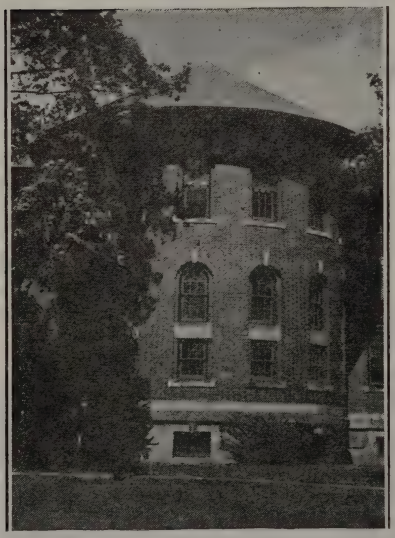

The year just ended has been a good year for our college. There have been no sensational achievements, but there has been steady growth and progress. Seventy-seven young men and women, many of them veterans of World War II, received their degrees at the June graduation. A new program for the College-Trained Nurse was worked out with the Methodist Hospital of Indianapolis. By this program a girl attends Indiana Central three years, spends twenty-seven months at the Methodist Hospital and receives both her Bachelor's degree and her Graduate Nurse's diploma at the end of this five-year course. The college choir has made an enviable reputation for itself and is in constant demand throughout this entire area. Music critics have praised its work highly. Our athletic teams won conference championships both in basketball and baseball and made favorable showings in all the other sports.

The religious emphasis week held in November was a time of real spiritual advance for the entire campus. Its influence was felt in a deepening of the quality of our Christian living throughout the entire year.

The major problem continues to be that of finance. Increased costs in every area of operation are making many budget problems. We are profoundly grateful for the extent to which the people of our supporting conferences increased their contributions to the college during the past year, but even greater contributions are necessary to assure the future. More of the assets of our church should be invested in the development of our youth. There is no insurance for the civilization of tomorrow but the Christian young people of today. Increased support of the church college will help to make their adequate training possible.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE
Annville, Pennsylvania

One section of the library

IN June 1949, Lebanon Valley College closed the most prosperous of its eighty-three years of service to the denomination and, through the Church, the young people who have been proud to call her "Alma Mater." The faculty comprises fifty-nine members. They have ministered to 829 full-time students and to 383 part-time students. Eight new members have joined the faculty this year.

Since 1932, the year that marked the beginning of the present administration, the total financial statement has grown from $1,586,120 to $2,468,321, an increase of almost $1,000,000. In the same period plant funds have increased from $630,530 to $1,031,394. In 1932 we had 10 buildings; now there are 17, including several residences occupied by professors. The College now owns land totaling 34 acres.

The additions and improvements made this last year, totaling $121,825, include work on the new athletic field, $51,515; improvements in Engle Hall, $3,476; the new organs, $16,787; the President's residence, $26,514; library books and equipment, $5,245; and heating-plant equipment, $1,845. There is no indebtedness, either external or internal.

Work on our physical-education building began in October. A campaign of $550,000 has been completed for this purpose.

Religiously, the year has been a prosperous one, too. The College Church, under the leadership of Doctor William A. Wilt, has been generous in making the church available as our chapel. Rev. David W. Gockley, Director of Religious Activities, has greatly improved the chapel services and has provided for an annual Religious Emphasis Week. Wednesday evening fellowship hours and Sunday evening vesper services are regular features.

There are 54 Life Work Recruits; 33 from our own denomination, 6 from other churches, and 15 associate members. They participated in 21 deputations in the cooperating Conferences. Special programs were presented at the Old People's Home in Lebanon and the Children's Hospital at Elizabethtown.

The Christian Association cabinets held two retreats; and, as a special project this year, they have completed a campaign to support a displaced Polish student here. The College President is Chairman of the Pennsylvania Commission on Displaced Persons.

Last year saw the introduction of an efficient counseling and testing program conducted by the Deans of Men and Women. The National Sophomore Testing Program and the Graduate Record Examination were administered.

The President has sought, during the 17 years of his administration, to cultivate good public and church relations, delivering approximately 100 addresses each year. He has endeavored to emphasize the Christian "plus" in higher education, believing that the Christian College should be academically respectable and spiritually alive. At Lebanon Valley College we endeavor to promote spirituality without fanaticism and Christian morality without legalism. The motto of the College is our guiding star—"And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" (John 8:32).

NORTH CENTRAL COLLEGE
Naperville, Illinois

NORTH CENTRAL COLLEGE has completed 88 years of service to the Church and the nation. A growing number of young men and women leave the campus each year to augment and strengthen the purposes and program of the Church. Related by compact with fifteen Conferences of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, from Ohio to California and Northwest Canada, the influence of the College is wide, indeed, and covers the larger part of the general Church.

Old Main Hall

A total of 989 different students were in attendance during 1949-50. These students came from seventeen states. Of this enrollment, 54.7% were members of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. This is a slight drop from the 56.2 percentage of 1947-48 but compares favorably with the percentage of 51.1 for 1946-47 and about 50% or 51% for the years just before the war.

The physical plant of the College is being steadily developed. Kroehler Dormitory for Women was opened during 1948-49. During the past summer a new and larger bookstore has been placed in service, several dormitory parlors refurnished and other major improvements have been carried out in campus maintenance.

North Central College is, of course, fully accredited by all of the important accrediting agencies. During the past year our School of Music was approved by the National Association of the Schools of Music.

The academic year 1949-50 opened on September 12 with little change in enrollment. There was some decrease due to the lower registration of G.I. students. Four replacements and additions to the faculty and staff have been made for the current year.

OTTERBEIN COLLEGE
Westerville, Ohio

OTTERBEIN COLLEGE is in its 104th year and enjoying a period most nearly approaching normalcy since the close of World War II.

Enrollment in the four college classes during 1948-49 was 928, with a net total of 991. Of this number, 776 were from Ohio, 100 from Pennsylvania, 35 from New

Science Hall

York, 17 from Michigan, 11 from New Jersey, 11 from Virginia, 9 from West Virginia, 7 from Indiana, 6 from California, with 10 other states and 6 foreign countries represented.

Denominations represented in the student body were nearly 450 Evangelical United Brethren, 200 Methodists, 94 Presbyterians, 32 Lutherans, 29 Baptists, 19 Church of Christ, 19 Episcopalian, 18 Congregational Christian, and the remainder divided among 17 other denominations. There were 331 veterans enrolled this last year against a previous high of 450. The graduating class of 1949 numbered exactly 200, the largest in the history of the College. Twenty-four others completed the work for graduation at the end of the summer session.

A systematic effort was made during the year to enlist more EUB students. College representatives last spring held 25 district meetings for prospective EUB students and their parents. College representatives visited practically every EUB summer youth conference and camp in the Otterbein College territory. There is always great interest in the college, the chief problem being lack of finances on the part of interested young people and their families. Mr. Maurice Gribler, Director of Admissions, visited 135 high schools to interview students.

The College closed its fiscal year with a small balance. The battle of the budget is a day by day struggle. Many important things must be left undone because of insufficient funds. If our Church Colleges are to be maintained in the future, the funds for higher education provided by the Church must be augmented. High schools and universities supported by public tax funds have vastly increased their faculty salaries, improved their equipment and erected many new buildings. Church-related schools dare not lag too far behind. This is a problem for the whole Church to face with regard to all eight Evangelical United Brethren Colleges.

During the past year Otterbein College received a gift of $400,000 from an alumnus of the College for a new chapel-auditorium. Seating capacity for the much needed structure will be approximately 1,200 people, with facilities for public worship services, general assemblies, musical events, and dramatic productions.

Special attention is being given to co-ordinating and strengthening the student personnel program of the College, and advances are being made in keeping the curriculum and teaching methods abreast of current demands. A school is as good as its teachers, and great care must be taken in the appointment of teachers who are competent scholars, skillful in the classroom, admirable in character, Christian in personal life, and in harmony with the spiritual purposes of the College.

Religious emphasis is maintained through the customary organizations—Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., Life Work Recruits, Youth Fellowship and by Religious Emphasis Week, daily chapel services and church worship on Sunday. However, religion is best magnified on the campus by a faculty which takes its position on the side of Christianity in the interpretation of truth and by daily example. There were more than sixty ministerial students enrolled.

Otterbein College is fully accredited, offers courses in fifteen departments leading to five academic degrees, and maintains a strong and diversified program of student activities including intercollegiate and intramural athletics, music, dramatics, debate, and many clubs and societies representing special interests.

SHENANDOAH COLLEGE AND SHENANDOAH CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

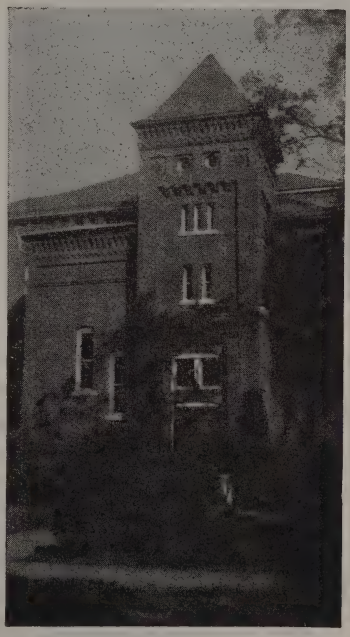

Dayton, Virginia

THE 1948-49 school year has been a year of progress at Shenandoah College and Shenandoah Conservatory of Music. Although there was a drop in enrollment, the student body taxed the dormitory and classroom facilities.

Shenandoah, located about the center of the Virginia Conference, has a supporting constituency of approximately twenty thousand members. It is the only Southern college and the only junior college of the Evangelical United Brethren Church; yet about 25% of the student body are members of our denomination.

Approximately $25,000 was expended out of current funds on improvements and equipment. The library was enlarged to meet the needs of the student body and repairs necessarily postponed during the war were completed.

With an endowment fund of approximately $60,000, it has been necessary to build, improve and maintain the plant out of current operating funds. The Virginia Conference is growing, but it cannot adequately support Shenandoah financially and increased financial support is essential to the growth and development of this institution.

Howe Memorial Hall

The Shenandoah Loyalty Fund has been inaugurated as a means of support for the current operating budget, but it did not reach the goals set for the first year. One of the main reasons being that junior college graduates who later attend a four-year institution and graduate owe allegiance to two institutions and feel they must help both causes.

The Christian Workers' League and the Y.M.-Y.W.C.A.'s are the most active organizations on the campus and are responsible for the greater part of the student activities on the campus and in the church.

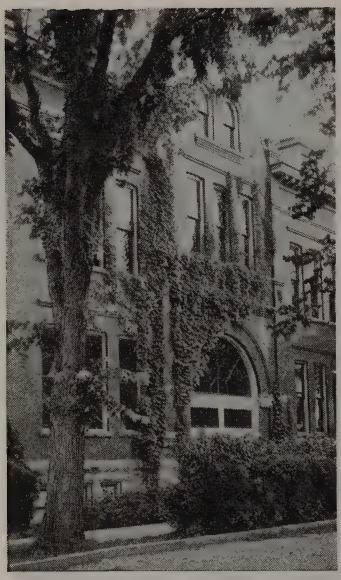

Shenandoah looks forward to her 75th Anniversary year maintaining a positive Christian influence in the lives of our future leaders in the classroom and in the campus life activities.

WESTMAR COLLEGE

Le Mars, Iowa

WESTMAR COLLEGE will celebrate its Fiftieth Anniversary on October 12-15, 1950.

The Charles A. Mock Library completed in December 1949, at a cost of $150,000.00, is a splendid and much needed addition to the campus. Koehler Hall, a men's dormitory housing 66 men and identical to Memorial Hall, was used for the first time during the first semester of the current year. It is now possible to house 130 women and 132 men on the campus. In addition to this housing, 24 apartments are provided for married students and faculty.

The fall semester of 1949-50 opened with an enrollment of 401 students and a staff of 34 teachers and administrative officers. There are 60 students enrolled preparing for the Christian ministry and 57.4 per cent of the students are members of the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Priority is given to the religious activities on the campus. One night each week is given to the Church Program. A week of Religious Emphasis is observed annually. This year Bishop E. W. Praetorius served as guest speaker.

The College offers a four-year Liberal Arts curriculum including special emphasis upon pre-ministerial, pre-professional and teacher training courses. The Departments of Home Economics, Industrial Arts, and Music are of special interest to many students.

Students desiring to enroll for the year 1950-51 or for the Summer Session are urged to make housing reservations at an early date in order to be assured of a room or apartment.

Since 1941 new building construction costing over one-half million dollars has been added to the campus.

The total assets as of June 30, 1949 were $1,525,961.50.

YORK COLLEGE

York, Nebraska

YORK COLLEGE is a liberal arts college of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, founded in 1890. Through the years of its history its graduates have entered many useful fields of activity and Christian service. At the present time about two-thirds of the students come from Evangelical United Brethren homes. York College serves the Southwestern and Pacific areas of our Church, and the city of York and its vicinity.

Christian teachers and sympathetic counselors are endeavoring to help students to prepare to live more successfully and happily as:

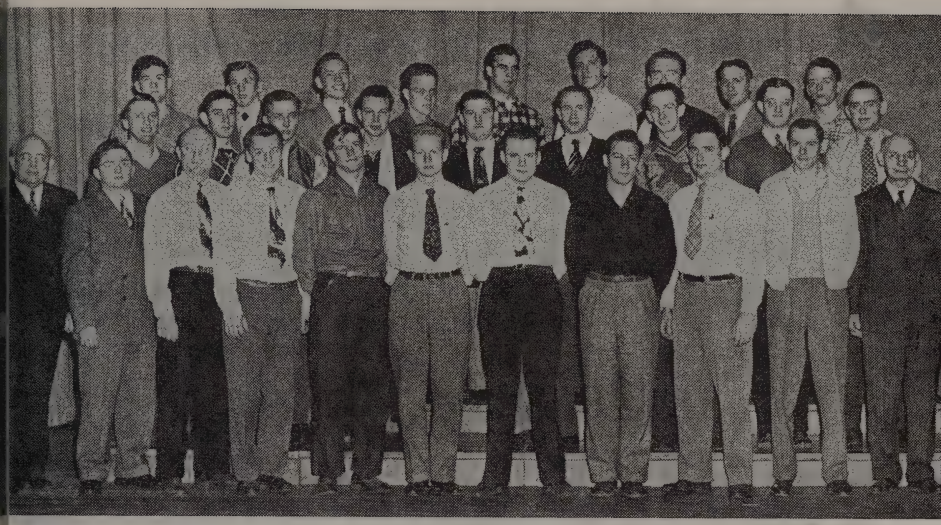

1. Christian citizens, who promote the worthier activities and the more wholesome attitudes which give richer meaning to personal and social life.

2. Christian home-makers, who as college graduates will maintain those constructive forces of Christian character building in the home which are of fundamental significance in a Christian world.

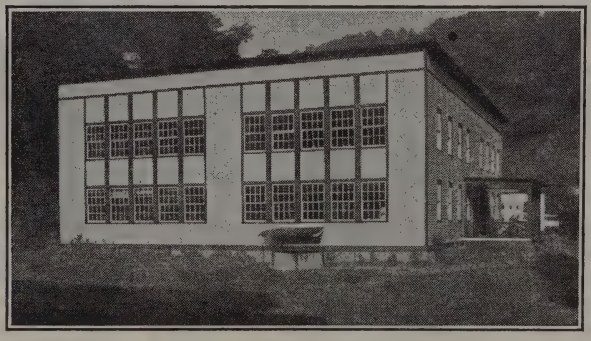

3. Christian workers in the church, who either as Christian lay workers or as ministers or other full-time Christian leaders, will use their talents for the extension of the Kingdom of God on earth.

The usual core departments and courses of a liberal arts curriculum are maintained in York College together with stress upon keeping religion at the heart of the curriculum and campus life. Included among the major objectives of the college is emphasis not only upon scholarship, culture, and pre-professional education, but also upon Christian character and Christian citizenship.

York College, as a Christian college of liberal arts, is maintained with the conviction that intelligence and righteousness belong together in a thoroughly democratic Christian social order.

FLAT ROCK CHILDREN'S HOME
Flat Rock, Ohio

Christmas scene in the Younger Boys' Cottage

DURING 1949 the Flat Rock Children's Home cared for over 100 children. These children came to the Home from conferences west of Pennsylvania as far as Oregon. Among the group is also a family of Displaced Persons with three children, formerly from Latvia. Most of these children came to the Home through the channels of the church, and were recommended by some Quarterly Conference or pastor.

Our main purpose is to give the children committed to our Home a good Christian environment. The entire plan is to give the children as nearly as possible all the privileges of private family life. This is being accomplished with a staff of sincere Christian men and women who have a deep concern for homeless children.

Rev. J. H. Arndt,
Superintendent

During 1949 many improvements were made at the Home. Perhaps the greatest accomplishment was the establishing of a College Education Fund. This fund will serve to help needy and worthy young people from the Home to secure a college education. This year one young woman from the Home is enrolled at North Central College and is receiving aid from the fund. This is the first venture of its kind in the history of the Home.

It is the aim of the Board of Trustees to keep the physical structure of the Home in excellent condition and modernize all equipment as soon as possible. The Home has a very high rating among institutions for children in the state of Ohio. The Christmas offering from the supporting conferences and special gifts constitute the major source of income.

QUINCY ORPHANAGE AND HOME

QUINCY Orphanage and Home enjoyed another very successful year and is now in the midst of an extensive building program. This building program will extend up to a great celebration in June, 1953, at which time the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Home will be observed. This building program will not stop in 1953 but will be continued until a number of new buildings have been erected and extensive renovations have been made.

In 1949 a new boiler house was built and a new 100 horsepower boiler installed. This new building was erected on the north side of the Industrial Building. The new boiler is large enough to provide steam, hot water and heat not only for the Industrial Building but also for the new Physical Education Building that will be erected to the west of the present Industrial Building.

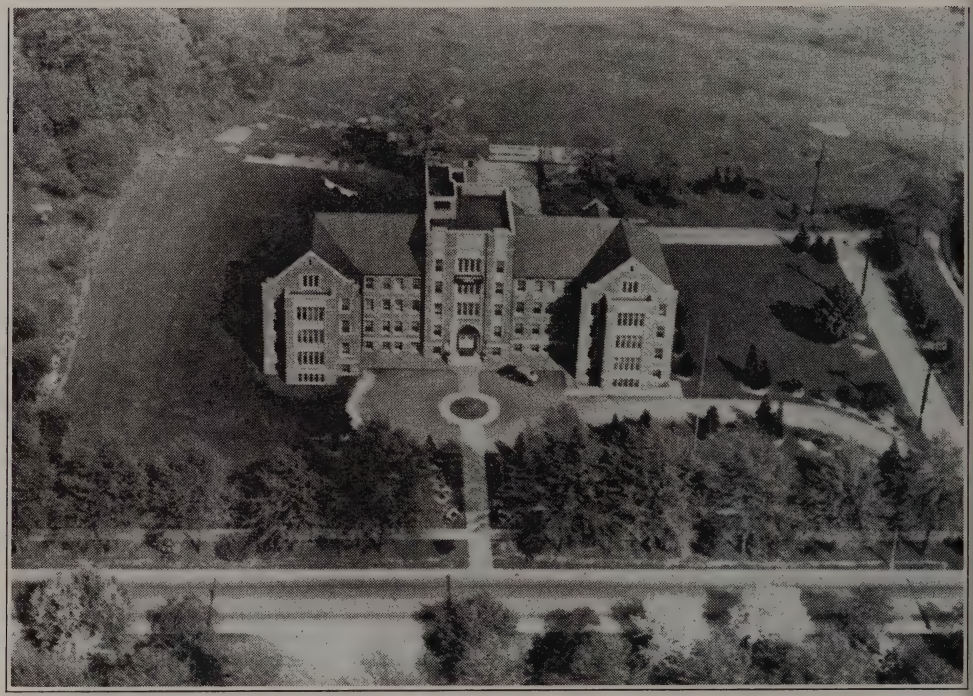

Excavation for the new 40-room annex that is being built to the west end of the Colestock Memorial Building known as Old People's Cottage number one, is progressing. It is anticipated that by the end of 1950 we will be able to begin admitting many of the large number of deserving aged members of our denomination who are on the waiting list. Some have been waiting many years for the opportunity to enjoy the comforts and Christian fellowship of that Home.

Rev. A. C. Wertsch,
Superintendent

The Orphanage family now numbers one hundred and thirty-two children. These children are enjoying the blessings of our fine Christian Home. The support from our Eastern Bishop's Area is increasing each year. Each Christmas season finds the offerings nearer the "Goal of $1.00 per Member" from each church. This is brought about by the fact that many friends know about the great need and are willing to share with us. James in his Epistle reminds us that "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction and to keep himself unspotted from the world."

PHILADELPHIA EVANGELICAL HOME FOR THE AGED
Philadelphia 15, Pennsylvania

Aerial view of the Home and its grounds

THE Philadelphia Evangelical Home for the Aged is an institution of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. This Home serves the extreme Eastern area of our Church. It is conveniently located along United States Highway No. 1 leading to the city of New York. It is ten miles from downtown Philadelphia and the traveling time from the center of the city is about forty-five minutes.

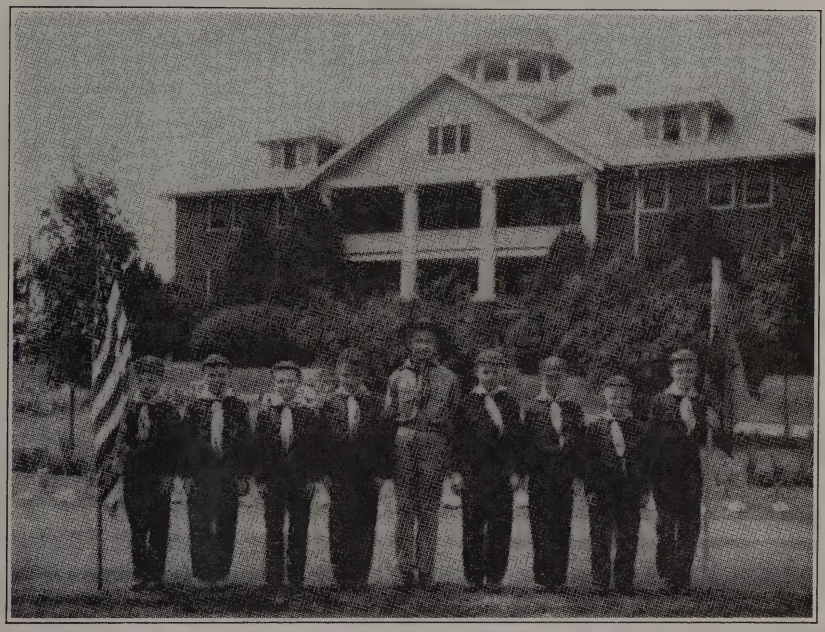

The attractive Home building is set beautifully on a six-acre tract of well developed land. The above aerial view of the Home building and the surrounding grounds gives one a good conception of the physical setting of this institution. The Baptist Home for the Aged is to the south of our property, the Nazareth Hospital to the east, the Schriner's Hospital for Crippled Children to the west, and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows is planning to build a Home for the Aged touching the north of our property. In many respects our Home is ideal for situation.

Rev. I. James Bobst,
Superintendent

It is our purpose to provide care and comfort for the folks of our Church who are in need of this ministry. We aim to have our residents live in a home-like atmosphere and to keep paramount the ministry of Christian fellowship. Many people are interested in this good work. They have been generous in their gifts and encouraging with their words of appreciation. We have been able to meet the demands of every-day operation and were able to add a portion to our reserve fund during the past year. Always the Home management appreciates your prayerful co-operation in this much needed ministry of our Church.

EVANGELICAL HOME
Lewisburg, Pennsylvania

Cub Scouts of the Evangelical Home

THE Evangelical Home near Lewisburg, Pa., is located on a small knoll overlooking the Susquehanna River. The spacious lawns with beautiful and some rare shade trees are the admiration of all who come to our Home either as guests or as visitors. The first impression is one of restful and quiet atmosphere, in keeping with the desire of those who come to tarry here during the sunset hours of life. In this setting are found the comfortable dormitories of the Department of the Aged which accommodate eighty guests and are filled to capacity.

Near at hand is the Children's Home with its shrubbery and beautiful flower gardens, carefully tended by the staff of workers. While some of our forty-eight children engage in assigned tasks, the playground, with its added equipment, is the scene of carefree children enjoying the privilege of a home and an opportunity to prepare for the future experiences of life.

Through the kindness of our many friends who give generous contributions to support our work, we have continued the ministry of the Home to our guests for another year. During this time we have kept our buildings in repair, made some improvements, and added to our permanent and reserve funds. Without doubt, our Heavenly Father has been watching over our home.

THE OTTERBEIN HOME, Lebanon, Ohio

Phillippi Hall where hospital is located

THE Otterbein Home welcomes the opportunity to serve. This Home has cared for 137 elderly people during the past year and has tenderly laid to rest 21 of this number, leaving at present 116 guests. It has cared for 150 children during the year. Five have graduated, 25 have been returned to the custody of parents or others, leaving 120 children who are living at the Home at this time.

The spiritual life of our family is at a good level. Our pastor, the Rev. E. S. Comrey, has the church well organized. Worship service each Sunday morning is followed by the Sunday school. The evening program opens with Youth Fellowship followed by the evening worship service. There are three prayer meetings held each week: one at Bethany, one at Phillippi and one at the Good Samaritan buildings.

Dr. L. M. Hohn

To serve the physical side of this large family is no small task. Take the number of persons found in the average family and determine their needs, then multiply by 48, and you will discover Otterbein Home needs. Three things are extremely important to any home: food, clothing, and housing. These are being supplied in a splendid way. This could not be done if it were not for the co-operating conferences, churches, and the farm.

The Trustees of The Otterbein Home have established worthy goals. The first is to give good care to the children and the aged guests. The second is to take care of many repairs that were neglected while new buildings were being constructed. The repair program is a MUST now. Only one new building is contemplated for this year. For many years the Home has needed a better place in which to dress its meats, so a new slaughter house is under way.

The Board encourages a fine Christmas offering from the churches. The goal is as it has been in other years: an average of one dollar per member per year.

Those who consider the Annuity Plan of giving to the Home should get in touch with The Otterbein Home office at Lebanon, Ohio.

The Otterbein Home is a valuable asset to the church in that the church has here an opportunity to express its faith in behalf of those who are less fortunate than others. There are people who have funds, but not able to get anyone to care for them; others have nothing, yet have the same need for care. This is exactly what the church has as its opportunity; it can help by providing for such as are in need.

The Otterbein Home believes in the words of Jesus when he said: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

HAVEN HUBBARD MEMORIAL OLD PEOPLE'S HOME
New Carlisle, Indiana

Guests and workers enjoy a birthday party

"A LITTLE heaven on earth" is the way one of our older Home members expresses his feelings about Haven Hubbard Home. Many of the Home "family" feel the same way. We now have 86 guests. They average 82 years of age. The "family" is cared for by a resident staff of 16, and in addition four men are employed on our 700-acre farm.

During the past year our intensive program of general improvement has gone steadily forward. All drives and loading areas of the Main Building and Hubbard Hall have been black topped and a new lighted drive built through the three-acre park between these buildings. Additional decorative trees have been placed in the park and around both buildings.

Nearly a half mile of 3-inch water main and three 3,000-gallon underground high pressure tanks were installed connecting the large farm and Home wells, assuring an adequate water supply from either or both sources.

A complete public address system has been installed connecting Hubbard Hall, the hospital unit, with the chapel and dining room in the main building so that the entire Home family can share in morning worship, prayer meetings, and Sunday services. The former inter-communication system in the main building has also been extended to Hubbard Hall. These improvements plus a great deal of decorating, new parlor carpeting, etc., are making this Home beautiful.

Undoubtedly the highest point of enjoyment during the past year was reached when, after being out of the chapel for several months during the remodeling, the chapel was dedicated in early December as the Armina Hubbard Memorial Chapel.

The original unit of the Home

THIS Home has cared for 492 older people during the 37 years of its existence. The present membership is 112, consisting of 67 women and 25 men, the majority of whom are members of our own denomination. Their average age is 80 years and 10 months. Fifteen new members were received during the past year. The records reveal the members live on an average of 85 years, which is 18 years beyond the normal life expectancy.

Rev. G. A. Stauffacher, Superintendent

The Home is managed by a Board of Trustees of 9 members, appointed quadrennially by the General Conference. The buildings, equipment and employed staff combine to promote comfort and contentment, health and happiness, security and serenity, friendliness and faith, among those for whom they minister. The total assets are $798,000.00; the cost of operation for 1949 was $43,700.00. There is no indebtedness. A committee was appointed at the last meeting of the Board to outline a long-term program of improvements. The Board of Trustees is alert to promote the physical and spiritual welfare of its family and to look after the material interests of the Home property, its finances and spiritual concerns.

Applicants desiring admission or individuals interested in supporting this Christian ministry are invited to correspond with the Superintendent, Rev. G. A. Stauffacher, Supt. Western Old People's Home, Cedar Falls, Iowa.

Right: Guests enjoy leisure hours in the parlor

IN its 26th year of service, Pacific Evangelical United Brethren Home, 361 East Cypress Ave., Burbank, California, has cared for 46 persons —11 men and 35 women—averaging 80 years of age.

Seeking to make this not merely an institution, but, in the deepest connotation of the term, a Christian Home, it is the constant endeavor to make the sunset years of life comfortable and meaningful. The law of love, the spirit of tolerance, and consideration for the individual's personality and background, make regimentation unnecessary. Happiness, contentment, and proper adjustment to life are easy here.

Situated as it is on ample grounds the Home is in the midst of an ambitious expansion program. As the initial phase thereof a five-car garage and two duplexes have been constructed. The duplexes will furnish accommodations for retired couples who desire to spend their latter years in a climate which is kind to them and in an area—for the Home is situated in Greater Los Angeles—which affords many cultural and spiritual opportunities.

The second floor lounging room has been entirely renovated. The improvement will greatly enhance the spirit of comraderie of the guests as well as providing a splendid atmosphere for larger gatherings.

The all-Evangelical United Brethren staff is diligent in its efforts to make this Home a haven of rest for Evangelical United Brethren persons who are given priority in the matter of entrance, and for others as space permits.

This Home, for those in the upper age brackets, situated as it is on the West Coast, and in an ideal climate, has a distinct mission and a real contribution to make to the denomination, and thus to society at large.

Superintendent

Puente, California

Dr. W. L. Perkins
Newly-elected Superintendent

THIS Home was founded in 1911 by Col. and Mrs. R. M. Baker, members of First Church (UB), Los Angeles, California. Under a unique plan it provides a cottage with grounds for lawn, garden, flowers and fruit trees, for each retired minister and his wife to be used as their own for their remaining years. These homes are rent free, with taxes, water and general upkeep provided by the institution. Each family provides its own living expenses, uses its own furniture and equipment, cares for the house, lawn, garden and grounds as long as the members are physically able to do so. A caretaker is available to assist in time of need. A garage is provided for those who have cars. The caretaker makes trips to market or to the doctor for those who have no other means of transportation. A new station wagon has been procured for this purpose.

The Home is located in beautiful La Puente Valley, the citrus belt of southern California. The metropolitan city of Los Angeles is only twenty-five miles to the west. The valley is surrounded by high rolling hills, while twenty-five miles to the north are the lofty Sierra Mountains. Guests have plenty of sunshine and daily outdoor life the year round. The climate is invigorating, even in summer, due to sea breezes. The nights are cool.

The Home owns twenty-four acres of ground, with nine acres in orange and lemon groves. Of the remaining fifteen acres, that not occupied by cottages is used for winter hay or grain crops.

The Home was endowed as an independent corporation. The title is vested in a Board of Trustees, which has complete control of all property, with the right to buy or sell any of its holdings. The Articles of Incorporation provide that the Board of nine Trustees be elected by the California Annual Conference of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ. Three are elected each year to serve for a period of three years. They are directly responsible to the California Conference, to whom they make a report and submit to an annual audit of its financial condition. Their last annual report showed $130,530 invested in stocks and bonds, constituting its main source of income. Total assets are $217,487.

Up to the present time, only the three annual conferences of the Pacific District have contributed any financial aid to the Home. They make an annual Christmas offering toward the maintenance of the Institution. By wise management and investments, the Board meets all obligations of costs and maintenance and care, but funds for building additional cottages, so much needed, are quite limited. All cottages are now filled.

Since its organization, the Home has served approximately one hundred worthy servants of the Church. Rev. E. E. Hostetter and his wife have been assigned to the new house just completed and which they built and help to finance. Thus after serving as superintendent for twenty-three years and providing their own living quarters, they join the Home membership.

Deaconess Work in Germany

400-bed hospital and deaconess training center, Wuppertal-Elberfeld

OUR deaconess organization, Bethesda, is the greatest organization of deaconesses of the disestablished churches of Europe. It has erected nine hospitals and several old people's homes and a sanatorium for children at Honnef in its 65-year history. The mother Bethesda-house, the hospital and House of Deaconesses at Wuppertal-Elberfeld, is one of the most modern and beautiful houses in all Germany. It was utilized in 1945 by the British occupation troops as a military hospital. Despite this heavy restriction of our work Bethesda was able to expand its deaconess work after the war. It worked with redoubled vigor against misery and desperation. Deaconesses were sent to a number of refugees' homes, where they served acceptably. The damages caused by war in the hospitals could be repaired almost everywhere. It is necessary to rebuild the entirely destroyed houses for sisters and old people's homes in Cologne, Dortmund, and Hamburg.

Over 600 deaconesses do their many-sided duties in all parts of Germany, predominantly in hospitals. They also serve in community work, in old people's homes, in the care for refugees, in homes for children, kindergartens, and other fields of task.

The General Commission on Evangelism has provided an attractive set of turnover charts on visitation evangelism. The set consists of 118 pages of illustrated material. This material is arranged in four units so as to provide four lessons in training in going out two by two in personal evangelism.

The General Commission also has a splendid sound slidefilm entitled, "Bringing Christ to the Home." This is a 69 frame black and white filmstrip. It is not only striking but very effective in stimulating the interest in visitation evangelism. These two very helpful audio-visual aids will make a telling contribution to visitation evangelism when used in any local church.

The 118-page set of turnover charts entitled, "They Went Forth—Two by Two," costs $12.00. The sound filmstrip consisting of 69 black and white frames with three twelve-inch records sells at $12.50. Both of these auto-visual materials can be secured by writing to the Commission on Evangelism, 1910 U. B. Building, Dayton 2, Ohio.

REUTLINGEN, GERMANY, SEMINARY

latter the well-adapted class building and dormitory was erected in 1904. For the 75th anniversary in 1952 it is hoped to provide a chapel for the festival services. The value of the property amounts to about 160,000 DM.

Students before being admissible are one-year probatioiners of the respective conferences, many of them graduates of classical or modern colleges. The enrollment numbers thirty students in four-year courses.

The faculty is comprised of four full-time professors, all academically graduated, three with degrees from German universities and two with special training. The curriculum includes all the theological branches besides the general education.

The intention and aim of the Seminary is to qualify young men for the evangelistic and missionary work of the Church of today.

CHURCH PROPERTY

Church property speaks, and very eloquently too at times—for or against the church. When the property is kept attractive and speaks of order, beauty, devoted care, it makes a real appeal to those who are sensitive to spiritual influence. But what it says about carelessness, ill repair, neglect, is very hard to discount! What does your church property tell to those who pass by?

The Editor expresses appreciation of the indefatigable work of the office secretary, Miss Frances Cummings, in aiding in the preparation of this Year Book, particularly in keeping the lists of appointments and addresses up-to-date.

NEW... Bible People Cut-Outs

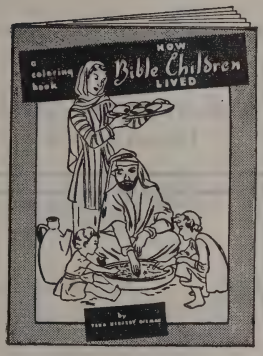

A storytelling toy in full color to delight every child! New, different, instructive, creative, entertaining.

This unusual handwork set has been prepared for the youngster's own use. All together there are six large sheets of Bible people, animals, and objects, in full color, to be cut out and assembled into stand-up story scenes. Noah, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, and David are the familiar characters whose Bible lives can be dramatized. Fun to cut out and build as Bible stories "come to life."

Stand-up cut-outs of figures can be placed in upright position in front of panoramic background scenes and the people moved around or "scenery shifted" at will. In the life of Joseph, for example, Joseph can be put into the well; sold into slavery; forgive his brothers, etc. Set in envelope, 10 x 14 inches. Price, complete..... $1.00

NEW... How Bible Children Lived

Ruth and Benjamin, brother and sister in the Palestine of Bible times, almost become real-life characters in the 29 outline drawings of this book as events in their everyday life are convincingly pictured. When coloring each illustration, the child receives an interesting step-by-step story on "how Bible children lived"—what they did at play, in school, on holidays, what they ate, what happened in the market place, etc. Pictures are exceptionally well done, authentic, yet simple and easy to color, with a brief comment under each picture.

Ideal gift and reward, or supplemental handwork booklet for boys and girls in the home, Sunday school, vacation or weekday school. Instructive and entertaining. Size, 8½ x 11 inches. Two-color cover. Price, each..... 25c.

NEW... I Learn About God, and I Learn About Jesus

Here are attractive, new-type, handwork booklets that will fascinate every little child. FULL-COLOR—designed for preschool children—simple to use—educationally correct.

Two different booklets are available—one on the theme of "God's World" (God made night and day; God made the birds and animals; etc.), and the other presenting simple teachings of Jesus. Each booklet is a cut-out and coloring book all in one. . . . There are 12 pages of neatly outlined pictures of boys and girls or Bible scenes in each book to be completed by the child. Corresponding full-color pictures on gummed pages are provided to be cut out, moistened, and stuck in place on the outlines. Easy and fun to do. No pasting necessary. Remaining background of picture can then be colored. For home, Sunday school, vacation or weekday school, etc. Size, 8 x 10 inches. Price, each book..... 35c.

Most Important of All...

Outstanding tonal beauty is the most important quality a pipe organ can have. To achieve this in the Möller organ, all pipes and reeds are built, voiced, and tuned in our own shops by our own skilled craftsmen.

Installation in your church is made by Möller men with special training and experience in tuning, regulating, and acoustics. This care in building and installation gives each Möller organ remarkable tone quality — as well as individual beauty.
